

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

OF THAT SORT OF DRAMATIC POEM WHICH IS CALLED TRAGEDY.

TRAGEDY, as it was anciently composed, hath been ever held the gravest, moralest, and most profitable of all other poems; therefore said by Aristotle to be of power, by raising pity and fear, or terror, to purge the mind of those and such like passions, that is, to temper and reduce them to just measure with a kind of delight, stirred up by reading or seeing those passions well imitated. Nor is nature wanting in her own effects to make good his assertion; for so in physis, things of melancholic hue and quality are used against melancholy, sour against sour, salt to remove salt humours. Hence philosophers and other gravest writers, as Cicero, Plutarch, and others, frequently cite out of tragic poets, both to adorn and illustrate their discourse. The apostle Paul himself thought it not unworthy to insert a verse of Euripides into the text of holy scripture, 1 Cor. xv. 33; and Paræus, commenting on the Revelation, divides the whole book, as a tragedy, into acts, distinguished each by a chorus of heavenly harpings and song between. Heretofore men in highest dignity have laboured not a little to be thought able to compose a tragedy. Of that honour Dionysius the elder was no less ambitious, than before of his attaining to the tyranny. Augustus Cæsar also had begun his Ajax, but unable to please his own judgment with what he had begun, left it unfinished. Seneca, the philosopher, is by some thought the author of those tragedies, at least the best of them, that go under that name. Gregory Nazianzen, a father of the church, thought it not unbeseeming the sanctity of his person to write a tragedy, which is entitled, Christ Suffering. This is mentioned to vindicate tragedy from the small esteem, or rather infamy, which in the account of many it undergoes at this day with other common interludes; happening through the poet's error of intermixing comic stuff with tragic sadness and gravity, or introducing trivial and vulgar persons, which by all judicious hath been counted absurd, and brought in without discretion, corruptly to gratify the people. And though ancient tragedy use no prologue, yet using sometimes, in case of self-defence, or explanation, that which Martial calls an epistle, in behalf of this tragedy coming forth after the ancient manner, much different from what among us passes for best, thus much beforehand may be epistled: that Chorus is here introduced after the Greek manner, not ancient only but modern, and still in use among the Italians. In the modeling therefore of this poem, with good reason, the ancients and Italians are rather followed, as of much more authority and fame. The measure of verse used in the chorus is of all sorts, called by the Greeks Monostrophic, or rather Apolelymenon, without regard had to Strophe, Antistrophe, or Epode, which were a kind of stanzas framed only for the music, then used with the chorus that sung; not essential to the poem, and therefore not material; or being divided into stanzas or pauses, they may be called Allœostropha. Division into act and scene referring chiefly to the stage, to which this work never was intended, is here omitted.

It suffices if the whole drama be found not produced beyond the fifth act; of the style and uniformity, and that commonly called the plot, whether intricate or explicit, which is nothing indeed but such economy, or disposition of the fable as may stand best with verisimilitude and decorum, they only will best judge who are not unacquainted with Æschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides, the three tragic poets, unequalled yet by any, and the best rule to all who endeavour to write tragedy. The circumscription of time, wherein the whole drama begins and ends is, according to ancient rule and best example, within the space of twenty-four hours.

THE ARGUMENT.

SAMSON made captive, blind, and now in the prison at Gaza, there to labour as in a common workhouse, on a festival-day, in the general cessation from labour, comes forth into the open air, to a place nigh, somewhat retired, there to sit a while and bemoan his condition. Where he happens at length to be visited by certain friends and equals of his tribe, which make the chorus, who seek to comfort him what they can; then by his old father Manoah, who endeavours the like, and withal tells him his purpose to procure his liberty by ransom; and, lastly, that this feast was proclaimed by the Philistines as a day of thanksgiving for their deliverance from the hands of Samson, which yet more troubles him. Manoah then departs to prosecute his endeavour with the Philistian lords for Samson's redemption; who in the mean while is visited by other persons; and lastly by a public officer to require his coming to the feast before the lords and people, to play or show his strength in their presence. He at first refuses, dismissing the public officer with absolute denial to come; at length persuaded inwardly that this was from God, he yields to go along with him, who came now the second time with great threatenings to fetch him. The chorus yet remaining on the place, Manoah returns full of joyful hope, to procure ere long his son's deliverance: in the midst of which discourse an Hebrew comes in haste, confusedly at first, and afterward more distinctly, relating the catastrophe, what Samson had done to the Philistines, and by accident to himself; wherewith the tragedy ends.

SAMSON AGONISTES.

SAMS. A little onward lend thy guiding hand
 To these dark steps, a little further on ;
 For yonder bank hath choice of sun or shade :
 There I am wont to sit, when any chance
 Relieves me from my task of servile toil, 5
 Daily in the common prison else enjoin'd me,
 Where I, a prisoner chain'd, scarce freely draw
 The air imprison'd also, close and damp,
 Unwholesome draught : but here I feel amends,
 The breath of heav'n fresh blowing, pure and sweet,
 With day-spring born ; here leave me to respire.
 This day a solemn feast the people hold
 To Dagon, their sea-idol, and forbid
 Laborious works, unwillingly this rest
 Their superstition yields me ; hence with leave 15
 Retiring from the popular noise, I seek
 This unfrequented place to find some ease,
 Ease to the body some, none to the mind
 From restless thoughts, that, like a deadly swarm

Of hornets arm'd, no sooner found alone, 20
 But rush upon me thronging, and present
 Times past, what once I was, and what am now.
 Oh! wherefore was my birth from heav'n foretold
 Twice by an angel, who at last in sight
 Of both my parents all in flames ascended 25
 From off the altar, where an off'ring burn'd,
 As in a fiery column charioting
 His god-like presence, and from some great act
 Or benefit reveal'd to Abraham's race?
 Why was my breeding order'd and prescrib'd 30
 As of a person separate to God,
 Design'd for great exploits, if I must die
 Betray'd, captiv'd, and both my eyes put out,
 Made of my enemies the scorn and gaze,
 To grind in brazen fetters under task 35
 With this heav'n-gifted strength? O glorious
 Put to the labour of a beast, debas'd [strength
 Lower than bondslave! Promise was that I Should Israel from Philistian yoke deliver;
 Ask for this great deliverer now, and find him 40
 Eyeless in Gaza at the mill with slaves,
 Himself in bonds under Philistian yoke.
 Yet stay, let me not rashly call in doubt
 Divine prediction: what if all foretold
 Had been fulfill'd but through mine own default,
 Whom have I to complain of but myself?
 Who this high gift of strength committed to me,

In what part lodg'd, how easily bereft me,
 Under the seal of silence could not keep,
 But weakly to a woman must reveal it, 50
 O'ercome with importunity and tears.
 O impotence of mind in body strong !
 But what is ~~strength without a double share~~
 Of wisdom? vast, unwieldy, burthensome,
 Proudly secure, yet liable to fall 55
 By weakest subtleties, not made to rule,
 But to subserve where wisdom bears command !
 God, when he gave me strength, to show withal
 How slight the gift was, hung it in my hair.
 But peace, I must not quarrel with the will 60
 Of highest dispensation, which herein
 Haply had ends above my reach to know :
 Suffices that to me strength is my bane,
 And proves the source of all my miseries,
 So many, and so huge, that each apart 65
 Would ask a life to wail ; but chief of all,
 O loss of sight, of thee I most complain !
 Blind among enemies, O worse than chains,
 Dungeon, or beggary, or decrepit age !
 Light, the prime work of God, to me's extinct, 70
 And all her various objects of delight
 Annull'd, which might in part my grief have eas'd,
 Inferior to the vilest now become
 Of man or worm, the vilest here excel me ;
 They creep, yet see, I dark in light exposed 75

To daily fraud, contempt, abuse, and wrong,
 Within doors, or without, still as a fool
 In power of others, never in my own;
 Scarce half I seem to live, dead more than half.
 O dark, dark, dark, amid the blaze of noon, 80
 Irrecoverably dark, total eclipse
 Without all hope of day!
 O first created beam, and thou great Word,
 'Let there be light, and light was over all;'
 Why am I thus bereav'd thy prime decree? 85
 The sun to me is dark
 And silent as the moon,
 When she deserts the night
 Hid in her vacant interlunar cave.
 Since light so necessary is to life, 90
 And almost life itself, if it be true
 That light is in the soul,
 She all in every part; why was the sight
 To such a tender ball as th' eye confin'd,
 So obvious and so easy to be quench'd? 95
 And not as feeling, through all parts diffus'd,

That she might look at will through every pore?
 Then had I not been thus exil'd from light,
 As in the land of darkness yet in light,
 To live a life half dead, a living death, 100
 And buried; but O yet more miserable!
 Myself my sepulchre, a moving grave,
 Buried, yet not exempt
 By privilege of death and burial
 From worst of other evils, pains, and wrongs, 105
 But made hereby obnoxious more
 To all the miseries of life,
 Life in captivity
 Among inhuman foes.
 But who are these; for with joint pace I hear 110
 The tread of many feet steering this way?
 Perhaps my enemies, who come to stare
 At my affliction, and perhaps t' insult,
 Their daily practice to afflict me more.

CHOR. This, this is he; softly a while, 115
 Let us not break in upon him;
 O change beyond report, thought, or belief!
 See how he lies at random, carelessly diffus'd,

¹⁰⁰ a living death] Consult the note, in Mr. Todd's edition, for the frequent use of this expression, from Petrarch, and Shakespeare, and the old English Poets.

With languish'd head unpropp'd,
 As one past hope, abandon'd, 120
 And by himself given over;
 In slavish habit, ill-fitted weeds
 O'er-worn and soil'd;
 Or do my eyes misrepresent? can this be he,
 That heroic, that renown'd, 125
 Irresistible Samson? whom unarmed [withstand;
 No strength of man or fiercest wild beast could
 Who tore the lion, as the lion tears the kid,
 Ran on imbattled armies clad in iron,
 And, weaponless himself, 130
 Made arms ridiculous, useless the forgery
 Of brazen shield and spear, the hammer'd cuirass,
 Chalybean temper'd steel, and frock of mail
 Adamantean proof;
 But safest he who stood aloof, 135
 When insupportably his foot advanc'd,
 In scorn of their proud arms and warlike tools,
 Spurn'd them to death by troops. The bold Asca-lonite
 Fled from his lion ramp; old warriors turn'd
 Their plated backs under his heel, 140

Or grov'ling soil'd their crested helmets in the dust.
 Then with what trivial weapon came to hand,
 The jaw of a dead ass, his sword of bone,
 A thousand fore-skins fell, the flower of Palestine
 In Ramath-lechi, famous to this day : 145
 Then by main force pull'd up, and on his shoulders
 The gates of Azza, post, and massy bar, [bore
 Up to the hill by Hebron, seat of giants old,
 No journey of a Sabbath day, and loaded so ;
 Like whom the Gentiles feign to bear up heav'n.
 Which shall I first bewail, 151
 Thy bondage or lost sight,
 Prison within prison
 Inseparably dark ?
 Thou art become, O worst imprisonment ! 155
 The dungeon of thyself ; thy soul,
 Which men enjoying sight oft without cause com-
 Imprison'd now indeed, [plain,
 In real darkness of the body dwells,
 Shut up from outward light,
 T' incorporate with gloomy night ;
 For inward light, alas !
 Puts forth no visual beam.
 O mirror of our fickle state,
 Since man on earth unparallel'd ! 165
 The rarer thy example stands,
 By how much from the top of wondrous glory,

147 gates of Azza] Beaumont's Psyche, c. v. st. 71.

 Did Gaza's gates up Hebron's mountains wear.'

Strongest of mortal men,
 To lowest pitch of abject fortune thou art fall'n.
 For him I reckon not in high estate, 170
 Whom long descent of birth
 Or the sphere of fortune raises :
 But thee, whose strength, while virtue was her mate,
 Might have subdued the earth,
 Universally crown'd with highest praises. 175

SAMS. I hear the sound of words, their sense the Dissolves unjointed ere it reach my ear. [air

CHOR. He speaks, let us draw nigh. Matchless
 The glory late of Israel, now the grief, [in might,
 We come, thy friends and neighbours not unknown,
 From Eshtaol and Zora's fruitful vale, 181
 To visit or bewail thee, or, if better,
 Counsel or consolation we may bring,
 Salve to thy sores: apt words have power to swage
 The tumours of a troubled mind, 185
 And are as balm to fester'd wounds.

SAMS. Your coming, friends, revives me, for I
Now of my own experience, not by talk, [learn
How counterfeit a coin they are who friends
Bear in their superscription, of the most 190
I would be understood; in prosperous days
They swarm, but in adverse withdraw their head,
Not to be found, though sought. Ye see, O friends,
How many evils have inclos'd me round; 194
Yet that which was the worst now least afflicts me,
Blindness; for had I sight, confus'd with shame,
How could I once look up, or heave the head,
Who, like a foolish pilot, have shipwreck'd
My vessel trusted to me from above,
Gloriously rigged; and for a word, a tear, 200
Fool! have divulged the secret gift of God
To a deceitful woman? tell me, friends,
Am I not sung and proverb'd for a fool
In every street? do they not say, how well
Are come upon him his deserts? yet why? 205
Immeasurable strength they might behold
In me, of wisdom nothing more than mean;
This with the other should, at least, have pair'd,
These two proportion'd ill drove me transverse.

CHOR. Tax not divine disposal: wisest men 210
Have err'd, and by bad women been deceiv'd;
And shall again, pretend they ne'er so wise.
Deject not then so overmuch thyself,
Who hast of sorrow thy full load besides;
Yet, truth to say, I oft have heard men wonder 215
Why thou shouldst wed Philistian women rather

Than of thine own tribe fairer, or as fair,
At least of thy own nation, and as noble.

SAMS. The first I saw at Timna, and she pleas'd
Me, not my parents, that I sought to wed 220
The daughter of an infidel. They knew not
That what I motion'd was of God ; I knew
From intimate impulse, and therefore urg'd
The marriage on ; that by occasion hence
I might begin Israel's deliverance, 225
The work to which I was divinely call'd.
She proving false, the next I took to wife,
O that I never had ! fond wish too late !
Was in the vale of Sorec, Dalila,
That specious monster, my accomplish'd snare. 230
I thought it lawful from my former act,
And the same end, still watching to oppress
Israel's oppressors. Of what now I suffer
She was not the prime cause, but I myself,
Who, vanquish'd with a peal of words, O weakness !
Gave up my fort of silence to a woman. 236

CHOR. In seeking just occasion to provoke
The Philistine, thy country's enemy,
Thou never wast remiss, I bear thee witness :
Yet Israel still serves with all his sons. 240

SAMS. That fault I take not on me, but transfer
On Israel's governors, and heads of tribes,
Who, seeing those great acts which God had done
Singly by me against their conquerors,
Acknowledg'd not, or not at all consider'd 245
Deliverance offer'd. I on the other side

Us'd no ambition to commend my deeds, [doer ;
 The deeds themselves, tho' mute, spoke loud the
 But they persisted deaf, and would not seem
 To count them things worth notice, till at length
 Their lords the Philistines with gather'd powers
 Enter'd Judea seeking me, who then
 Safe to the rock of Etham was retir'd ;
 Not flying, but forecasting in what place
 To set upon them, what advantag'd best. 255
 Meanwhile the men of Judah, to prevent
 The harass of their land, beset me round ;
 I willingly on some conditions came
 Into their hands, and they as gladly yield me
 To the uncircumcis'd a welcome prey, 260
 Bound with two cords : but cords to me were threads
 Touch'd with the flame. On their whole host I flew Unarm'd, and with a trivial weapon fell'd
 Their choicest youth ; they only liv'd who fled.
 Had Judah that day join'd, or one whole tribe, 265
 They had by this possess'd the towers of Gath,
 And lorded over them whom now they serve :
 But what more oft in nations grown corrupt,
 And by their vices brought to servitude,
 Than to love bondage more than liberty, 270
 Bondage with ease than strenuous liberty ;
 And to despise, or envy, or suspect
 Whom God hath of his special favour rais'd

253 Etham] Judges xv. 8. Newton.

As their deliverer? If he aught begin,
 How frequent to desert him, and at last 275
 To heap ingratitude on worthiest deeds?

CHOR. Thy words to my remembrance bring
 How Succoth and the fort of Penuel
 Their great deliverer contemn'd,
 The matchless Gideon in pursuit 280
 Of Madian and her vanquish'd kings :
 And how ingrateful Ephraim
 Had dealt with Jephtha, who by argument,
 Not worse than by his shield and spear,
 Defended Israel from the Ammonite, 285
 Had not his prowess quell'd their pride
 In that sore battle, when so many died
 Without reprieve adjudg'd to death,
 For want of well pronouncing Shibboleth.

SAMS. Of such examples add me to the roll ; 290
 Me easily indeed mine may neglect,
 But God's propos'd deliverance not so.

CHOR. Just are the ways of God,
 And justifiable to men ;
 Unless there be who think not God at all : 295
 If any be, they walk obscure ;
 For of such doctrine never was there school,
 But the heart of the fool,
 And no man therein doctor but himself.

Yet more there be who doubt his ways not just,
 As to his own edicts found contradicting, 301
 Then give the reins to wand'ring thought,
 Regardless of his glory's diminution ;

Till, by their own perplexities involv'd,
 They ravel more, still less resolv'd, 305
 But never find self-satisfying solution.

As if they would confine th' Interminable,
 And tie him to his own prescript,
 Who made our laws to bind us, not himself,
 And hath full right to exempt 310
 Whom so it pleases him by choice
 From national obstruction, without taint
 Of sin, or legal debt ;
 For with his own laws he can best dispense.

He would not else, who never wanted means, 315
 Nor in respect of th' enemy just cause
 To set his people free,
 Have prompted this heroic Nazarite,
 Against his vow of strictest purity,
 To seek in marriage that fallacious bride, 320
 Unclean, unchaste.

Down reason then, at least vain reasonings
 Though reason here aver [down,
 That moral verdict quits her of unclean :
 Unchaste was subsequent, her stain not his. 325

But, see ! here comes thy reverend sire
 With careful step, locks white as down,
 Old Manoah ; advise
 Forthwith how thou ought'st to receive him.

SAMS. Aye me ! another inward grief awak'd 330
 With mention of that name renews th' assault.

MAN. Brethren and men of Dan, for such ye seem,

Though in this uncouth place ; if old respect,
 As I suppose, towards your once gloried friend,
 My son now captive, hither hath inform'd ³³⁵
 Your younger feet, while mine cast back with age
 Came lagging after ; say if he be here.

CHOR. As signal now in low dejected state,
 As erst in highest, behold him where he lies.

MAN. O miserable change ! is this the man, ³⁴⁰
 That invincible Samson, far renown'd,
 The dread of Israel's foes, who with a strength
 Equivalent to angels walk'd their streets,
 None offering fight ; who single combatant
 Duell'd their armies rank'd in proud array, ³⁴⁵
 Himself an army, now unequal match
 To save himself against a coward arm'd
 At one spear's length. O ever-failing trust
 In mortal strength ! and, oh ! what not in man
 Deceivable and vain ? nay, what thing good, ³⁵⁰
 Pray'd for, but often proves our woe, our bane ?
 I pray'd for children, and thought barrenness
 In wedlock a reproach ; I gain'd a son,
 And such a son as all men hail'd me happy :
 Who would be now a father in my stead ? ³⁵⁵

³⁴⁵ Duell'd] Barron's Cyprian Academy, p. 23, ed. 1648. and State Poems (by Denham), vol. i. p. 36. 'Duels the fowler.'

³⁵⁴ son] Terentii Andria, I. 1. 69.

' ——— tum uno ore omnes omnia
 Bona dicere, et laudare fortunas meas,
 Qui gnatum haberem tali ingenio præditum.'

Newton.

O wherefore did God grant me my request,
 And as a blessing with such pomp adorn'd ?
 Why are his gifts desirable, to tempt
 Our earnest pray'rs, then, giv'n with solemn hand
 As graces, draw a scorpion's tale behind? 360
 For this did th' angel twice descend ? for this
 Ordain'd thy nurture holy, as of a plant
 Select and sacred, glorious for a while,
 The miracle of men ; then in an hour
 Ensnar'd, assaulted, overcome, led bound, 365
 Thy foes' derision, captive, poor, and blind,
 Into a dungeon thrust to work with slaves ?
 Alas ! methinks whom God hath chosen once
 To worthiest deeds, if he through frailty err,
 He should not so o'erwhelm, and as a thrall 370
 Subject him to so foul indignities,
 Be it but for honour's sake of former deeds.

SAMS. Appoint not heavenly disposition, father ;
 Nothing of all these evils hath befall'n me
 But justly ; I myself have brought them on, 375
 Sole author I, sole cause ; if aught seem vile,
 As vile hath been my folly, who have profan'd
 The mystery of God giv'n me under pledge
 Of vow, and have betray'd it to a woman,
 A Canaanite, my faithless enemy. 380
 This well I knew, nor was at all surpriz'd,
 But warn'd by oft experience : did not she

373 Appoint] That is, arraign, summon to answer.

Warburton.

Of Timna first betray me, and reveal
 The secret wrested from me in her height
 Of nuptial love profest, carrying it straight 385
 To them who had corrupted her, my spies
 And rivals? In this other was there found
 More faith, who also in her prime of love,
 Spousal embraces, vitiated with gold,
 Though offer'd only, by the scent conceiv'd 390
 Her spurious first-born, treason against me?
 Thrice she assay'd with flattering prayers, and sighs,
 And amorous reproaches, to win from me
 My capital secret, in what part my strength
 Lay stor'd, in what part summ'd, that she might know;

Thrice I deluded her, and turn'd to sport 396
 Her importunity, each time perceiving
 How openly and with what impudence
 She purpos'd to betray me, and, which was worse
 Than undissembled hate, with what contempt 400
 She sought to make me traitor to myself;
 Yet the fourth time, when, mustering all her wiles,
 With blandish'd parlies, feminine assaults,
 Tongue-batteries, she surceas'd not day nor night
 To storm me over-watch'd and wearied out, 405
 At times when men seek most repose and rest,
 I yielded, and unlock'd her all my heart,
 Who with a grain of manhood well resolv'd

404. Tongue-batteries] Shakes. Hen. VI. P. 1. act 3. sc. 3.

'I am vanguish'd; these haughty words of hers
 Have batter'd me,' &c. Todd.

Might easily have shook off all her snares :
But foul effeminacy held me yok'd 410
Her bond-slave ; O indignity ! O blot
To honour and religion ! servile mind
Rewarded well with servile punishment !
The base degree to which I now am fall'n,
These rags, this grinding, is not yet so base 415
As was my former servitude, ignoble,
Unmanly, ignominious, infamous,
True slavery, and that blindness worse than this,
That saw not how degenerately I serv'd.

MAN. I cannot praise thy marriage choices, son,
Rather approv'd them not ; but thou didst plead
Divine impulsion prompting how thou might'st
Find soon occasion to infest our foes.

I state not that ; this I am sure, our foes
Found soon occasion thereby to make thee 425
Their captive and their triumph ; thou the sooner
Temptation found'st, or over-potent charms
To violate the sacred trust of silence
Deposited within thee ; which to have kept
Tacit, was in thy power. True ; and thou bear'st
Enough and more the burthen of that fault ;
Bitterly hast thou paid, and still are paying
That rigid score. A worse thing yet remains ;
This day the Philistines a popular feast
Here celebrate in Gaza ; and proclaim 435
Great pomp, and sacrifice, and praises loud
To Dagon, as their god, who hath deliver'd
Thee, Samson, bound and blind into their hands,

Them out of thine, who slew'st them many a slain. .
So Dagon shall be magnified, and God, 440
Besides whom is no God, compar'd with idols,
Disglorified, blasphem'd, and had in scorn
By the idolatrous rout amidst their wine ;
Which to have come to pass by means of thee,
Samson, of all thy sufferings think the heaviest, 445
Of all reproach the most with shame that ever
Could have befall'n thee and thy father's house.

SAMS. Father, I do acknowledge and confess
That I this honour, I this pomp, have brought
To Dagon, and advanc'd his praises high 450
Among the heathen round ; to God have brought Dishonour, obloquy, and op'd the mouths
Of idolists and atheists ; have brought scandal
To Israel, diffidence of God, and doubt
In feeble hearts, propense enough before 455
To waver, or fall off, and join with idols ;
Which is my chief affliction, shame, and sorrow,
The anguish of my soul, that suffers not
Mine eye to harbour sleep, or thoughts to rest.
This only hope relieves me, that the strife 460
With me hath end ; all the contést is now
Twixt God and Dagon ; Dagon hath presum'd,
Me overthrown, to enter lists with God,
His deity comparing and preferring
Before the God of Abraham. He, be sure, 465
Will not connive, or linger, thus provok'd,
But will arise, and his great name assert :
Dagon must stoop, and shall ere long receive

Such a discomfit, as shall quite despoil him
 Of all these boasted trophies won on me, 470
 And with confusion blank his worshippers.

MAN. With cause this hope relieves thee, and these words

I as a prophecy receive: for God,
 Nothing more certain, will not long defer
 To vindicate the glory of his name 475
 Against all competition, nor will long
 Endure it, doubtful whether God be lord,
 Or Dagon. But for thee what shall be done?
 Thou must not in the meanwhile here forgot,
 Lie in this miserable loathsome plight 480
 Neglected. I already have made way
 To some Philistian lords, with whom to treat
 About thy ransom: well they may by this
 Have satisfied their utmost of revenge 484
 By pains and slaveries, worse than death, inflicted
 On thee, who now no more canst do them harm.

SAMS. Spare that proposal, father, spare the
 Of that solicitation: let me here, [trouble
 As I deserve, pay on my punishment,
 And expiate, if possible, my crime, 490
 Shameful garrulity. To have reveal'd
 Secrets of men, the secrets of a friend,
 How heinous had the fact been, how deserving Contempt and scorn of all, to be excluded
 All friendship, and avoided as a blab, 495

471 blank] Hamlet, act iii. sc. 2.

'Each opposite that blanks the face of joy.' Todd.

The mark of fool set on his front?

But I God's counsel have not kept, his holy secret
Presumptuously have publish'd, impiously,
Weakly at least, and shamefully; a sin
That Gentiles in their parables condemn 500
To their abyss and horrid pains confin'd.

MAN. Be penitent and for thy fault contrite,
But act not in thy own affliction, son;
Repent the sin, but if the punishment
Thou canst avoid, self-preservation bids; 505
Or th' execution leave to high disposal,
And let another hand, not thine, exact
Thy penal forfeit from thyself; perhaps
God will relent, and quit thee all his debt,
Who evermore approves and more accepts, 510
Best pleas'd with humble and filial submission,
Him who imploring mercy sues for life,
Than who self-rigorous chooses death as due,
Which argues over-just, and self-displeas'd
For self-offence, more than for God offended. 515
Reject not then what offer'd means: who knows
But God hath set before us, to return thee
Home to thy country and his sacred house,
Where thou may'st bring thy off'rings, to avert
His further ire, with prayers and vows renew'd?

SAMS. His pardon I implore; but as for life,
To what end should I seek it? when in strength
All mortals I excell'd, and great in hopes
With youthful courage and magnanimous thoughts
Of birth from heav'n foretold, and high exploits,

Full of divine instinct, after some proof
 Of acts indeed heroic, far beyond
 The sons of Anack, famous now and blaz'd,
 Fearless of danger, like a petty God
 I walk'd about, admir'd of all and dreaded, 530
 On hostile ground, none daring my affront.
 Then swoll'n with pride into the snare I fell
 Of fair fallacious looks, venereal trains,
 Soften'd with pleasure and voluptuous life ;
 At length to lay my head and hallow'd pledge 535
 Of all my strength in the lascivious lap
 Of a deceitful concubine, who shore me,
 Like a tame wether, all my precious fleece,
 Then turn'd me out ridiculous, despoil'd,
 Shav'n, and disarm'd, among mine enemies. 540

CHOR. Desire of wine and all delicious drinks,
 Which many a famous warrior overturns,
 Thou could'st repress, nor did the dancing ruby
 Sparkling, out-pour'd, the flavour, or the smell,
 Or taste that cheers the heart of gods and men,
 Allure thee from the cool crystalline stream.

SAMS. Wherever fountain or fresh current flow'd
 Against the eastern ray, translucent, pure,
 With touch ethereal of heaven's fiery rod, 549

I drank, from the clear milky juice allaying 550
 Thirst, and refresh'd; nor envied them the grape,
 Whose heads that turbulent liquor fills with fumes.

CHOR. O madness, to think use of strongest wines

And strongest drinks our chief support of health,
 When God with these forbidden made choice to rear
 His mighty champion, strong above compare, 555
 Whose drink was only from the liquid brook.

SAMS. But what avail'd this temperance, not complete

Against another object more enticing?
 What boots it at one gate to make defence, 560
 And at another to let in the foe,
 Effeminately vanquish'd? by which means,
 Now blind, dishearten'd, sham'd, dishonour'd,
 quell'd,

To what can I be useful, wherein serve
 My nation, and the work from heav'n impos'd, 565
 But to sit idle on the household hearth,
 A burd'nous drone; to visitants a gaze,
 Or pitied object, these redundant locks
 Robustious to no purpose clust'ring down,
 Vain monument of strength, till length of years 570
 And sedentary numbness craze my limbs
 To a contemptible old age obscure?
 Here rather let me drudge and earn my bread,
 Till vermin or the draff of servile food

Consume me, and oft invocated death 575

Hasten the welcome end of all my pains. ¶ that gift

MAN. Wilt thou then serve the Philistines with Which was expressly giv'n thee to annoy them?

Better at home lie bedrid, not only idle,
Inglorious, unemploy'd, with age outworn. 580

But God, who caus'd a fountain at thy prayer
From the dry ground to spring, thy thirst to allay
After the brunt of battle, can as easy

Cause light again within thy eyes to spring,
Wherewith to serve him better than thou hast; 585

And I persuade me so; why else this strength
Miraculous yet remaining in those locks?

His might continues in thee not for nought,
Nor shall his wondrous gifts be frustrate thus.

SAMS. All otherwise to me my thoughts portend,
That these dark orbs no more shall treat with light,

Nor th' other light of life continue long,
But yield to double darkness nigh at hand:

So much I feel my genial spirits droop;
My hopes all flat, nature within me seems 595

In all her functions weary of herself,
My race of glory run, and race of shame,

And I shall shortly be with them that rest.

MAN. Believe not these suggestions, which proceed

From anguish of the mind and humours black, 600

⁵⁹⁷ race] May's Cleopatra, p. 48.

'My race of life, and glory is not run.'

That mingle with thy fancy. I however
 Must not omit a father's timely care
 To prosecute the means of thy deliverance
 By ransom or how else : meanwhile be calm, 604
 And healing words from these thy friends admit.

SAMS. O that torment should not be confin'd
 To the body's wounds and sores,
 With maladies innumerable
 In heart, head, breast, and reins ;
 But must secret passage find 610
 To th' inmost mind,
 There exercise all his fierce accidents,
 And on her purest spirits prey,
 As on entrails, joints, and limbs,
 With answerable pains, but more intense, 615
 Though void of corporal sense.

My griefs not only pain me
 As a ling'ring disease,
 But, finding no redress, ferment and rage,
 Nor less than wounds immedicable 620
 Rankle, and fester, and gangrene,
 To black mortification. [stings,
 Thoughts my tormentors, arm'd with deadly
 Mangle my apprehensive tenderest parts,
 Exasperate, exulcerate, and raise 625
 Dire inflammation, which no cooling herb,
 Or medicinal liquor can assuage,

⁶²⁷ Medicinal] Milton always spells this word 'Medcinal.'

Nor breath of vernal air from snowy Alp.
Sleep hath forsook and given me o'er
To death's benumbing opium as my only cure : 630
Thence faintings, swoonings of despair,
And sense of heav'n's desertion.

I was his nursling once, and choice delight,
His destin'd from the womb,
Promis'd by heavenly message twice descending :
Under his special eye 636
Abstemious I grew up, and thriv'd amain ;
He led me on to mightiest deeds,
Above the nerve of mortal arm,
Against the uncircumcised, our enemies : 640
But now hath cast me off as never known,
And to those cruel enemies,
Whom I by his appointment had provok'd,
Left me all helpless with th' irreparable loss
Of sight, reserv'd alive to be repeated 645
The subject of their cruelty and scorn.
Nor am I in the list of them that hope ;
Hopeless are all my evils, all remediless ;
This one prayer yet remains, might I be heard,
No long petition, speedy death, 650
The close of all my miseries, and the balm.

CHOR. Many are the sayings of the wise,
In ancient and in modern books enroll'd,
Extolling patience as the truest fortitude ;
And to the bearing well of all calamities, 655
All chances incident to man's frail life,
Consolatories writ

With studied argument, and much persuasion
 Lenient of grief and anxious thought: [sought,
 But with th' afflicted in his pangs their sound 660
 Little prevails, or rather seems a tune
 Harsh and of dissonant mood from his complaint;
 Unless he feel within
 Some source of consolation from above,
 Secret refreshings, that repair his strength, 665
 And fainting spirits uphold.

God of our fathers, what is man!
 That thou towards him with hand so various,
 Or might I say contrarious, 669
 Temper'st thy providence through his short course,
 Not ev'nly, as thou rul'st
 Th' angelic orders and inferior creatures mute,
 Irrational and brute.
 Nor do I name of men the common rout,
 That wand'ring loose about 675
 Grow up and perish, as the summer fly,
 Heads without name no more remember'd,
 But such as thou hast solemnly elected,
 With gifts and graces eminently adorn'd
 To some great work, thy glory, 680
 And people's safety, which in part they effect:
 Yet toward these thus dignified, thou oft

Amidst their height of noon,
 Changest thy countenance, and thy hand with no regard

Of highest favours past 685
 From thee on them, or them to thee of service.

Nor only dost degrade them, or remit
 To life obscur'd, which were a fair dismission,
 But throw'st them lower than thou didst exalt them high,

Unseemly falls in human eye, 690

Too grievous for the trespass or omission ;
 Oft leav'st them to the hostile sword
 Of heathen and profane, their carcasses
 To dogs and fowls a prey, or else captiv'd ; 694
 Or to the unjust tribunals, under change of times,
 And condemnation of the ingrateful multitude.

If these they scape, perhaps in poverty
 With sickness and disease thou bow'st them down,
 Painful diseases and deform'd,

In crude old age : 700

Though not disordinate, yet causeless suff'ring
 The punishment of dissolute days : in fine,
 Just or unjust, alike seem miserable,
 For oft alike both come to ~~evil~~ end.

⁷⁰⁰ crude] Premature, coming before its time, as 'Cruda funera,' in Statius. Jortin.

Behold him in this state calamitous, and turn
His labours, for thou canst, to peaceful end.

But who is this? what thing of sea or land? ⁷¹⁰
Female of sex it seems,
That so bedeck'd, ornate, and gay,
Comes this way sailing
Like a stately ship
Of Tarsus, bound for th' isles 715
Of Javan or Gadire,
With all her bravery on, and tackle trim,
Sails fill'd, and streamers waving,

⁷¹⁰ who is this]

'Sed hic quis est, quem huc advenientem conspicio,
Suam qui undantem chlamydem quassando facit?'

⁷¹⁴ a stately ship] This passage may be well illustrated by a quotation from a Sermon called Wilkinson's 'Merchant Royall,' preached at the nuptials of the Lord Hay, in 1607 4to. The text is from Proverbs, xxxi. 14. She is like a Merchants shippe, she bringeth her foode from afarre! "But of all qualities, a woman must not have one quality of a ship, and that is, too much rigging. Oh! what a wonder it is to see a ship under saile, with her tacklings and her masts, and her tops, and her top-gallants, with her upper deckes, and her nether deckes, and so bedeckt with her streamers, flags, and ensignes, and I know not what; yea, but a world of wonders it is to see a woman created in God's image, so miscreate oft times and deformed with her French, her Spanish, and her foolish fashions, that he that made her, when hee lookes upon her, shall hardlie know her, with her plumes, her fannes, and a silken vizard, with a ruffe like a saile, yea, a ruffe like a rainebow, with a feather in her cap, like a flag in her top, to tell, I think, which way the winde will blowe." p. 15.

Courted by all the winds that hold them play,
 An amber scent of odorous perfume 720
 Her harbinger, a damsel train behind ;
 Some rich Philistian matron she may seem,
 And now, at nearer view, no other certain
 Than Dalila thy wife.

SAMS. My wife ! my traitress : let her not come near me. [thee fix'd,

CHOR. Yet on she moves, now stands and eyes
 About t' have spoke, but now, with head declin'd,
 Like a fair flower surcharg'd with dew, she weeps,
 And words address'd seem into tears dissolv'd,
 Wetting the borders of her silken veil : 730
 But now again she makes address to speak.

DAL. With doubtful feet and wavering resolution
 I came, still dreading thy displeasure, Samson,
 Which to have merited, without excuse,
 I cannot but acknowledge ; yet if tears 735
 May expiate, though the fact more evil drew
 In the perverse event than I foresaw,
 My penance hath not slacken'd, though my pardon
 No way assur'd : but conjugal affection,
 Prevailing over fear and timorous doubt, 740
 Hath led me on, desirous to behold
 Once more thy face, and know of thy estate,
 If aught in my ability may serve

To lighten what thou suffer'st, and appease
Thy mind with what amends is in my power, 745
Though late, yet in some part to recompense
My rash, but more unfortunate, misdeed.

SAMS. Out, out, hyæna ! these are thy wonted
And arts of every woman false like thee, [arts,
To break all faith, all vows, deceive, betray, 750
Then, as repentant, to submit, beseech,
And reconciliation move with feign'd remorse,
Confess, and promise wonders in her change ;
Not truly penitent, but chief to try
Her husband, how far urg'd his patience bears, 755
His virtue or weakness which way to assail ;
Then with more cautious and instructed skill
Again transgresses, and again submits ;
That wisest and best men full oft beguil'd,
With goodness principled not to reject 760
The penitent, but ever to forgive,
Are drawn to wear out miserable days,
Entangled with a pois'nous bosom snake,
If not by quick destruction soon cut off,
As I by thee, to ages an example. 765

DAL. Yet hear me, Samson ; not that I endea-
To lesson or extenuate my offence, [vour
But that, on th' other side if it be weigh'd
By itself, with aggravations not surcharg'd,
Or else with just allowance counterpois'd, 770
I may, if possible, thy pardon find
The easier towards me, or thy hatred less.
First granting, as I do, it was a weakness

In me, but incident to all our sex,
 Curiosity, inquisitive, importune 775
 Of secrets, then with like infirmity
 To publish them, both common female faults :
 Was it not weakness also to make known
 For importunity, that is, for nought,
 Wherein consisted all thy strength and safety? 780
 To what I did thou show'dst me first the way.
 But I to enemies reveal'd, and should not ;
 Nor should'st thou have trusted that to woman's
 Ere I to thee, thou to thyself wast cruel. [frailty.
 Let weakness then with weakness come to parle,
 So near related, or the same of kind,
 Thine forgive mine ; that men may censure thine
 The gentler, if severely thou exact not
 More strength from me than in thyself was found.
 And what if love, which thou interpret'st hate, 790
 The jealousy of love, powerful of sway
 In human hearts, nor less in mine towards thee,
 Caus'd what I did? I saw thee mutable
 Of fancy, fear'd lest one day thou would'st leave me
 As her at Timna, sought by all means therefore 795
 How to endear, and hold thee to me firmest :
 No better way I saw than by impórtuning
 To learn thy secrets, get into my power
 The key of strength and safety. Thou wilt say,
 Why then reveal'd? I was assur'd by those 800
 Who tempted me, that nothing was design'd

Against thee but safe custody and hold :
That made for me ; I knew that liberty
Would draw thee forth to perilous enterprises,
While I at home sat full of cares and fears, 805
Wailing thy absence in my widow'd bed :
Here I should still enjoy thee day and night,
Mine and love's prisoner, not the Philistines,
Whole to myself, unhazarded abroad,
Fearless at home of partners in my love. 810
These reasons in love's law have past for good,
Though fond and reasonless to some perhaps ;
And love hath oft, well meaning, wrought much
Yet always pity or pardon hath obtain'd. [woe,
Be not unlike all others, not austere 815
As thou art strong, inflexible as steel.
If thou in strength all mortals dost exceed,
In uncompassionate anger do not so.

SAMS. How cunningly the sorceress displays
Her own transgressions, to upbraid me mine ! 820
That malice not repentance brought thee hither,
By this appears : I gave, thou say'st, th' example,
I led the way ; bitter reproach, but true ;
I to myself was false ere thou to me ;
Such pardon therefore as I give my folly, 825
Take to thy wicked deed ; which when thou seest
Impartial, self-severe, inexorable,
Thou wilt renounce thy seeking, and much rather
Confess it feign'd ; weakness is thy excuse,
And I believe it ; weakness to resist 830
Philistian gold ; if weakness may excuse,

What murderer, what traitor, parricide,
 Incestuous, sacrilegious, but may plead it?
 All wickedness is weakness: that plea therefore
 With God or man will gain thee no remission. 835
 But love constrain'd thee; call it furious rage
 To satisfy thy lust. Love seeks to have love:
 My love how could'st thou hope, who took'st the
 To raise in me inexpiable hate, [way
 Knowing, as needs I must, by thee betray'd? 840
 In vain thou striv'st to cover shame with shame,
 Or by evasions thy crime uncover'st more. [plea

DAL. Since thou determin'st weakness for no
 In man or woman, though to thy own condemning,
 Hear what assaults I had, what snares besides, 845
 What sieges girt me round, ere I consented,
 Which might have 'aw'd the best resolv'd of men,
 The constantest, to have yielded without blame.
 It was not gold, as to my charge thou lay'st,
 That wrought with me. Thou know'st the magis-
 And princes of my country came in person, [trates
 Solicited, commanded, threaten'd, urg'd,
 Adjur'd by all the bonds of civil duty
 And of religion, press'd how just it was,
 How honourable, how glorious, to entrap 855
 A common enemy, who had destroy'd
 Such numbers of our nation: and the priest
 Was not behind, but ever at my ear,
 Preaching how meritorious with the gods
 It would be to ensnare an irreligious 860
 Dishonourer of Dagon. What had I

T' oppose against such powerful arguments?
Only my love of thee held long debate,
And combated in silence all these reasons 864
With hard contest: at length that grounded
So rife and celebrated in the mouths [maxim,
Of wisest men, that to the public good
Private respects must yield with grave authority,
Took full possession of me and prevail'd;
Virtue, as I thought, truth, duty, so enjoining. 870
SAMS. I thought where all thy circling wiles would end;
In feign'd religion, smooth hypocrisy.
But had thy love, still odiously pretended,
Been, as it ought, sincere, it would have taught thee
Far other reasonings, brought forth other deeds.
I before all the daughters of my tribe 876
And of my nation chose thee from among
My enemies, lov'd thee, as too well thou knew'st,
Too well unbosom'd all my secrets to thee,
Not out of levity, but over-power'd 880
By thy request, who could deny thee nothing;
Yet now am judg'd an enemy. Why then
Didst thou at first receive me for thy husband,
Then, as since then, thy country's foe profess'd?
Being once a wife, for me thou wast to leave 885
Parents and country; nor was I their subject,
Nor under their protection but my own,
Thou mine, not theirs. If aught against my life
Thy country sought of thee, it sought unjustly,
Against the law of nature, law of nations; 890

No more thy country, but an impious crew 891
Of men, conspiring to uphold their state
By worse than hostile deeds, violating the ends
For which our country is a name so dear ;
Not therefore to be obey'd. But zeal mov'd thee ;
To please thy gods thou didst it ; gods unable
To acquit themselves and prosecute their foes
But by ungodly deeds, the contradiction
Of their own deity, gods cannot be ;
Less therefore to be pleas'd, obey'd, or fear'd. 900
These false pretexts and varnish'd colours failing,
Bare in thy guilt how foul must thou appear ?

DAL. In argument with men a woman ever
Goes by the worse, whatever be her cause.

SAMS. For want of words, no doubt, or lack of breath ; 905

Witness when I was worried with thy peals.

DAL. I was a fool, too rash, and quite mistaken
In what I thought would have succeeded best.
Let me obtain forgiveness of thee, Samson ;
Afford me place to show what recompense 910
Towards thee I intend for what I have misdone,
Misguided ; only what remains past cure
Bear not too sensibly, nor still insist
To afflict thyself in vain. Though sight be lost,
Life yet hath many solaces, enjoy'd 915
Where other senses want not their delights
At home in leisure and domestic ease,
Exempt from many a care and chance to which Eye-sight exposes daily men abroad.

I to the lords will intercede, not doubting 920
 Their favourable ear, that I may fetch thee
 From forth this loathsome prison-house, to abide
 With me, where my redoubled love and care
 With nursing diligence, to me glad office,
 May ever tend about thee to old age, 925
 With all things grateful cheer'd, and so supplied,
 That what by me thou hast lost thou least shalt miss.

SAMS. No, no, of my condition take no care ;
 It fits not ; thou and I long since are twain ;
 Nor think me so unwary or accurst, 930
 To bring my feet again into the snare
 Where once I have been caught : I know thy trains

Though dearly to my cost, thy gins, and toils ;
 Thy fair enchanted cup and warbling charms
 No more on me have power ; their force is null'd,
 So much of adder's wisdom I have learnt
 To fence my ear against thy sorceries.
 If in my flower of youth and strength, when all men
 Lov'd, honour'd, fear'd me, thou alone could'st hate me 939

Thy husband, slight me, sell me, and forego me ;
 How would'st thou use me now, blind, and thereby
 Deceivable, in most things as a child
 Helpless, thence easily condemn'd, and scorn'd,

And last neglected? how would'st thou insult,
 When I must live uxorious to thy will 945
 In perfect thralldom, how again betray me,
 Bearing my words and doings to the lords
 To gloss upon, and censuring, frown or smile?
 This gaol I count the house of liberty
 To thine, whose doors my feet shall never enter.

DAL. Let me approach at least and touch thy hand.

SAMS. Not for thy life, lest fierce remembrance wake

My sudden rage to tear thee joint by joint.
 At distance I forgive thee; go with that,
 Bewail thy falsehood, and the pious works 955
 It hath brought forth to make thee memorable
 Among illustrious women, faithful wives!
 Cherish thy hasten'd widowhood with the gold
 Of matrimonial treason! so farewell.

DAL. I see thou art implacable, more deaf 960
 To prayers than winds and seas; yet winds to seas
 Are reconcil'd at length, and sea to shore:
 Thy anger unappeasable still rages,
 Eternal tempest never to be calm'd.
 Why do I humble thus myself, and, suing 965
 For peace, reap nothing but repulse and hate?
 Bid go with evil omen and the brand
 Of infamy upon my name denounc'd?
 To mix with thy concernments I desist
 Henceforth, nor too much disapprove my own. 970
 Fame if not double-fac'd, is double-mouth'd,

And with contráry blast proclaims most deeds ;
 On both his wings, one black, the other white,
 Bears greatest names in his wild aery flight.
 My name perhaps among the circumcis'd, 975
 In Dan, in Judah, and the bordering tribes,
 To all posterity may stand defam'd,
 With malediction mention'd, and the blot
 Of falsehood most unconjugal traduc'd.
 But in my country where I most desire, 980
 In Ecron, Gaza, Asdod, and in Gath,
 I shall be nam'd among the famousest
 Of women, sung at solemn festivals,
 Living and dead recorded, who to save
 Her country from a fierce destroyer, chose 985
 Above the faith of wedlock-bands ; my tomb
 With odours visited and annual flowers ;
 Not less renown'd than in Mount Ephraim
 Jael, who with inhospitable guile
 Smote Sisera sleeping through the temples nail'd.
 Nor shall I count it heinous to enjoy
 The public marks of honour and reward
 Conferr'd upon me, for the piety
 Which to my country I was judg'd to have shown.
 At this who ever envies or repines, 995
 I leave him to his lot, and like my own. [sting
 CHOR. She's gone, a manifest serpent by her
 Discover'd in the end, till now conceal'd. [me,

'By virtue of a clean contráry gale.' Todd.

And aggravate my folly, who committed 1000
 To such a viper his most sacred trust
 Of secrecy, my safety, and my life.

CHOR. Yet beauty, tho' injurious, hath strange power,

After offence returning, to regain
 Love once possess'd, nor can be easily 1005
 Repuls'd, without much inward passion felt
 And secret sting of amorous remorse. [end ;

SAMS. Love-quarrels oft in pleasing concord
 Not wedlock-treachery endang'ring life.

CHOR. It is not virtue, wisdom, valour, wit,
 Strength, comeliness of shape, or amplest merit,
 That woman's love can win or long inherit ;
 But what it is, hard is to say,
 Harder to hit,
 Which way soever men refer it, 1015
 Much like thy riddle, Samson, in one day
 Or seven, though one should musing sit.

If any of these or all, the Timnian bride
 Had not so soon preferr'd
 Thy paranymp, worthless to thee compar'd, 1020
 Successor in thy bed,
 Nor both so loosely disallied
 Their nuptials, nor this last so treacherously
 Had shorn the fatal harvest of thy head.
 Is it for that such outward ornament 1025
 Was lavish'd on their sex, that inward gifts

1008 Love] Terence, And. iii. 3. 23.

Were left for haste unfinish'd, judgment scant,
Capacity not rais'd to apprehend
Or value what is best
In choice, but ofttest to affect the wrong? 1030
Or was too much of self-love mix'd,
Of constancy no root infix'd,
That either they love nothing, or not long?

Whate'er it be to wisest men and best
Seeming at first all heavenly under virgin veil, 1035
Soft, modest, meek, demure,
Once join'd, the contrary she proves, a thorn
Intestine, far within defensive arms
A cleaving mischief, in his way to virtue
Adverse and turbulent, or by her charms 1040
Draws him awry enslav'd
With dotage, and his sense deprav'd
To folly and shameful deeds which ruin ends.
What pilot so expert but needs must wreck,
Imbark'd with such a steers-mate at the helm?

Favour'd of heav'n who finds
One virtuous, rarely found,
That in domestic good combines :
Happy that house ! his way to peace is smooth ;
But virtue, which breaks through all opposition,
And all temptation can remove,
Most shines and most is acceptable above.

Therefore God's universal law
Gave to the man despotic power
Over his female in due awe, 1055
Nor from that right to part an hour,

Smile she or lour :

So shall he least confusion draw

On his whole life, not sway'd

By female usurpation, or dismay'd. 1060

CHOR. Look now for no inchanting voice, nor
The bait of honied words ; a rougher tongue 1066

Draws hitherward, I know him by his stride,

The giant Harapha of Gath, his look

Haughty as is his pile high-built and proud.

Comes he in peace? what wind hath blown him
I less conjecture than when first I saw [hither

The sumptuous Dalila floating this way : 1072

Though for no friendly intent. I am of Gath,
 Men call me Harapha, of stock renown'd
 As Og, or Anak, and the Emims old 1080
 That Kiriathaim held ; thou know'st me now
 If thou at all art known. Much I have heard
 Of thy prodigious might and feats perform'd,
 Incredible to me, in this displeas'd,
 That I was never present on the place 1085
 Of those encounters, where we might have tried
 Each other's force in camp or listed field :
 And now am come to see of whom such noise
 Hath walk'd about, and each limb to survey,
 If thy appearance answer loud report. 1090

SAMS. The way to know were not to see but taste.

HAR. Dost thou already single me ? I thought Gyves and the mill had tam'd thee. O that fortune

Had brought me to the field where thou art fam'd
 To have wrought such wonders with an ass's jaw !
 I should have forc'd thee soon with other arms,
 Or left thy carcass where the ass lay thrown ;
 So had the glory of prowess been recover'd
 To Palestine, won by a Philistine 1099
 From the unforeस्कinn'd race, of whom thou bear'st
 The highest name for valiant acts : that honour
 Certain to have won by mortal duel from thee,
 I lose, prevented by thy eyes put out.

SAMS. Boast not of what thou would'st have done, but do

What then thou would'st; thou see'st it in thy hand. 1105

HAR. To combat with a blind man I disdain,
And thou hast need much washing to be touch'd.

SAMS. Such usage as your honourable lords
Afford me assassinated and betray'd,
Who durst not with their whole united powers 1110
In fight withstand me single and unarm'd,
Nor in the house with chamber ambushes
Close-banded durst attack me, no not sleeping,
Till they had hir'd a woman with their gold,
Breaking her marriage faith to circumvent me. 1115
Therefore without feign'd shifts let be assign'd
Some narrow place inclos'd, where sight may give thee,

Or rather flight, no great advantage on me;
Then put on all thy gorgeous arms, thy helmet
And brigandine of brass, thy broad habergeon, 1120
Vant-brass and greves, and gauntlet, add thy spear,

A weaver's beam, and seven-times-folded shield,
I only with an oaken staff will meet thee,
And raise such outcries on thy clatter'd iron,
Which long shall not withhold me from thy head,
That in a little time, while breath remains thee,
Thou oft shalt wish thyself at Gath to boast 1127
Again in safety what thou wouldst have done

1121 vant-brass] Fairfax's Tasso, B. xx. st. 139.

'His shield was pierc'd, his vant-brace cleft and split.'

Newton.

To Samson, but shall never see Gath more.

HAR. Thou durst not thus disparage glorious arms, 1130

Which greatest heroes have in battle worn,
Their ornament and safety, had not spells
And black enchantment, some magician's art,
Arm'd thee, or charm'd thee strong, which thou from heaven

Feign'dst at thy birth was giv'n thee in thy hair,
Where strength can least abide, tho' all thy hairs
Were bristles rang'd like those that ridge the back
Of chaf'd wild boars or ruffled porcupines.

SAMS. I know no spells, use no forbidden arts ;
My trust is in the living God, who gave me 1140
At my nativity this strength, diffus'd
No less through all my sinews, joints, and bones,
Than thine, while I preserv'd these locks unshorn,
The pledge of my unviolated vow.

For proof hereof, if Dagon be thy god, 1145
Go to his temple, invoke his aid

With solemnest devotion, spread before him
How highly it concerns his glory now
To frustrate and dissolve these magic spells,
Which I to be the power of Israel's God 1150
Avow, and challenge Dagon to the test,
Off'ring to combat thee his champion bold,
With th' utmost of his godhead seconded :

Then thou shalt see, or rather to thy sorrow 1154
Soon feel, whose God is strongest, thine or mine.

HAR. Presume not on thy God, whate'er he be,

Thee he regards not, owns not, hath cut off
 Quite from his people, and deliver'd up
 Into thy enemies' hand, permitted them
 To put out both thine eyes, and fetter'd send thee
 Into the common prison, there to grind
 Among the slaves and asses, thy comrâdes,
 As good for nothing else ; no better service
 With those thy boist'rous locks, no worthy match
 For valour to assail, nor by the sword 1165
 Of noble warrior, so to stain his honour,
 But by the barber's razor best subdued.

SAMS. All these indignities, for such they are
 From thine, these evils I deserve and more,
 Acknowledge them from God inflicted on me 1170
 Justly, yet despair not of his final pardon
 Whose ear is ever open, and his eye
 Gracious to readmit the suppliant ;
 In confidence whereof I once again
 Defy thee to the trial of mortal fight, 1175
 By combat to decide whose God is God,
 Thine, or whom I with Israel's sons adore.

HAR. Fair honour that thou dost thy God, in trusting
 He will accept thee to defend his cause,
 A murderer, a revolter, and a robber ! 1180

SAMS. Tongue-doughty giant, how dost thou prove me these ?

HAR. Is not thy nation subject to our lords ?

102 comrâdes] Hen. IV. part 1. act iv. sc. 2.

'And his comrâdes that daft the world aside.' Newton.

Their magistrates confess'd it, when they took thee
As a league-breaker, and deliver'd bound
Into our hands ; for hadst thou not committed 1185
Notorious murder on those thirty men
At Ascalon, who never did thee harm,
Then like a robber stripp'dst them of their robes ?
The Philistines, when thou hadst broke the league,
Went up with armed powers thee only seeking,
To others did no violence nor spoil. 1191

SAMS. Among the daughters of the Philistines
I chose a wife, which argued me no foe ;
And in your city held my nuptial feast :
But your ill meaning politician lords, 1195
Under pretence of bridal friends and guests,
Appointed to await me thirty spies,
Who threat'ning cruel death constrain'd the bride
To wring from me and tell to them my secret,
That solv'd the riddle which I had propos'd. 1200
When I perceiv'd all set on enmity,
As on my enemies, wherever chanc'd,
I us'd hostility, and took their spoil
To pay my underminers in their coin.
My nation was subjected to your lords. 1205
It was the force of conquest ; force with force
Is well ejected when the conquer'd can.
But I a private person, whom my country
As a league-breaker gave up bound, presum'd
Single rebellion, and did hostile acts. 1210
I was no private, but a person rais'd
With strength sufficient and command from heaven

To free my country ; if their servile minds
Me, their deliverer sent, would not receive,
But to their masters gave me up for nought, 1215
Th' unworthier they ; whence to this day they serve.
I was to do my part from heav'n assign'd,
And had perform'd it, if my known offence
Had not disabled me, not all your force :
These shifts refuted, answer thy appellant, 1220
Though by his blindness maim'd for high attempts,
Who now defies thee thrice to single fight,
As a petty enterprize of small enforce. [inroll'd,

HAR. With thee ! a man condemn'd, a slave
Due by the law to capital punishment ? 1225
To fight with thee no man of arms will deign.

SAMS. Cam'st thou for this, vain boaster, to survey me,
To descant on my strength, and give thy verdict ?
Come nearer, part not hence so slight inform'd ;
But take good heed my hand survey not thee. 1230

HAR. O Baal-zebub ! can my ears unus'd
Hear these dishonours, and not render death ?

SAMS. No man withholds thee, nothing from thy hand
Fear I incurable ; bring up thy van,
My heels are fetter'd, but my fist is free. 1235

HAR. This insolence other kind of answer fits.

SAMS. Go, baffled coward ! lest I run upon thee,
Though in these chains, bulk without spirit vast,
And with one buffet lay thy structure low,
Or swing thee in the air, then dash thee down

To th' hazard of thy brains and shatter'd sides.

HAR. By Astaroth ere long thou shalt lament
These braveries in irons loaden on thee. [fallen,

CHOR. His giantship is gone somewhat crest-
Stalking with less unconscionable strides, 1245
And lower looks, but in a sultry chafe.

SAMS. I dread him not, nor all his giant brood,
Though fame divulge him father of five sons,
All of gigantic size, Goliath chief.

CHOR. He will directly to the lords, I fear, 1250
And with malicious counsel stir them up
Some way or other yet further to afflict thee.

SAMS. He must allege some cause, and offer'd
Will not dare mention, lest a question rise [fight
Whether he durst accept the offer or not; 1255
And that he durst not plain enough appear'd.
Much more affliction than already felt
They cannot well impose, nor I sustain;
If they intend advantage of my labours,
The work of many hands, which earns my keeping
With no small profit daily to my owners. 1261
But come what will, my deadliest foe will prove
My speediest friend, by death to rid me hence;
The worst that he can give, to me the best.
Yet so it may fall out, because their end 1265
Is hate, not help to me, it may with mine
Draw their own ruin who attempt the deed.

CHOR. Oh, how comely it is, and how reviving
To the spirits of just men long oppress'd!
When God into the hands of their deliverer 1270

Puts invincible might
 To quell the mighty of the earth, th' oppressor,
 The brute and boist'rous force of violent men
 Hardy and industrious to support
 Tyrannic power, but raging to pursue 1275
 The righteous, and all such as honour truth;
 He all their ammunition
 And feats of war defeats,
 With plain heroic magnitude of mind
 And celestial vigour arm'd, 1280
 Their armories and magazines contemns,
 Renders them useless, while
 With winged expedition,
 Swift as the light'ning glance, he executes
 His errand on the wicked, who surpris'd 1285
 Lose their defence distracted and amaz'd.

But patience is more oft the exercise
 Of saints, the trial of their fortitude,
 Making them each his own deliverer,
 And victor over all 1290
 That tyranny of fortune can inflict:
 Either of these is in thy lot,
 Samson, with might endued
 Above the sons of men; but sight bereav'd
 May chance to number thee with those 1295
 Whom patience finally must crown.

This idol's day hath been to thee no day of rest,
 Labouring thy mind

1284 Swift] Shakesp. Rich. II. act. i. sc. 3.

'Be swift like lightning in the execution.' Todd.

More than the working day thy hands.
 And yet perhaps more trouble is behind, 1300
 For I descry this way
 Some other tending, in his hand
 A sceptre or quaint staff he bears,
 Comes on amain, speed in his look.
 By his habit I discern him now 1305
 A public officer, and now at hand.
 His message will be short and voluble.

OFF. Hebrews, the pris'ner Samson here I seek.

CHOR. His manacles remark him, there he sits.

OFF. Samson, to thee our lords thus bid me say ;
 This day to Dagon is a solemn feast, 1311
 With sacrifices, triumph, pomp, and games ;
 Thy strength they know surpassing human rate,
 And now some public proof thereof require
 To honour this great feast and great assembly ;
 Rise therefore with all speed and come along, 1316
 Where I will see thee hearten'd and fresh clad
 T' appear as fits before th' illustrious lords.

SAMS. Thou know'st I am an Hebrew, therefore
 Our law forbids at their religious rites [tell them,
 My presence ; for that cause I cannot come. 1321

OFF. This answer, be assur'd, will not content them. [sort

SAMS. Have they not sword-players, and ev'ry
 Of gymnic artists, wrestlers, riders, runners, 1324
 Jugglers, and dancers, antics, mummers, mimics,
 But they must pick me out, with shackles tir'd,
 And over-labour'd at their public mill,

To make them sport with blind activity?
 Do they not seek occasion of new quarrels
 On my refusal to distress me more, 1330
 Or make a game of my calamities?
 Return the way thou cam'st, I will not come.

OFF. Regard thyself, this will offend them highly. [peace.

SAMS. Myself? my conscience and internal
 Can they think me so broken, so debas'd 1335
 With corporal servitude, that my mind ever
 Will condescend to such absurd commands?
 Although their drudge, to be their fool or jester,
 And in my midst of sorrow and heart-grief 1339
 To show them feats, and play before their God,
 The worst of all indignities, yet on me
 Join'd with extreme contempt? I will not come.

OFF. My message was impos'd on me with speed,
 Brooks no delay. Is this thy resolution? 1344

SAMS. So take it with what speed thy message needs. [duce.

OFF. I am sorry what this stoutness will pro-

SAMS. Perhaps thou shalt have cause to sorrow indeed. [strain'd

CHOR. Consider, Samson, matters now are
 Up to the height, whether to hold or break. 1349
 He's gone, and who knows how he may report

¹³⁵⁰ report] This is an inversion, as in the Classical writers.

'how he may add fuel, by reporting thy words.'

Virg. Æn. iv. 477.

'Consilium vultu tegit ac spem fronte serenat.'

Thy words by adding fuel to the flame?
Expect another message more imperious,
More lordly thund'ring than thou wilt bear.

SAMS. Shall I abuse this consecrated gift
Of strength, again returning with my hair 1355
After my great transgression, so requite
Favour renew'd, and add a greater sin
By prostituting holy things to idols;
A Nazarite in place abominable 1359
Vaunting my strength in honor to their Dagon?
Besides, how vile, contemptible, ridiculous,
What act more execrably unclean, profane?

CHOR. Yet with this strength thou serv'st the Philistines,
Idolatrous, uncircumcis'd, unclean.

SAMS. Not in their idol-worship, but by labour
Honest and lawful to deserve my food 1365
Of those who have me in their civil power.

CHOR. Where the heart joins not, outward acts defile not. [tence holds.

SAMS. Where outward force constrains, the sen-
But who constrains me to the temple of Dagon,
Not dragging? the Philistian lords command.
Commands are no constraints. If I obey them,
I do it freely, vent'ring to displease
God for the fear of man, and man prefer,
Set God behind: which in his jealousy 1375
Shall never, unrepented, find forgiveness.
Yet that he may dispense with me or thee
Present in temples at idolatrous rites

For some important cause, thou need'st not doubt.

CHOR. How thou wilt here come off surmounts
my reach. 1380

SAMS. Be of good courage, I begin to feel
Some rousing motions in me, which dispose
To something extraordinary my thoughts.
I with this messenger will go along,
Nothing to do, be sure, that may dishonour 1385
Our law, or stain my vow of Nazarite.
If there be aught of presage in the mind,
This day will be remarkable in my life
By some great act, or of my days the last.

CHOR. In time thou hast resolved, the man returns. 1390

OFF. Samson, this second message from our lords
To thee I am bid say. Art thou our slave,
Our captive, at the public mill our drudge,
And dar'st thou at our sending and command
Dispute thy coming? come without delay; 1395
Or we shall find such engines to assail
And hamper thee, as thou shalt come of force,
Though thou wert firmlier fasten'd than a rock.

SAMS. I could be well content to try their art,
Which to no few of them would prove pernicious.
Yet knowing their advantages too many, 1401
Because they shall not trail me through their streets
Like a wild beast, I am content to go.
Masters' commands come with a power resistless

1387 presage] Euripid. Androm. 1075.

πρόμαντις θυμὸς ὥς τὴ προσδοκα. Todd.

To such as owe them absolute subjection ; 1405
And for a life who will not change his purpose ?
So mutable are all the ways of men.
Yet this be sure, in nothing to comply
Scandalous or forbidden in our law. 1409

OFF. I praise thy resolution : doff these links ;
By this compliance thou wilt win the lords
To favour, and, perhaps, to set thee free.

SAMS. Brethren, farewell ; your company along
I will not wish, lest it perhaps offend them
To see me girt with friends ; and how the sight
Of me as of a common enemy, 1415
So dreaded once, may now exasperate them
I know not. Lords are lordliest in their wine
And the well feasted priest then soonest fir'd
With zeal, if aught religion seem concern'd ; 1420
No less the people on their holy-days
Impetuous, insolent, unquenchable :
Happen what may, of me expect to hear
Nothing dishonourable, impure, unworthy
Our God, our law, my nation, or myself, 1425
The last of me or no I cannot warrant.

CHOR. Go, and the Holy One
Of Israel be thy guide
To what may serve his glory best, and spread his name.

Great among the heathen round ; 1430
Send thee the angel of thy birth, to stand
Fast by thy side, who from thy father's field
Rode up in flames after his message told

Of thy conception, and be now a shield
 Of fire ; that spirit that first rush'd on thee 1435
 In the camp of Dan
 Be efficacious in thee now at need.
 For never was from heaven imparted
 Measure of strength so great to mortal seed
 As in thy wondrous actions hath been seen. 1440
 But wherefore comes old Manoah in such haste
 With youthful steps ? much livelier than ere while
 He seems ; supposing here to find his son,
 Or of him bringing to us some glad news ?

MAN. Peace with you, brethren ! my inducement hither 1445

Was not at present here to find my son,
 By order of the lords new parted hence,
 To come and play before them at their feast.
 I heard all as I came, the city rings,
 And numbers thither flock ; I had no will, 1450
 Lest I should see him forc'd to things unseemly.
 But that which mov'd my coming now was chiefly
 To give ye part with me what hope I have
 With good success to work his liberty.

CHOR. That hope would much rejoice us to partake 1455

With thee ; say, reverend Sire, we thirst to hear.

MAN. I have attempted one by one the lords
 Either at home or through the high street passing,
 With supplication prone and father's tears,
 To accept of ransom for my son their pris'ner.

¹⁴³⁴ shield] See T. Warton's Note on Comus, ver. 658.

Some much averse I found and wondrous harsh,
Contemptuous, proud, set on revenge and spite ;
That part most reverenc'd Dagon and his priests ;
Others more moderate seeming, but their aim
Private reward, for which both God and State ¹⁴⁶⁵
They easily would set to sale : a third
More generous far and civil, who confess'd
They had enough reveng'd, having reduc'd
Their foe to misery beneath their fears,
The rest was magnanimity to remit, ¹⁴⁷⁰
If some convenient ransom were propos'd.
What noise or shout was that ? it tore the sky.

CHOR. Doubtless the people shouting to behold
Their once great dread, captive and blind before them,

Or at some proof of strength before them shown.

MAN. His ransom, if my whole inheritance
May compass it, shall willingly be paid
And number'd down : much rather I shall choose
To live the poorest in my tribe, than richest,
And he in that calamitous prison left. ¹⁴⁸⁰

No, I am fix'd not to part hence without him.
For his redemption all my patrimony,
If need be, I am ready to forego
And quit : not wanting him, I shall want nothing.

CHOR. Fathers are wont to lay up for their sons,
Thou for thy son art bent to lay out all :
Sons wont to nurse their parents in old age,
Thou in old age car'st how to nurse thy son,
Made older than thy age through eyesight lost.

MAN. It shall be my delight to tend his eyes,
 And view him sitting in the house, ennobled,
 With all those high exploits by him achiev'd,
 And on his shoulders waving down those locks,
 That of a nation arm'd the strength contain'd :
 And I persuade me, God hath not permitted 1495
 His strength again to grow up with his hair,
 Garrison'd round about him like a camp
 Of faithful soldiery, were not his purpose
 To use him further yet in some great service ;
 Not to sit idle with so great a gift 1500
 Useless, and thence ridiculous, about him.
 And since his strength with eyesight was not lost,
 God will restore him eyesight to his strength.

CHOR. Thy hopes are not ill founded nor seem
 Of his delivery, and thy joy thereon [vain
 Conceiv'd, agreeable to a father's love, 1506
 In both which we, as next, participate.

MAN. I know your friendly minds, and—O what noise !
 Mercy of heav'n, what hideous noise was that !
 Horribly loud, unlike the former shout. 1510

CHOR. Noise call you it or universal groan,
 As if the whole inhabitation perish'd !

1494 contain'd] Ovid. Met. viii. 8.

'Crinis inhærebat magni fiducia regni.' Todd.

1508 O what noise] Christ. Patiens, p. 16. ed. Rom.

'Α ἡ πολυστόνων ἄιον ἰαχὰν γόων,
 Φωνὴν ἐκλῶν, ἐκλῶν βοᾷς στόνων, &c.

Blood, death, and deathful deeds are in that noise,
Ruin, destruction at the utmost point. [noise :

MAN. Of ruin indeed methought I heard the
Oh ! it continues, they have slain my son.

CHOR. Thy son is rather slaying them ; that outcry

From slaughter of one foe could not ascend.

MAN. Some dismal accident it needs must be ;
What shall we do, stay here, or run and see ? 1520

CHOR. Best keep together here, lest running
We unawares run into danger's mouth. [thither
This evil on the Philistines is fall'n ;

From whom could else a general cry be heard ?
The sufferers then will scarce molest us here ; 1525
From other hands we need not much to fear.

What if his eyesight, for to Israel's God
Nothing is hard, by miracle restor'd,
He now be dealing dole among his foes,
And over heaps of slaughter'd walk his way ? 1530

MAN. That were a joy presumptuous to be thought. [credible

CHOR. Yet God hath wrought things as in-
For his people of old ; what hinders now ?

MAN. He can, I know, but doubt to think he will ;

Yet hope would fain subscribe, and tempts belief.
A little stay will bring some notice hither.

CHOR. Of good or bad so great, of bad the sooner ;
For evil news rides post, while good news baits.
And to our wish I see one hither speeding,

An Hebrew, as I guess, and of our tribe. 1540

MESS. O whither shall I run, or which way fly
The sight of this so horrid spectacle,
Which erst my eyes beheld, and yet behold?
For dire imagination still pursues me.

But providence or instinct of nature seems, 1545
Or reason though disturb'd, and scarce consulted,
To have guided me aright, I know not how,
To thee first, reverend Manoah, and to these
My countrymen, whom here I knew remaining,
As at some distance from the place of horror, 1550
So in the sad event too much concern'd. [thee

MAN. The accident was loud, and here before
With rueful cry, yet what it was we hear not;
No preface needs, thou seest we long to know.

MESS. It would burst forth, but I recover breath
And sense distract, to know well what I utter.

MAN. Tell us the sum, the circumstance defer.

MESS. Gaza yet stands, but all her sons are
All in a moment overwhelm'd and fall'n. [fall'n,

MAN. Sad; but thou know'st to Israelites not
The desolation of a hostile city. [saddest

MESS. Feed on that first, there may in grief be

MAN. Relate by whom. [surfeit.

MESS. By Samson.

¹⁵⁵⁴ needs] 'Needs' is a neuter verb. See P. L. x. 80, and note. Newton.

¹⁵⁶² Feed] Two Gent. of Verona, act iii. sc. 1.

'I have fed upon this woe already,

And now excess of it will make me surfeit.' Todd.

MAN. That still lessens
 The sorrow, and converts it nigh to joy.
 MESS. Ah! Manoa, I refrain too suddenly 1565
 To utter what will come at last too soon;
 Lest evil tidings with too rude irruption
 Hitting thy aged ear should pierce too deep.

MAN. Suspense in news is torture, speak them out [dead.

MESS. Take then the worst in brief, Samson is

MAN. The worst indeed. O! all my hopes defeated

To free him hence! but death, who sets all free,
 Hath paid his ransom now and full discharge.
 What windy joy this day had I conceiv'd
 Hopeful of his delivery, which now proves 1575
 Abortive as the first-born bloom of spring
 Nipt with the lagging rear of winter's frost!
 Yet ere I give the reins to grief, say first,
 How died he; death to life is crown or shame.
 All by him fell thou say'st, by whom fell he? 1580
 What glorious hand gave Samson his death's wound?

MESS. Unwounded of his enemies he fell.

MAN. Wearied with slaughter then, or how?

MESS. By his own hands. [explain.

MAN. Self-violence? what cause
 Brought him so soon at variance with himself

1581 death's wound] Æn. xii. 322.

'Pressa est insignis gloria facti,
 Nec sese Æneæ jactavit vulnere quisquam.'

Among his foes ?

MESS. Inevitable cause
At once both to destroy and be destroy'd ;
The edifice, where all were met to see him,
Upon their heads and on his own he pull'd.

MAN. O lastly over-strong against thyself! 1590
A dreadful way thou took'st to thy revenge.
More than enough we know ; but, while things yet
Are in confusion, give us, if thou can'st,
Eye-witness of what first or last was done,
Relation more particular and distinct. 1595

MESS. Occasions drew me early to this city,
And as the gates I enter'd with sun-rise,
The morning trumpets festival proclaim'd
Through each high-street. Little I had dispatch'd
When all abroad was rumour'd, that this day 1600
Samson should be brought forth to show the people
Proof of his mighty strength in feats and games ;
I sorrow'd at his captive state, but minded
Not to be absent at that spectacle.

The building was a spacious theatre, 1605
Half-round, on two main pillars vaulted high,
With seats, where all the lords and each degree
Of sort might sit in order to behold ;
The other side was open, where the throng
On banks and scaffolds under sky might stand ;
I among these aloft obscurely stood. 1611
The feast and noon grew high, and sacrifice
Had fill'd their hearts with mirth, high cheer, and wine,

When to their sports they turn'd. Immediately
Was Samson as a public servant brought, 1615
In their state livery clad ; before him pipes
And timbrels, on each side went armed guards,
Both horse and foot, before him and behind
Archers, and slingers, cataphracts, and spears.
At sight of him the people with a shout 1620
Rifted the air, clamouring their God with praise,
Who had made their dreadful enemy their thrall.
He patient, but undaunted, where they led him,
Came to the place, and what was set before him,
Which without help of eye might be assay'd, 1625
To heave, pull, draw, or break, he still perform'd
All with incredible stupendous force,
None daring to appear antagonist.
At length for intermission sake they led him
Between the pillars ; he his guide requested, 1630
For so from such as nearer stood we heard,
As over-tir'd to let him lean awhile
With both his arms on those two massy pillars,
That to the arched roof gave main support.
He unsuspecting led him ; which when Samson
Felt in his arms, with head awhile inclin'd,
And eyes fast fixt he stood, as one who pray'd,
Or some great matter in his mind revol'd :
At last with head erect thus cried aloud,
Hitherto, lords, what your commands impos'd
I have perform'd, as reason was, obeying, 1641
Not without wonder or delight beheld :
Now of my own accord such other trial

I mean to show you of my strength, yet greater,
As with amaze shall strike all who behold. 1645
This utter'd, straining all his nerves he bow'd;
As with the force of winds and waters pent,
When mountains tremble, those two massy pillars
With horrible convulsion to and fro
He tugg'd, he shook, till down they came and drew
The whole roof after them, with burst of thunder
Upon the heads of all who sat beneath,
Lords, ladies, captains, counsellors, or priests,
Their choice nobility and flower, not only
Of this, but each Philistian city round, 1655
Met from all parts to solemnize this feast.
Samson, with these immixt, inevitably
Pull'd down the same destruction on himself;
The vulgar only scap'd who stood without. 1659

CHOR. O dearly bought revenge, yet glorious!
Living or dying thou hast fulfill'd
The work for which thou wast foretold
To Israel, and now liest victorious
Among thy slain, self kill'd
Not willingly, but tangled in the fold 1665
Of dire necessity, whose law in death conjoin'd
Thee with thy slaughter'd foes in number more
Than all thy life had slain before. [and sublime,

1. SEMICHOR. While their hearts were jocund
Drunk with idolatry, drunk with wine, 1670
And fat regorg'd of bulls and goats,
Chanting their idol, and preferring
Before our living Dread who dwells

In Silo his bright sanctuary :
 Among them he a spirit of frenzy sent, 1675
 Who hurt their minds,
 And urged them on with mad desire
 To call in haste for their destroyer ;
 They, only set on sport and play,
 Unweetingly importun'd 1680
 Their own destruction to come speedy upon them.
 So fond are mortal men
 Fall'n into wrath divine,
 As their own ruin on themselves to invite,
 Insensate left, or to sense reprobate, 1685
 And with blindness internal struck.

2. SEMICHOR. But he, though blind of sight,
 Despis'd and thought extinguish'd quite,
 With inward eyes illuminated,
 His fiery virtue rous'd 1690
 From under ashes into sudden flame,
 And as an ev'ning dragon came,
 Assailant on the perched roosts
 And nests in order rang'd
 Of tame villatic fowl ; but as an eagle 1695
 His cloudless thunder bolted on their heads.
 So virtue given for lost,
 Depress'd, and overthrown, as seem'd,
 Like that self-begotten bird

 That no second knows nor third,
 And lay ere while a holocaust,
 From out her ashy womb now teem'd,
 Revives, reflourishes, then vigorous most
 When most unactive deem'd ; 1705
 And though her body die, her fame survives
 A secular bird ages of lives.

MAN. Come, come, no time for lamentation now,
 Nor much more cause : Samson hath quit himself
 Like Samson, and heroically hath finish'd 1710
 A life heroic, on his enemies
 Fully reveng'd, hath left them years of mourning,
 And lamentation to the sons of Caphtor
 Through all Philistian bounds. To Israel
 Honour hath left and freedom, but let them 1715
 Find courage to lay hold on this occasion,
 To himself and father's house eternal fame ;
 And, which is best and happiest yet, all this
 With God not parted from him, as was fear'd,
 But favouring and assisting to the end. 1720
 Nothing is here for tears, nothing to wail
 Or knock the breast, no weakness, no contempt,
 Dispraise, or blame, nothing but well and fair,
 And what may quiet us in a death so noble.
 Let us go find the body where it lies . 1725

Soak'd in his enemies' blood, and from the stream,
 With lavers pure and cleansing herbs wash off
 The clotted gore. I with what speed the while,
 Gaza is not in plight to say us nay,
 Will send for all my kindred, all my friends, 1730
 To fetch him hence, and solemnly attend
 With silent obsequy and funeral train
 Home to his father's house : there will I build him
 A monument, and plant it round with shade
 Of laurel ever green, and branching palm, 1735
 With all his trophies hung, and acts inroll'd
 In copious legend, or sweet lyric song.
 Thither shall all the valiant youth resort,
 And from his memory inflame their breasts
 To matchless valour and adventures high : 1740
 The virgins also shall on feastful days
 Visit his tomb with flowers, only bewailing
 His lot unfortunate in nuptial choice,
 From whence captivity and loss of eyes.

CHOR. All is best, though we oft doubt, 1745
 What th' unsearchable dispose
 Of highest wisdom brings about,
 And ever best found in the close.
 Oft he seems to hide his face,
 But unexpectedly returns, 1750

 Bore witness gloriously ; whence Gaza mourns
 And all that band them to resist

 With peace and consolation hath dismiss'd,
 And calm of mind, all passion spent.

Note] It was the custom of the scholars who lived in the age just previous to that of Milton, and who possessed a command of poetical language, to form dramas in Latin verse from scripture histories. Besides the two volumes of the 'Dramata Sacra,' there is the 'Abramus' of Th. Beza, the 'Parabata Vincetus' of Thuanus, the 'Christus Patiens,' the 'Sophom-paneas,' and the 'Adamus Exsul,' of Grotius, the 'Jephthas,' and 'Baptistes' of Buchanan, the 'Herodès Infanticida' of Dan. Heinsius. These I have read, probably there are others with which I am not acquainted; there are also many Italian Dramas formed on the sacred history, and our old mysteries. The Greek translation of this play by G. H. Glasse, has been pronounced to be 'a work constructed with such precision, and expressed with such elegance, as never appeared in Europe since the revival of learning.' Parr's Letters, i. p. 637.

*The Attendant SPIRIT descends or enters.

BEFORE the starry threshold of Jove's court
My mansion is, where those immortal shapes
Of bright aerial spirits live insph'rd
In regions mild of calm and serene air,
Above the smoke and stir of this dim spot, 5
Which men call Earth, and with low-thoughted care
Confin'd, and pester'd in this pinfold here,
Strive to keep up a frail and feverish being,
Unmindful of the crown that virtue gives,
After this mortal change, to her true servants, 10

⁷ pester'd] Crowded. Ital. Pesta, a crowd. v. Hall's Sat. b. iv. s. 7. Todd.

Amongst the enthron'd Gods on sainted seats.
Yet some there be that by due steps aspire
To lay their just hands on that golden key,
That opes the palace of eternity;
To such my errand is; and but for such, 15
I would not soil these pure ambrosial weeds
With the rank vapours of this sin-worn mould.

But to my task. Neptune, besides the sway
Of every salt flood, and each ebbing stream,
Took in by lot 'twixt high and nether Jove 20
Imperial rule of all the sea-girt isles,
That like to rich and various gems inlay
The unadorned bosom of the deep;
Which he, to grace his tributary Gods,
By course commits to several government, 25
And gives them leave to wear their sapphire crowns,
And wield their little tridents: but this Isle,
The greatest and the best of all the main,
He quarters to his blue-hair'd deities;
And all this tract that fronts the falling sun 30
A noble Peer of mickle trust and power
Has in his charge, with temper'd awe to guide
An old and haughty nation proud in arms:
Where his fair offspring, nurs'd in princely lore,
Are coming to attend their father's state, 35
And new-intrusted sceptre; but their way
Lies through the perplex'd paths of this drear
wood,
The nodding horror of whose shady brows
Threats the forlorn and wandering passenger;

And here their tender age might suffer peril, 40
 But that by quick command from sovereign Jove
 I was dispatch'd for their defence and guard;
 And listen why, for I will tell you now
 What never yet was heard in tale or song,
 From old or modern bard, in hall or bower. 45

Bacchus, that first from out the purple grape
 Crush'd the sweet poison of misused wine,
 After the Tuscan mariners transform'd,
 Coasting the Tyrrhene shore, as the winds listed,
 On Circe's island fell: who knows not Circe, 50
 The daughter of the sun, whose charmed cup
 Whoever tasted, lost his upright shape,
 And downward fell into a grovelling swine?
 This Nymph that gaz'd upon his clust'ring locks,
 With ivy berries wreath'd, and his blithe youth,
 Had by him, ere he parted thence, a son 56
 Much like his father, but his mother more,
 Whom therefore she brought up, and Comus nam'd:
 Who ripe, and frolic of his full grown age,
 Roving the Celtic and Iberian fields, 60
 At last betakes him to this ominous wood,
 And in thick shelter of black shades imbower'd
 Excels his mother at her mighty art,

⁵⁸ Comus] Consult Warton's and Todd's note on the subject of Comus: from which we find, that though he had appeared as a dramatic personage before, Milton first raised him into poetical celebrity.

Offering to every weary traveller
His orient liquor in a crystal glass, 65
To quench the drouth of Phœbus ; which as they taste,
(For most do taste through fond intemp'rate thirst)
Soon as the potion works, their human count'nance,
'Th' express resemblance of the Gods, is chang'd
Into some brutish form of wolf, or bear, 70
Or ounce, or tiger, hog, or bearded goat,
All other parts remaining as they were ;
And they, so perfect is their misery,
Not once perceive their foul disfigurement,
But boast themselves more comely than before, 75
And all their friends and native home forget,
To roll with pleasure in a sensual sty.
Therefore, when any favour'd of high Jove
Chances to pass through this adventurous glade,
Swift as the sparkle of a glancing star 80
I shoot from heav'n, to give him safe convoy,
As now I do : But first I must put off
These my sky robes spun out of Iris' woof,
And take the weeds and likeness of a swain,
That to the service of this house belongs, 85
Who with his soft pipe, and smooth-dittied song,
Well knows to still the wild winds when they roar,
And hush the waving woods, nor of less faith,
And in this office of his mountain watch,
Likeliest, and nearest to the present aid 90
Of this occasion. But I hear the tread
Of hateful steps ; I must be viewless now.

COMUS enters with a charming rod in one hand, his glass in the other ; with him a rout of monsters, headed like sundry sorts of wild beasts, but otherwise like men and women, their apparel glistening ; they come in making a riotous and unruly noise, with torches in their hands.

 Pacing toward the other goal 100
 Of his chamber in the east.

 Tipsy Dance and Jollity.

Imitate the starry quire,
 Who in their nightly watchful spheres
 Lead in swift round the months and years.
 The sounds and seas, with all their funny drove,
 Now to the moon in wavering morrice move; ¹¹⁶
 And on the tawny sands and shelves
 Trip the pert fairies and the dapper elves.
 By dimpled brook, and fountain brim,
 The wood-nymphs deck'd with daisies trim, ¹²⁰
 Their merry wakes and pastimes keep;
 What hath night to do with sleep?
 Night hath better sweets to prove,
 Venus now wakes, and wakens Love.
 Come let us our rights begin, ¹²⁵
 'Tis only day-light that makes sin,
 Which these dun shades will ne'er report.
 Hail Goddess of nocturnal sport,
 Dark-veil'd Cotytto! t' whom the secret flame
 Of midnight torches burns; mysterious dame, ¹³⁰

 Of Stygian darkness spets her thickest gloom,

Of all thy dues be done, and none left out,
 Ere the babbling eastern scout,
 The nice morn, on th' Indian steep
 From her cabin'd loophole peep, 140
 And to the tell-tale sun descry
 Our conceal'd solemnity.
 Come, knit hands, and beat the ground
 In a light fantastic round.

THE MEASURE.

Break off, break off, I feel the different pace 145
 Of some chaste footing near about this ground.
 Run to your shrouds, within these brakes and trees;
 Our number may affright: Some virgin sure
 (For so I can distinguish by mine art)
 Benighted in these woods. Now to my charms,
 And to my wily trains; I shall ere long 151
 Be well stock'd with as fair a herd as graz'd
 About my mother Circe. Thus I hurl
 My dazzling spells into the spungy air,
 Of power to cheat the eye with blear illusion, 155
 And give it false presentments, lest the place
 And my quaint habits breed astonishment,

 their spungie virtue into vice.'

And put the damsel to suspicious flight,
 Which must not be, for that's against my course :
 I, under fair pretence of friendly ends, 160
 And well-plac'd words of glozing courtesy
 Baited with reasons not unplaussible,
 Wind me into the easy-hearted man,
 And hug him into snares. When once her eye
 Hath met the virtue of this magic dust, 165
 I shall appear some harmless villager,
 Whom thrift keeps up about his country gear.
 But here she comes; I fairly step aside,
 And hearken, if I may, her business here.

THE LADY ENTERS.

This way the noise was, if mine ear be true, 170
 My best guide now; methought it was the sound
 Of riot and ill-manag'd merriment,
 Such as the jocund flute, or gamesome pipe
 Stirs up among the loose unletter'd hinds,
 When for their teeming flocks, and granges full,
 In wanton dance, they praise the bounteous Pan,
 And thank the Gods amiss. I should be loath

To meet the rudeness, and swill'd insolence
 Of such late wassailers ; yet O ! where else
 Shall I inform my unacquainted feet 180
 In the blind mazes of this tangled wood ?
 My Brothers, when they saw me wearied out
 With this long way, resolving here to lodge
 Under the spreading favour of these pines,
 Stepp'd, as they said, to the next thicket side 185
 To bring me berries, or such cooling fruit
 As the kind hospitable woods provide.
 They left me then, when the gray-hooded Even,
 Like a sad votarist in palmer's weed, 189
 Rose from the hindmost wheels of Phoebus' wain.
 But where they are, and why they came not back,
 Is now the labour of my thoughts ; 'tis likeliest
 They had engag'd their wand'ring steps too far ;
 And envious darkness, ere they could return,
 Had stole them from me : else, O thievish Night,
 Why shouldst thou, but for some felonious end,
 In thy dark lantern thus close up the stars,
 That nature hung in heav'n, and filled their lamps
 With everlasting oil, to give due light
 To the misled and lonely traveller ? 200

Was rife, and perfect in my list'ning ear,
 Yet nought but single darkness do I find.
 What might this be? A thousand fantasies 205
 Begin to throng into my memory,
 Of calling shapes, and beck'ning shadows dire,
 And airy tongues, that syllable men's names
 On sands, and shores, and desert wildernesses.
 These thoughts may startle well, but not astound
 The virtuous mind, that ever walks attended
 By a strong-siding champion, Conscience.—
 O welcome pure-ey'd Faith, white-handed Hope,
 Thou hovering Angel, girt with golden wings,
 And thou, unblemish'd form of Chastity! 215
 I see ye visibly, and now believe
 That he, the Supreme Good, t' whom all things ill
 Are but as slavish officers of vengeance,
 Would send a glist'ring guardian, if need were,
 To keep my life and honour unassail'd. 220
 Was I deceiv'd, or did a sable cloud
 Turn forth her silver lining on the night?
 I did not err, there does a sable cloud
 Turn forth her silver lining on the night,
 And casts a gleam over this tufted grove: 225
 I cannot halloo to my Brothers, but Such noise as I can make to be heard farthest
 I'll venture, for my new enliven'd spirits
 Prompt me; and they perhaps are not far off.

SONG.

SWEET Echo, sweetest nymph, that liv'st unseen
 Within thy airy shell, 231
 By slow Meander's margent green,
 And in the violet-embroider'd vale,
 Where the love-lorn nightingale
 Nightly to thee her sad song mourneth well; 235
 Canst thou not tell me of a gentle pair
 That liketh thy Narcissus are?
 O, if thou have
 Hid them in some flow'ry cave,
 Tell me but where, 240
 Sweet queen of parly, daughter of the sphere!
 So mayst thou be translated to the skies,
 And give resounding grace to all heav'n's harmonies.

COM. Can any mortal mixture of earth's mould
 Breathe such divine enchanting ravishment? 245
 Sure something holy lodges in that breast,
 And with these raptures moves the vocal air
 To testify his hidden residence:
 How sweetly did they float upon the wings
 Of silence, through the empty-vaulted night, 250

231 shell] The margin of the Cambridge MS. 'Cell.' Hurd and Warburton observe that 'shell' means the horizon, the hollow circumference of the heavens.

At every fall smoothing the raven down
 Of darkness till it smil'd ! I have oft heard
 My mother Circe with the Sirens three,
 Amidst the flow'ry-kirtled Naiades,
 Culling their potent herbs, and baleful drugs, ²⁵⁵
 Who, as they sung, would take the prison'd soul,
 And lap it in Elysium ; Scylla wept,
 And chid her barking waves into attention,
 And fell Charybdis murmur'd soft applause :
 Yet they in pleasing slumber lull'd the sense, ³⁶⁰
 And in sweet madness robb'd it of itself ;
 But such a sacred, and home-felt delight,
 Such sober certainty of waking bliss
 I never heard till now. I'll speak to her, ²⁶⁴
 And she shall be my queen. Hail, foreign wonder !
 Whom certain these rough shades did never breed,
 Unless the goddess that in rural shrine
 Dwell'st here with Pan, or Silvan, by blest song
 Forbidding every bleak unkindly fog ²⁶⁹

 I saw them under a green mantling vine
 That crawls along the side of yon small hill, 295
 Plucking ripe clusters from the tender shoots ;
 Their port was more than human, as they stood :
 I took it for a faery vision
 Of some gay creatures of the element,
 That in the colours of the rainbow live, 300

 In double night of darkness and of shades ; 335
 Or if your influence be quite damm'd up
 With black usurping mists, some gentle taper,
 Though a rush candle, from the wicker-hole
 Of some clay habitation, visit us
 With thy long-levell'd rule of streaming light ; 340
 And thou shalt be our star of Arcady,
 Or Tyrian Cynosure.

2. BR. Or if our eyes

Be barr'd that happiness, might we but hear
 The folded flocks penn'd in their wattled cotes,
 Or sound of past'ral reed with oaten stops, 345
 Or whistle from the lodge, or village cock
 Count the night watches to his feathery dames,
 'Twould be some solace yet, some little cheering
 In this close dungeon of innumerable boughs.
 But O that hapless virgin, our lost Sister ! 350
 Where may she wander now, whither betake her
 From the chill dew, among rude burs and thistles ?
 Perhaps some cold bank is her bolster now,
 Or 'gainst the rugged bark of some broad elm
 Leans her unpillow'd head, fraught with sad fears.

What, if in wild amazement, and affright,
Or, while we speak, within the direful grasp
Of savage hunger, or of savage heat ?

1 BR. Peace, Brother, be not over-exquisite
To cast the fashion of uncertain evils ; 360
For grant they be so, while they rest unknown,
What need a man forestall his date of grief,
And run to meet what he would most avoid ?
Or if they be but false alarms of fear,
How bitter is such self-delusion !
I do not think my Sister so to seek,
Or so unprincipled in virtue's book,
And the sweet peace that goodness bosoms ever,
As that the single want of light and noise
(Not being in danger, as I trust she is not) 370
Could stir the constant mood of her calm thoughts,
And put them into misbecoming plight.
Virtue could see to do what virtue would
By her own radiant light, though sun and moon
Were in the flat sea sunk. And Wisdom's self 375
Oft seeks to sweet retired solitude,
Where, with her best nurse Contemplation,
She plumes her feathers, and lets grow her wings,

³⁶¹ For grant] This line obscures the thought, and loads the expression: it had been better out. Warburton.

³⁷⁶ seeks to] This expression, 'seeks to,' common in our transl. of the Bible. Isaiah xi. 10. Deut. xii. 5. 1 Kings x. 24. Eccles. iv. 12. Warton. Todd.

³⁷⁸ plumes] I believe the true reading to be 'prunes.' Warton.

That in the various bustle of resort
 Were all-to ruffled, and sometimes impair'd. 380
 He that has light within his own clear breast,
 May sit i' th' centre, and enjoy bright day :
 But he that hides a dark soul, and foul thoughts,
 Benighted walks under the mid-day sun ;
 Himself is his own dungeon.

2 BR. 'Tis most true, 385
 That musing meditation most affects
 The pensive secrecy of desert cell,
 Far from the cheerful haunt of men and herds,
 And sits as safe as in a senate house ;
 For who would rob a hermit of his weeds, 390
 His few books, or his beads, or maple dish,
 Or do his gray hairs any violence ?
 But beauty, like the fair Hesperian tree
 Laden with blooming gold, had need the guard
 Of dragon watch with unenchanted eye, 395
 To save her blossoms, and defend her fruit
 From the rash hand of bold incontinence.
 You may as well spread out the unsunn'd heaps
 Of miser's treasure by an outlaw's den,
 And tell me it is safe, as bid me hope 400
 Danger will wink on opportunity,

³⁸⁰ all-to] So read as in editions 1637, 1645, 1673, not 'too ruffled;' 'all-to' is 'entirely.' See Tyrwhitt's Gloss. Chauc. v. To. Upton's Gloss. Spens. v. 'all.' Warton.

And let a single helpless maiden pass
 Uninjur'd in this wild surrounding waste.
 Of night, or loneliness, it recks me not ;
 I fear the dread events that dog them both, 405
 Lest some ill-greeting touch attempt the person
 Of our unowned Sister.

1 BR. I do not, Brother,
 Infer, as if I thought my Sister's state
 Secure without all doubt, or controversy ;
 Yet where an equal poise of hope and fear 410
 Does arbitrate th' event, my nature is
 That I incline to hope, rather than fear,
 And gladly banish squint suspicion.
 My Sister is not so defenceless left,
 As you imagine ; she has a hidden strength 415
 Which you remember not.

2 BR. What hidden strength,
 Unless the strength of Heav'n, if you mean that ?

1 BR. I mean that too, but yet a hidden strength
 Which, if heav'n gave it, may be term'd her own ;
 'Tis chastity, my Brother, chastity : 420
 She that has that, is clad in complete steel,
 And like a quiver'd Nymph with arrows keen
 May trace huge forests, and unharbour'd heaths,
 Infamous hills, and sandy perilous wilds,

'Where through the sacred rays of chastity, 425
 No savage fierce, bandite, or mountaineer
 Will dare to soil her virgin purity :
 Yea there, where very desolation dwells,
 By grots, and caverns shagg'd with horrid shades,
 She may pass on with unblench'd majesty, 430
 Be it not done in pride, or in presumption.
 Some say no evil thing that walks by night,
 In fog, or fire, by lake, or moorish fen,
 Blue meager hag, or stubborn unlaid ghost,
 That breaks his magic chains at curfew time, 435
 No goblin, or swart faery of the mine,
 Hath hurtful power o'er true virginity.
 Do ye believe me yet, or shall I call
 Antiquity from the old schools of Greece
 To testify the arms of chastity ? 440
 Hence had the huntress Dian her dread bow,
 Fair silver-shafted queen, for ever chaste,
 Wherewith she tam'd the brinded lioness
 And spotted mountain pard, but set at nought
 The frivolous bolt of Cupid ; gods and men 445

433 fog] Milton here had his eye on Fletcher's F. Shepherdess, act 1. 'I have heard, (my mother told it me),' &c. Newton.

Fear'd her stern frown, and she was queen o' th' woods.

What was that snaky-headed Gorgon shield,
That wise Minerva wore, unconquer'd virgin,
Wherewith she freez'd her foes to congeal'd stone,
But rigid looks of chaste austerity, 450
And noble grace that dash'd brute violence
With sudden adoration and blank awe?
So dear to heav'n is saintly chastity,
That when a soul is found sincerely so,
A thousand liveried angels lacky her, 455
Driving far off each thing of sin and guilt,
And in clear dream, and solemn vision,
Tell her of things that no gross ear can hear,
Till oft converse with heav'nly habitants
Begin to cast a beam on th' outward shape, 460
The unpolluted temple of the mind,
And turns it by degrees to the soul's essence,
Till all be made immortal: but when lust,
By unchaste looks, loose gestures, and foul talk,
But most by lewd and lavish act of sin, 465
Lets in defilement to the inward parts,
The soul grows clotted by contagion,
Imbodies, and imbrutes, till she quite lose
The divine property of her first being.

Such are those thick and gloomy shadows damp
 Oft seen in charnel vaults, and sepulchres,
 Ling'ring and sitting by a new made grave,
 As loath to leave the body that it lov'd,
 And link'd itself by carnal sensuality
 To a degenerate and degraded state. 475

2 BR. How charming is divine philosophy !
 Not harsh, and crabbed, as dull fools suppose,
 But musical as is Apollo's lute,
 And a perpetual feast of nectar'd sweets,
 Where no crude surfeit reigns.

1 B. List, list, I hear 480
 Some far off halloo break the silent air.

2 B. Methought so too ; what should it be ?

1 B. For certain
 Either some one like us night-founder'd here,
 Or else some neighbour woodman, or, at worst,
 Some roving robber calling to his fellows. 485

2 B. Heav'n keep my Sister. Again, again, and Best draw, and stand upon our guard. [near !

1 B. I'll halloo ;
 If he be friendly, he comes well ; if not,
 Defence is a good cause, and Heav'n be for us.

*Enter the ATTENDANT SPIRIT, habited like a

Come not too near, you fall on iron stakes else.

SPIR. What voice is that? my young Lord?
speak again.

2 B. O brother, 'tis my father's shepherd, sure.

1 B. Thyrsis? Whose artful strains have oft delay'd

The huddling brook to hear his madrigal, 495
And sweeten'd every muskrose of the dale.

How cam'st thou here, good swain? hath any ram
Slipt from the fold, or young kid lost his dam,
Or straggling wether the pent flock forsook?
How could'st thou find this dark sequester'd nook?

SPIR. O my lov'd master's heir, and his next joy,
I came not here on such a trivial toy
As a stray'd ewe, or to pursue the stealth
Of pilfering wolf; not all the fleecy wealth
That doth enrich these downs is worth a thought
To this my errand, and the care it brought. 505
But, O my virgin Lady, where is she?

How chance she is not in your company? [blame,

1 BR. To tell thee sadly, Shepherd, without
Or our neglect, we lost her as we came. 510

SPIR. Ay me unhappy! then my fears are true.

1 BR. What fears, good Thyrsis? Prithee briefly show.

SPIR. I'll tell ye; 'tis not vain or fabulous,
Though so esteem'd by shallow ignorance,
What the sage poets, taught by th' heavenly Muse,

Storied of old in high immortal verse, 516
 Of dire chimeras, and enchanted isles,
 And rifted rocks whose entrance leads to Hell;
 For such there be, but unbelief is blind.

Within the navel of this hideous wood, 520
 Immur'd in cypress shades a sorcerer dwells,
 Of Bacchus and Circe born, great Comus,
 Deep skill'd in all his mother's witcheries;
 And here to every thirsty wanderer
 By sly enticement gives his baneful cup, 525
 With many murmurs mix'd, whose pleasing poison
 The visage quite transforms of him that drinks,
 And the inglorious likeness of a beast
 Fixes instead, unmolding reason's mintage
 Character'd in the face: this I have learnt 530
 Tending my flocks hard by i' the hilly crofts,
 That brow this bottom-glade, whence, night by night,

He and his monstrous rout are heard to howl,
 Like stabl'd wolves, or tigers at their prey,
 Doing abhorred rites to Hecate 535
 In their obscur'd haunts of inmost bowers.
 Yet have they many baits, and guileful spells,
 T' inveigle and invite th' unwary sense
 Of them that pass unweeting by the way.
 This evening late, by then the chewing flocks 540
 Had ta'en their supper on the savoury herb
 Of knot-grass dew-besprent, and were in fold,

⁵²⁰ navel] 'Ætolos, qui umbilicum Græciæ incoherent.' Liv.

I sat me down to watch upon a bank
 With ivy canopied, and interwove
 With flaunting honey-suckle, and began, 545
 Wrapt in a pleasing fit of melancholy,
 To meditate my rural minstrelsy,
 Till fancy had her fill, but ere a close,
 The wonted roar was up amidst the woods,
 And fill'd the air with barbarous dissonance; 550
 At which I ceas'd, and listen'd them a while,
 Till an unusual stop of sudden silence
 Gave respite to the drowsy frighted steeds,
 That draw the litter of close-curtain'd sleep;
 At last a soft and solemn-breathing sound 555
 Rose like a stream of rich distill'd perfumes,
 And stole upon the air, that even Silence
 Was took ere she was ware, and wish'd she might Deny her nature, and be never more,
 Still to be so displac'd. I was all ear, 560
 And took in strains that might create a soul
 Under the ribs of death: but O ere long
 Too well I did perceive it was the voice
 Of my most honour'd Lady, your dear Sister.
 Amaz'd I stood, harrow'd with grief and fear, 565
 And O poor hapless nightingale thought I,
 How sweet thou sing'st, how near the deadly snare!
 Then down the lawns I ran with headlong haste,
 Through paths and turnings often trod by day,
 Till guided by mine ear I found the place, 570

 and Newton, 'drowsy-flighted.'

Where that damn'd wisard, hid in sly disguise,
 (For so by certain signs I knew) had met
 Already, ere my best speed could prevent,
 The aidless innocent Lady his wish'd prey ;
 Who gently ask'd if he had seen such two, 575
 Supposing him some neighbour villager.
 Longer I durst not stay, but soon I guess'd
 Ye were the two she meant; with that I sprung
 Into swift flight, till I had found you here,
 But further know I not.

2 BR. O night and shades, 580
 How are ye join'd with Hell in triple knot,
 Against th' unarm'd weakness of one virgin,
 Alone and helpless! Is this the confidence
 You gave me, Brother?

1 BR. Yes, and keep it still,
 Lean on it safely; not a period 585
 Shall be unsaid for me: against the threats
 Of malice or of sorcery, or that power
 Which erring men call Chance, this I hold firm,
 Virtue may be assail'd, but never hurt,
 Surpris'd by unjust force, but not intrall'd; 590
 Yea even that which mischief meant most harm,
 Shall in the happy trial prove most glory:
 But evil on itself shall back recoil,
 And mix no more with goodness, when at last
 Gather'd like scum, and settled to itself, 595
 It shall be in eternal restless change
 Self-fed, and self-consumed: if this fail,
 The pillar'd firmament is rottenness,

And earth's base built on stubble. But come,
let's on.

Against the opposing will and arm of heaven 600
May never this just sword be lifted up ;
But for that damn'd magician, let him be girt
With all the grisly legions that troop
Under the sooty flag of Acheron,
Harpies and Hydras, or all the monstrous forms
'Twixt Africa and Ind, I'll find him out,
And force him to return his purchase back,
Or drag him by the curls to a foul death,
Curs'd as his life.

SPIR. Alas ! good vent'rous Youth,
I love thy courage yet, and bold emprise ; 610
But here thy sword can do thee little stead ;
Far other arms and other weapons must
Be those that quell the might of hellish charms :
He with his bare wand can unthread thy joints,
And crumble all thy sinews.

1 BR. Why prithee, Shepherd, 615
How durst thou then thyself approach so near,
As to make this relation ?

SPIR. Care and utmost shifts
How to secure the Lady from surprisal,
Brought to my mind a certain shepherd lad,
Of small regard to see to, yet well skill'd 620
In every virtuous plant and healing herb,
That spreads her verdant leaf to th' morning ray :

He lov'd me well, and oft would beg me sing,
 Which when I did, he on the tender grass
 Would sit, and hearken e'en to ecstasy, 625
 And in requital ope his leathern scrip,
 And show me simples of a thousand names,
 Telling their strange and vigorous faculties :
 Amongst the rest a small unsightly root,
 But of divine effect, he cull'd me out ; 630
 The leaf was darkish, and had prickles on it,
 But in another country, as he said,
 Bore a bright golden flow'r, but not in this soil :
 Unknown, and like esteem'd, and the dull swain
 Treads on it daily with his clouted shoon : 635
 And yet more med'cinal is it than that moly
 That Hermes once to wise Ulysses gave ;
 He call'd it hæmony, and gave it me,
 And bad me keep it as of sovereign use
 'Gainst all enchantments, mildew, blast, or damp,
 Or ghastly furies' apparition.
 I purs'd it up, but little reck'ning made,

Till now that this extremity compell'd:
 But now I find it true; for by this means
 I knew the foul inchanter though disguis'd, 645
 Enter'd the very lime-twigs of his spells,
 And yet came off: if you have this about you,
 (As I will give you when we go) you may
 Boldly assault the necromancer's hall;
 Where if he be, with dauntless hardihood, 650
 And brandish'd blade rush on him, break his glass,
 And shed the luscious liquor on the ground,
 But seize his wand; though he and his curs'd crew
 Fierce sign of battle make, and menace high,
 Or like the sons of Vulcan vomit smoke, 655
 Yet will they soon retire, if he but shrink.

1 BR. Thyrsis, lead on apace, I'll follow thee,
 And some good Angel bear a shield before us.

 That flames, and dances in his crystal bounds,
 With spirits of balm, and fragrant syrups mix'd.
 Not that Nepenthes, which the wife of Thone 675

 Is of such pow'r to stir up joy as this,
 To life so friendly, or so cool to thirst.

 Those who in eternal fevers grieve.'

And to those dainty limbs which nature lent 680
 For gentle usage, and soft delicacy?
 But you invert the covenants of her trust,
 And harshly deal, like an ill borrower,
 With that which you receiv'd on other terms ;
 Scorning the unexempt condition 685
 By which all mortal frailty must subsist,
 Refreshment after toil, ease after pain,
 That have been tir'd all day without repast,
 And timely rest have wanted ; but, fair Virgin,
 This will restore all soon.

LAD. 'Twill not, false traitor, 690
 'Twill not restore the truth and honesty
 That thou hast banish'd from thy tongue with lies.
 Was this the cottage, and the safe abode
 Thou toldst me of? What grim aspects are these,
 These ugly-headed monsters? Mercy guard me!
 Hence with thy brew'd enchantments, foul deceiver ;

Hast thou betray'd my credulous innocence
 With visor'd falsehood and base forgery?
 And would'st thou seek again to trap me here
 With liquorish baits fit to ensnare a brute? 700
 Were it a draft for Juno when she banquets,
 I would not taste thy treasonous offer ; none
 But such as are good men can give good things,
 And that which is not good, is not delicious
 To a well-govern'd and wise appetite. 705

COM. O foolishness of men ! that lend their ears

Th' All-giver would be unthank'd, would be unprais'd,

Not half his riches known, and yet despis'd ;
And we should serve him as a grudging master,
As a penurious niggard of his wealth ; 726

And live like Nature's bastards, not her sons,
Who would be quite surcharg'd with her own weight,

And strangled with her waste fertility ;
Th' earth cumber'd, and the wing'd air dark'd with plumes, 730

The herds would over-multitude their lords,
The sea o'erfraught would swell, and th' unsought diamonds

Would so emblaze the forehead of the deep,
And so bestud with stars, that they below
Would grow inur'd to light, and come at last 735
To gaze upon the sun with shameless brows.

List, Lady, be not coy, and be not cozen'd
With that same vaunted name Virginity.

Beauty is Nature's coin, must not be hoarded,
But must be current, and the good thereof 740
Consists in mutual and partaken bliss,

Unsavoury in th' enjoyment of itself ;
If you let slip time, like a neglected rose
It withers on the stalk with languish'd head.

Beauty is nature's brag, and must be shown 745
In courts, at feasts, and high solemnities,

730 air] See Drayton's Polyolbion, Song 25. p. 1156.

732 The sea] See Benlowes's Theophila, st. xvii. p. 97.

Where most may wonder at the workmanship ;
 It is for homely features to keep home,
 They had their name thence ; coarse complexions,
 And cheeks of sorry grain, will serve to ply ⁷⁵⁰
 The sampler, and to tease the huswife's wool.
 What need a vermeil-tinctur'd lip for that,
 Love-darting eyes, or tresses like the morn ?
 There was another meaning in these gifts, ⁷⁵⁴
 Think what, and be advis'd, you are but young yet.
 LAD. I had not thought to have unlockt my
 In this unhallow'd air, but that this juggler [lips

'Home-keeping youth have ever homely wits.' Newton.

'Let coarser beauties work within,
 Whom the light mocks ; thou art fair and fresh.'

⁷⁵² vermeil-tinctur'd] Lucr. ii. 500. 'Concharum tincta colore.' Benlowes's Theophila, p. 2. 'Crouch low ! Oh.
 vermeil tinctur'd cheek !'—The last mention of this 'word'
 vermeil, as applied to the cheek, I know, is in Fielding's
 Love in Several Masques, act i. sc. 5. Lord Formal says,
 'It has exagitated my complexion to that exorbitancy of ver-
meille,' &c.

⁷⁵³ tresses] Hom. Od. v. 390. Nonni Dionysiaca, xi. 388.

Would think to charm my judgment, as mine eyes,
Obtruding false rules prank'd in reason's garb.
I hate when vice can bolt her arguments, 760
And virtue has no tongue to check her pride.
Impostor, do not charge most innocent Nature,
As if she would her children should be riotous
With her abundance ; she, good cateress,
Means her provision only to the good, 765
That live according to her sober laws,
And holy dictate of spare temperance :
If every just man, that now pines with want,
Had but a moderate and beseeming share
Of that which lewdly-pamper'd luxury 770
Now heaps upon some few with vast excess,
Nature's full blessings would be well dispens'd
In unsuperfluous even proportion,
And she no wit incumber'd with her store ;
And then the giver would be better thank'd, 775
His praise due paid ; for swinish gluttony
Ne'er looks to heav'n amidst his gorgeous feast,
But with besotted base ingratitude
Crams, and blasphemes his feeder. Shall I go on ?
Or have I said enough ? To him that dares 780
Arm his profane tongue with contemptuous words
Against the sun-clad pow'r of Chastity,
Fain would I something say, yet to what end ?
Thou hast not ear, nor soul to apprehend
The sbúlime notion, and high mystery, 785
That must be utter'd to unfold the sage
And serious doctrine of Virginity,

And thou art worthy that thou shouldst not know
 More happiness than this thy present lot.
 Enjoy your dear wit, and gay rhetoric, 790
 That hath so well been taught her dazzling fence,
 Thou art not fit to hear thyself convinc'd ;
 Yet should I try, the uncontrolled worth
 Of this pure cause would kindle my rapt spirits
 To such a flame of sacred vehemence, 795
 That dumb things would be mov'd to sympathize,
 And the brute earth would lend her nerves, and shake,

Till all thy magic structures rear'd so high,
 Were shatter'd into heaps o'er thy false head.

COM. She fables not ; I feel that I do fear 800
 Her words set off by some superior power :
 And though not mortal, yet a cold shudd'ring dew
 Dips me all o'er, as when the wrath of Jove
 Speaks thunder, and the chains of Erebus,
 To some of Saturn's crew. I must dissemble, 805
 And try her yet more strongly. Come, no more,
 This is mere moral babble, and direct
 Against the canon laws of our foundation ;
 I must not suffer this, yet 'tis but the lees
 And settlings of a melancholy blood : 810
 But this will cure all straight ; one sip of this

797 brute] Hor. Od. i. xxxiv. 9. 'Bruta tellus.' Warton.

809 lees] I like the MS. reading best,

'This is mere moral stuff, the very lees.'

Will bathe the drooping spirits in delight,
Beyond the bliss of dreams. Be wise, and taste.—

The BROTHERS rush in with swords drawn, wrest his glass out of his hand, and break it against the ground; his rout make sign of resistance, but are all driven in. The ATTENDANT SPIRIT comes in.

SPIR. What, have you let the false inchanter
'scape?

O ye mistook, ye should have snatch'd his wand,
And bound him fast: without his rod revers'd,
And backward mutters of dissevering power,
We cannot free the Lady that sits here
In stony fetters fix'd, and motionless: 819
Yet stay, be not disturb'd: now I bethink me,
Some other means I have which may be us'd,
Which once of Melibæus old I learnt,
The soothest shepherd that e'er pip'd on plains.

There is a gentle nymph not far from hence,
That with moist curb sways the smooth Severn stream,

Sabrina is her name, a virgin pure; 826
Whilome she was the daughter of Lochrine,
That had the sceptre from his father Brute.

⁸¹⁶ revers'd] Ov. Metam. xiv. 300. 'Conversæ verbere virgæ.' This Sandys translates, 'her wand reverst.' Warton.

⁸²⁶ Sabrina] Rob. of Gloucester's Chron. 61. p. 25. ed. Hearne.

She, guiltless damsel, flying the mad pursuit
 Of her enraged stepdame Guendolen, 830
 Commended her fair innocence to the flood,
 They stay'd her flight with his cross-flowing course.
 The water nymphs that in the bottom play'd,
 Held up their pearled wrists, and took her in,
 Bearing her straight to aged Nereus' hall, 833
 Who piteous of her woes, rear'd her lank head,
 And gave her to his daughters to imbathe
 In nectar'd lavers strow'd with asphodel,
 And through the porch and inlet of each sense
 Dropp'd in ambrosial oils, till she reviv'd, 840
 And underwent a quick immortal change,
 Made Goddess of the river: still she retains
 Her maiden gentleness, and oft at eve
 Visits the herds along the twilight meadows,
 Helping all urchin blasts, and ill-luck signs 845
 That the shrewd meddling elf delights to make,
 Which she with precious vial'd liquors heals;
 For which the shepherds at their festivals
 Carol her goodness loud in rustic lays,
 And throw sweet garland wreaths into her stream
 Of pansies, pinks, and gaudy daffodils.
 And, as the old swain said, she can unlock
 The clasping charm, and thaw the numbing spell,
 If she be right invoc'd in warbled song;
 For maidenhood she loves, and will be swift 855
 To aid a virgin, such as was herself,

829 She] So ed. 1645, and MS. Eds. 1637, and 1695, 'The.'
 Tickell, Fenton, Ed. 1713, and Warton, 'She.'

In hard-besetting need ; this will I try,
And add the pow'r of some adjuring verse.

SONG.

Sabrina fair,

Listen where thou art sitting 860
Under the glassy, cool, translucent wave,
In twisted braids of lilies knitting
The loose train of thy amber-dropping hair ;
Listen for dear honour's sake,
Goddess of the silver lake, 865
Listen and save.

Listen and appear to us
In name of great Oceanus,
By th' earth-shaking Neptune's mace,
And Tethys' grave majestic pace, 870
By hoary Nereus' wrinkled look,
And the Carpathian wisard's hook,
By scaly Triton's winding shell,
And old soothsaying Glaucus' spell,
By Leucothea's lovely hands, 875

⁸⁶³ amber-dropping] Consult Warton's note. Todd gives an extract from Nash's Terrors of the Night, 1594. 'Their haire they ware loose unrowled about their shoulders, whose dangling amber trammells reaching downe beneath their knees, seemed to drop baulme on their delicious bodies.'

And her son that rules the strands,
 By Thetis' tinsel-slipper'd feet,
 And the songs of Sirens sweet,
 By dead Parthenope's dear tomb,
 And fair Ligea's golden comb, 890
 Wherewith she sits on diamond rocks,
 Sleeking her soft alluring locks,
 By all the nymphs that nightly dance
 Upon thy streams with wily glance,
 Rise, rise, and heave thy rosy head 895
 From thy coral-paven bed,
 And bridle in thy headlong wave,
 Till thou our summons answer'd have.

Listen and save.

SABRINA rises, attended by water-nymphs, and sings.

By the rushy-fringed bank, 890
 Where grows the willow and the osier dank,
 My sliding chariot stays,
 Thick set with agate, and the azurn sheen
 Of turkis blue, and emerald green,
 That in the channel strays ; 895
 Whilst from off the waters fleet,
 Thus I set my printless feet

⁸⁹⁰ rushy] I would read 'rush-yfringed.' Warton.

⁸⁹⁷ printless] Shakesp. Temp. act v. s. 1. 'And ye, that on the sands with printless foot.' Warton.

O'er the cowslip's velvet head,
 That bends not as I tread ;
 Gentle Swain, at thy request 900
 I am here.

SP. Goddess dear,
 We implore thy pow'rful hand
 To undo the charmed band
 Of true virgin here distrest, 905
 Through the force, and through the wile
 Of unblest inchanter vile.

SABR. Shepherd, 'tis my office best
 To help insnared chastity :
 Brightest Lady, look on me ; 910
 Thus I sprinkle on thy breast
 Drops that from my fountain pure
 I have kept of precious cure,
 Thrice upon thy finger's tip,
 Thrice upon thy rubied lip ; 915
 Next this marble venom'd seat,
 Smear'd with gums of glutinous heat,
 I touch with chaste palms moist and cold :
 Now the spell hath lost his hold ;
 And I must haste ere morning hour 920
 To wait in Amphitrite's bow'r.

⁹¹⁸ moist] 'The moone though moist and cold she be.'

SABRINA descends, and the LADY rises out of her seat.

SP. Virgin, daughter of Locrine
 Sprung of old Anchises' line,
 May thy brimmed waves for this
 Their full tribute never miss 925
 From a thousand petty rills,
 That tumble down the snowy hills :
 Summer drouth, or singed air
 Never scorch thy tresses fair,
 Nor wet October's torrent flood 930
 Thy molten crystal fill with mud ;
 May thy billows roll ashore
 The beryl, and the golden ore ;
 May thy lofty head be crown'd
 With many a tow'r and terrace round, 935
 And here and there thy banks upon
 With groves of myrrh and cinnamon.

Come, Lady, while heav'n lends us grace,
 Let us fly this cursed place,
 Lest the sorcerer us entice 940

924 brimmed] 'brined,' Warburton; a wrong and tasteless alteration: 'brimmed' is connected with the two following lines. Lucret. ii. 362,

'Fluminaque illa queunt, summis labentia ripis.'

930 flood] Sylv. Du Bartas, p. 171.

'—— dirty mudds

Defil'd the crystal of smooth sliding floods.'

Dunster.

With some other new device.
 Not a waste, or needless sound,
 Till we come to holier ground ;
 I shall be your faithful guide
 Through this gloomy covert wide, 945
 And not many furlongs thence
 Is your Father's residence,
 Where this night are met in state
 Many a friend to gratulate
 His wish'd presence, and beside 950
 All the swains that there abide,
 With jigs, and rural dance resort ;
 We shall catch them at their sport,
 And our sudden coming there
 Will double all their mirth and cheer ; 955
 Come, let us haste, the stars grow high,
 But night sits monarch yet in the mid sky.

*The Scene changes, presenting Ludlow town and the President's castle ; then come in country
 dancers, after them the ATTENDANT SPIRIT, with the Two BROTHERS, and the LADY.*

SONG.

SP. Back, Shepherds, back, enough your play,
 Till next sunshine holiday ;
 Here be without duck or nod 960

951 there] So Milton's own edition, the MS. 'near.'

960 duck] K. Richard III. act i. sc. 3. 'Duck with French nods.' Warton.

Other trippings to be trod
 Of lighter toes, and such court guise
 As Mercury did first devise,
 With the mincing Dryades,
 On the lawns, and on the leas. 965

This second Song presents them to their Father and Mother.

Noble Lord, and Lady bright,
 I have brought ye new delight,
 Here behold so goodly grown
 Three fair branches of your own ;
 Heav'n hath timely tried their youth, 970
 Their faith, their patience, and their truth,
 And sent them here through hard assays
 With a crown of deathless praise,
 'To triumph in victorious dance
 O'er sensual folly, and intemperance. 975

The dances ended, the SPIRIT epiloguises.

SP. To the ocean now I fly,
 And those happy climes that lie
 Where day never shuts his eye,
 Up in the broad fields of the sky :
 There I suck the liquid air 980
 All amidst the gardens fair

972 hard] Milton is fond of this expression. P. L. iv. 932.

979 broad] MS. 'plain fields.' Fairfax, B. viii. st. 57.

O'er the broad fields of heaven's bright wilderness.
Warton and Todd.

Of Hesperus, and his daughters three
 That sing about the golden tree :
 Along the crisped shades and bowers
 Revels the spruce and jocund Spring, 985
 The Graces, and the rosy-bosom'd Hours,
 Thither all their bounties bring ;
 There eternal Summer dwells,
 And west-winds, with musky wing,
 About the cedarn alleys fling 990
 Nard and cassia's balmy smells.
 Iris there with humid bow
 Waters the odorous banks, that blow
 Flowers of more mingled hue
 Than her purpled scarf can shew, 995
 And drenches with Elysian dew,
 (List mortals, if your ears be true)
 Beds of hyacinth and roses,
 Where young Adonis oft reposes,
 Waxing well of his deep wound 1000
 In slumber soft, and on the ground
 Sadly sits th' Assyrian queen ;
 But far above in spangled sheen
 Celestial Cupid her fam'd son advanc'd,

988 There] Milton's own edition, 1673, reads 'That there,' but in the errata directs 'That' to be omitted; so it is by Tickell and Fenton, but silently readopted by Newton.

Warton.

989 musky] See Cowley's Silva. p. 56, and Love's Riddle, p. 93. 'The musky kisses of the west wind.'

1002 Assyrian] Tickell and Fenton read 'the Cyprian Queen.'

Holds his dear Psyche sweet intranc'd, 1005
 After her wand'ring labours long,
 Till free consent the Gods among
 Make her his eternal bride,
 And from her fair unspotted side
 Two blissful twins are to be born, 1010
 Youth and Joy ; so Jove hath sworn.

But now my task is smoothly done,
 I can fly, or I can run
 Quickly to the green earth's end,
 Where the bow'd welkin slow doth bend, 1015
 And from thence can soar as soon
 To the corners of the moon.

Mortals, that would follow me,
 Love Virtue, she alone is free ;
 She can teach ye how to climb 1020
 Higher than the sphery chime :
 Or, if Virtue feeble were,
 Heav'n itself would stoop to her.

¹⁰¹⁷ corners] Macbeth, a. 3. s. 5. 'Upon the corner of the moon.' Warton.

¹⁰²¹ sphery] 'sphery chime' is the chime or music of the spheres. Mids. N. Dream, act ii. sc. 7, 'Hermia's sphery eyne.' Machin's Dumb Knight, (Reed's Old Pl. iv. 447), 'It was as silver as the chime of spheres.' Herrick's Hesp. p. 116, 'Fall down from those thy chiming spheres.'

Warton and Todd.

LYCIDAS.

IN this Monody, the author bewails a learned friend, unfortunately drowned in his passage from Chester on the Irish seas, 1637; and by occasion foretells the ruin of our corrupted clergy, then in their height.

YET once more, O ye laurels, and once more
 Ye myrtles brown, with ivy never sere,
 I come to pluck your berries harsh and crude,
 And with forc'd fingers rude,
 Shatter your leaves before the mellowing year. 5
 Bitter constraint, and sad occasion dear,
 Compels me to disturb your season due:
 For Lycidas is dead, dead ere his prime,
 Young Lycidas, and hath not left his peer:
 Who would not sing for Lycidas? He knew 10
 Himself to sing, and build the lofty rhyme.
 He must not float upon his watery bier

Unwept, and welter to the parching wind,
Without the meed of some melodious tear.

Begin then, Sisters of the sacred well, 15
That from beneath the seat of Jove doth spring,
Begin, and somewhat loudly sweep the string.
Hence with denial vain, and coy excuse;
So may some gentle Muse
With lucky words favour my destin'd urn, 20
And as he passes turn,
And bid fair peace be to my sable shroud.

For we were nurs'd upon the self-same hill,
Fed the same flock by fountain, shade and rill.
Together both, ere the high lawns appear'd 25
Under the opening eyelids of the morn,
We drove a-field, and both together heard
What time the gray-fly winds her sultry horn,
Batt'ning our flocks with the fresh dews of night,

 Rough Satyrs danc'd, and Fauns with cloven heel
 From the glad sound would not be absent long,
 And old Damætas lov'd to hear our song. 36

But, O the heavy change, now thou art gone,
 Now thou art gone, and never must return!
 Thee, Shepherd, thee the woods, and desert caves
 With wild thyme and the gadding vine o'ergrown,
 And all their echoes mourn. 41

The willows, and the hazel copses green,
 Shall now no more be seen,
 Fanning their joyous leaves to thy soft lays.
 As killing as the canker to the rose, 45

 Or frost to flow'rs, that their gay wardrobe wear,
 When first the white-thorn blows;

Where your old Bards, the famous Druids, lie,
 Nor on the shaggy top of Mona high,
 Nor yet where Deva spreads her wisard stream :
 Ay me ! I fondly dream ! 56
 Had ye been there, for what could that have done ?
 What could the Muse herself that Orpheus bore,
 The Muse herself for her enchanting son,
 Whom universal nature did lament, 60
 When by the rout that made the hideous roar,
 His goary visage down the stream was sent,
 Down the swift Hebrus to the Lesbian shore ?
 Alas ! what boots it with incessant care
 To tend the homely slighted shepherd's trade, 65
 And strictly meditate the thankless Muse ?
 Were it not better done as others use,
 To sport with Amaryllis in the shade,
 Or with the tangles of Neæra's hair ?
 Fame is the spur that the clear spirit doth raise

 And slits the thin-spun life. But not the praise,
 Phœbus replied, and touch'd my trembling ears;
 Fame is no plant that grows on mortal soil,
 Nor in the glist'ring foil
 Set off to th' world, nor in broad rumour lies; ⁸⁰
 But lives and spreads aloft by those pure eyes,
 And perfect witness of all-judging Jove;
 As he pronounces lastly on each deed,
 Of so much fame in heav'n expect thy meed. ⁸⁴

 What hard mishap hath doom'd this gentle swain?
 And question'd every gust of rugged wings
 That blows from off each beaked promontory :
 They knew not of his story, 95
 And sage Hippotades their answer brings,
 That not a blast was from his dungeon stray'd ;
 The air was calm, and on the level brine
 Sleek Panope with all her sisters play'd.
 It was that fatal and perfidious bark, 100
 Built in th' eclipse, and rigg'd with curses dark,
 That sunk so low that sacred head of thine.

Next Camus, reverend sire, went footing slow,
 His mantle hairy, and his bonnet sedge,
 Inwrought with figures dim, and on the edge 105
 Like to that sanguine flow'r inscrib'd with woe.
 Ah ! Who hath reft (quoth he) my dearest pledge?
 Last came, and last did go,

Two massy keys he bore of metals twain, 110

 He shook his mitred locks, and stern bespake;
 How well could I have spar'd for thee, young swain,

Enow of such as for their bellies' sake
 Creep, and intrude, and climb into the fold? 115
 Of other care they little reckoning make,
 Than how to scramble at the shearer's feast,
 And shove away the worthy bidden guest;
 Blind mouths! that scarce themselves know how to hold

A sheep-hook, or have learn'd aught else the least
 That to the faithful herdman's art belongs!
 What recks it them? What need they? They are sped;

Grate on their scrannel pipes of wretched straw ;
 The hungry sheep look up, and are not fed, ¹²⁵
 But swoll with wind, and the rank mist they draw,

Rot inwardly, and foul contagion spread ;
 Besides what the grim wolf with privy paw
 Daily devours apace, and nothing said ;
 But that two-handed engine at the door ¹³⁰
 Stands ready to smite once, and smite no more.

Return, Alpheus, the dread voice is past,
 That shrunk thy streams ; return, Sicilian Muse,
 And call the vales, and bid them hither cast

On whose fresh lap the swart-star sparsely looks :
 Throw hither all your quaint enamell'd eyes,
 That on the green turf suck the honied showers,
 And purple all the ground with vernal flowers. 140
 Bring the rathe primrose that forsaken dies,
 The tufted crow-toe, and pale jessamine,
 The white pink, and the pansy freak'd with jet,
 The glowing violet, 145
 The musk-rose, and the well-attir'd woodbine,
 With cowslips wan that hang the pensive head,
 And every flower that sad embroidery wears :
 Bid amarantus all his beauty shed,
 And daffadillies fill their cups with tears, 150
 To strow the laureate herse where Lycid lies.
 For so to interpose a little ease,
 Let our frail thoughts dally with false surmise.
 Ay me ! Whilst thee the shores, and sounding seas

Weep no more, woful Shepherds, weep no more,
For Lycidas your sorrow is not dead, 166
Sunk though he be beneath the watery floor ;
So sinks the day-star in the ocean bed,
And yet anon repairs his drooping head,
And tricks his beams, and with new spangled ore
Flames in the forehead of the morning sky ; 171
So Lycidas sunk low, but mounted high,
'Thro' the dear might of him that walk'd the waves,
Where other groves, and other streams along,
With nectar pure his oozy locks he laves, 175
And hears the unexpressive nuptial song,

There entertain him all the saints above,
 In solemn troops, and sweet societies,
 That sing, and singing in their glory move, 180
 And wipe the tears for ever from his eyes.
 Now, Lycidas, the shepherds weep no more ;
 Henceforth thou art the Genius of the shore,
 In thy large recompense, and shalt be good
 To all that wander in that perilous flood. 185

Thus sang the uncouth swain to th' oaks and rills,

While the still morn went out with sandals gray ;
 He touch'd the tender stops of various quills,
 With eager thought warbling his Doric lay ;
 And now the sun had stretch'd out all the hills,
 And now was dropt into the western bay ; 191
 At last he rose, and twitch'd his mantle blue :
 To-morrow to fresh woods, and pastures new.

IL PENSEROSO.

HENCE, vain deluding joys,
 The brood of folly without father bred,
 How little you bestead,
 Or fill the fixed mind with all your toys !
 Dwell in some idle brain, 5
 And fancies fond with gaudy shapes possess,
 As thick and numberless
 As the gay motes that people the sunbeams,
 Or likest hovering dreams
 The fickle pensioners of Morpheus' train. 10
 But hail thou Goddess, sage and holy,
 Hail divinest Melancholy,
 Whose saintly visage is too bright
 To hit the sense of human sight,
 And therefore to our weaker view 15
 O'erlaid with black, staid wisdom's hue ;
 Black, but such as in esteem
 Prince Memnon's sister might beseem,
 Or that starr'd Ethiop queen that strove
 To set her beauty's praise above 20
 The Sea-Nymphs, and their pow'rs offended :
 Yet thou art higher far descended ;

Thee bright-hair'd Vesta, long of yore,
 To solitary Saturn bore ;
 His daughter she (in Saturn's reign, 25

 Oft in glimmering bow'rs and glades
 He met her, and in secret shades
 Of woody Ida's inmost grove,
 While yet there was no fear of Jove. 30
 Come, pensive Nun, devout and pure,
 Sober, steadfast, and demure,
 All in a robe of darkest grain,
 Flowing with majestic train,
 And sable stole of cyprus lawn, 35
 Over thy decent shoulders drawn.
 Come, but keep thy wonted state,
 With even step, and musing gait,
 And looks commercing with the skies,
 Thy rapt soul sitting in thine eyes : 40
 There held in holy passion still,
 Forget thyself to marble, till
 With a sad leaden downward cast
 Thou fix them on the earth as fast :
 And join with thee calm Peace, and Quiet, 45
 Spare Fast, that oft with Gods doth diet,
 And hears the Muses in a ring
 Aye round about Jove's altar sing :

 Thee, chauntress, oft the woods among

 And missing thee, I walk unseen 65

 To behold the wandering moon,
 Riding near her highest noon,
 Like one that had been led astray
 Through the heav'n's wide pathless way ; 70

 Stooping through a fleecy cloud.

Of lively portraiture display'd,
Softly on my eyelids laid. 150
And as I wake, sweet music breathe
Above, about, or underneath,
Sent by some Spirit to mortals good,
Or th' unseen Genius of the wood.
But let my due feet never fail 155
To walk the studious cloisters pale,
And love the high embowed roof,
With antic pillars massy proof,
And storied windows richly dight,
Casting a dim religious light: 160
There let the pealing organ blow,
To the full voic'd quire below,
In service high, and anthems clear,
As may with sweetness, through mine ear,
Dissolve me into ecstasies, 165
And bring all heav'n before mine eyes.
And may at last my weary age
Find out the peaceful hermitage,
The hairy gown and mossy cell,
Where I may sit and rightly spell 170
Of every star that heav'n doth show,
And every herb that sips the dew;
Till old experience do attain
To something like prophetic strain.
These pleasures Melancholy give, 175
And I with thee will choose to live.

 And every shepherd tells his tale

 Sometimes with secure delight
 The upland hamlets will invite,
 When the merry bells ring round,
 And the jocund rebecks sound
 To many a youth, and many a maid, 95
 Dancing in the chequer'd shade ;
 And young and old come forth to play
 On a sunshine holiday,
 Till the live-long daylight fail ;
 Then to the spicy nut-brown ale, 100

 She was pinch'd, and pull'd, she said,

ARCADES.

Part of an Entertainment presented to the Countess Dowager of Derby, at Harefield, by some noble persons of her family; who appear on the scene in pastoral habit, moving toward the seat of state, with this song.

SONG I.

Look, Nymphs and Shepherds, look,
What sudden blaze of majesty
Is that which we from hence descry,
Too divine to be mistook;

 This, this is she

5

To whom our vows and wishes bend;
Here our solemn search hath end.

Fame, that her high worth to raise,
Seem'd erst so lavish and profuse,

We may justly now accuse

10

Of detraction from her praise;

 Less than half we find express'd,

 Envy bid conceal the rest.

⁵ This] Jonson's Ent. at Altrope, 1603.

 'This is shee,

 This is shee,

 In whose world of grace,' &c. Warton.

Mark what radiant state she spreads,
 In circle round her shining throne, 15
 Shooting her beams like silver threads ;
 This, this is she alone,
 Sitting like a Goddess bright,
 In the centre of her light.

Might she the wise Latona be, 20
 Or the tower'd Cybele,
 Mother of a hundred Gods ?
 Juno dares not give her odds ;
 Who had thought this clime had held
 A deity so unparallel'd ? 25

As they come forward the GENIUS of the wood appears, and turning toward them, speaks.

GEN. Stay, gentle Swains, for though in this disguise,
 I see bright honour sparkle through your eyes ;
 Of famous Arcady ye are, and sprung
 Of that renowned flood, so often sung,
 Divine Alphéus, who by secret sluice 30
 Stole under seas to meet his Arethuse ;
 And ye, the breathing roses of the wood,
 Fair silver-buskin'd Nymphs, as great and good,

I know this quest of yours, and free intent
 Was all in honour and devotion meant 35
 To the great mistress of yon princely shrine,
 Whom with low reverence I adore as mine,
 And with all helpful service will comply
 To further this night's glad solemnity;
 And lead ye where ye may more near behold 40
 What shallow-searching Fame has left untold;
 Which I full oft amidst these shades alone
 Have sat to wonder at, and gaze upon:
 For know, by lot from Jove I am the Power
 Of this fair wood, and live in oaken bower, 45
 To nurse the saplings tall, and curl the grove
 With ringlets quaint, and wanton windings wove;
 And all my plants I save from nightly ill
 Of noisome winds, and blasting vapours chill:
 And from the bows brush off the evil dew, 50
 And heal the harms of thwarting thunder blue,
 Or what the cross dire-looking planet smites,
 Or hurtful worm with canker'd venom bites.
 When evening gray doth rise, I fetch my round.
 Over the mount, and all this hallow'd ground; 55

And early, ere the odorous breath of morn
 Awakes the slumb'ring leaves, or tassel'd horn
 Shakes the high thicket, haste I all about,
 Number my ranks, and visit every sprout
 With puissant words, and murmurs made to bless ;
 But else, in deep of night when drowsiness
 Hath lock'd up mortal sense, then listen I
 To the celestial Sirens' harmony,
 That sit upon the nine infolded spheres,
 And sing to those that hold the vital shears, 65
 And turn the adamantine spindle round,
 On which the fate of Gods and men is wound.
 Such sweet compulsion doth in music lie,
 To lull the daughters of Necessity,
 And keep unsteady Nature to her law, 70
 And the low world in measur'd motion draw
 After the heavenly tune, which none can hear
 Of human mould, with gross unpurged ear ;
 And yet such music worthiest were to blaze
 The peerless height of her immortal praise, 75

⁷³ gross] Compare Shakesp. Merchant of Venice, act v.
 sc. 1.

'There's not the smallest orb which thou behold'st,
 But in his motion like an angel sings,
 Still quiring to the young-eyed cherubims:
 Such harmony is in immortal sounds!
 But whilst this muddy vesture of decay
 Doth grossly close us in, we cannot hear it.'

'And I will purge thy mortal grossness so,' &c.

Whose lustre leads us, and for her most fit,
 If my inferior hand or voice could hit
 Inimitable sounds : yet as we go,
 Whate'er the skill of lesser Gods can show,
 I will assay, her worth to celebrate, 80
 And so attend ye toward her glittering state ;
 Where ye may all that are of noble stem
 Approach, and kiss her sacred vesture's hem.

SONG II.

O'ER the smooth enamell'd green,
 Where no print of step hath been, 85
 Follow me as I sing,
 And touch the warbled string,
 Under the shady roof
 Of branching elm star-proof.
 Follow me, 90
 I will bring you where she sits,
 Clad in splendour as befits
 Her deity.

ON THE DEATH OF A FAIR INFANT, DYING OF A COUGH.

I.

O FAIREST flower, no sooner blown but blasted,
 Soft silken primrose fading timelessly,
 Summer's chief honour, if thou hadst out-lasting
 Bleak Winter's force that made thy blossom dry ;
 For he being amorous on that lovely dye ⁵
 That did thy cheek envermeil, thought to kiss,
 But kill'd, alas, and then bewail'd his fatal bliss.

 By boisterous rape th' Athenian damsel got,
 He thought it touch'd his deity full near, ¹⁰

So mounting up in icy-pearled car, 15
 Through middle empire of the freezing air
 He wander'd long, till thee he spy'd from far ;
 There ended was his quest, there ceas'd his care.
 Down he descended from his snow-soft chair,
 But all unwares with his cold-kind embrace 20
 Unhous'd thy virgin soul from her fair biding place.

Yet art thou not inglorious in thy fate ;
 For so Apollo, with unweeting hand,

 But then transform'd him to a purple flower :
 Alack, that so to change thee Winter had no power !

ANNO ÆTATIS 19.

At a VACATION EXERCISE in the COLLEGE, part Latin, part English. The Latin speeches ended, the English thus began.

HAIL, native Language, that by sinews weak
 Didst move my first endeavouring tongue to speak,
 And mad'st imperfect words with childish trips,
 Half unpronounc'd, slide through my infant lips,
 Driving dumb silence from the portal door, 5
 Where he had mutely sat two years before :
 Here I salute thee, and thy pardon ask,
 That now I use thee in my latter task :

⁵ dumb silence] Nonni Dionys. xv. 10. ἀφωνήτω σιωπῇ.

 Cotton's Poems, p. 239. Buchanan. Sylv. p. 310, 'tacitæ per muta silentia silvæ.'

Small loss it is that thence can come unto thee,
I know my tongue but little grace can do thee : 10
Thou need'st not be ambitious to be first,
Believe me I have thither pack'd the worst ;
And if it happen as I did forecast,
The daintiest dishes shall be serv'd up last.
I pray thee then deny me not thy aid 15
For this same small neglect that I have made :
But haste thee straight to do me once a pleasure,
And from thy wardrobe bring thy chiefest treasure,
Not those new fangled toys, and trimming slight
Which takes our late fantastics with delight, 20
But cull those richest robes, and gay'st attire
Which deepest spirits, and choicest wits desire :
I have some naked thoughts that rove about,
And loudly knock to have their passage out ;
And weary of their place do only stay 25
Till thou hast deck'd them in thy best array ;
That so they may without suspect or fears
Fly swiftly to this fair assembly's ears ;
Yet I had rather, if I were to choose,
Thy service in some graver subject use, 30
Such as may make thee search thy coffers round,
Before thou clothe my fancy in fit sound :
Such where the deep transported mind may soar
Above the wheeling poles, and at Heav'n's door
Look in, and see each blissful Deity 35

³⁰ graver] An anticipation of the subject of Par. Lost, if we substitute Christian for Pagan ideas. Warton.

How he before the thunderous throne doth lie,
 List'ning to what unshorn Apollo sings
 To th' touch of golden wires, while Hebe brings
 Immortal nectar to her kingly sire : 39
 Then passing through the spheres of watchful fire,
 And misty regions of wide air next under,
 And hills of snow, and lofts of piled thunder,
 May tell at length how green-ey'd Neptune raves,
 In Heav'n's defiance mustering all his waves ;
 Then sing of secret things that came to pass 45
 When beldam Nature in her cradle was ;
 And last of kings and queens and heroes old,
 Such as the wise Demodocus once told,
 In solemn songs at king Alcinous' feast,
 While sad Ulysses' soul, and all the rest, 50
 Are held with his melodious harmony,
 In willing chains and sweet captivity.
 But fie, my wand'ring Muse, how thou dost stray !
 Expectance calls thee now another way,
 Thou know'st it must be now thy only bent 55
 To keep in compass of thy predicament :

Then quick about thy purpos'd business come,
That to the next I may resign my room.

Then ENS is represented as father of the Predicaments his ten sons, whereof the eldest stood for Substance with his canons, which ENS, thus speaking, explains.

GOOD luck befriend thee, Son ; for at thy birth
The fairy ladies danc'd upon the hearth ; 60
Thy drowsy nurse hath sworn she did them spy
Come tripping to the room where thou didst lie,
And sweetly singing round about thy bed
Strow all their blessings on thy sleeping head. 64
She heard them give thee this, that thou shouldst
From eyes of mortals walk invisible : [still
Yet there is something that doth force my fear,
For once it was my dismal hap to hear
A Sibyl old, bow-bent with crooked age
That far events full wisely could presage, 70
And in time's long and dark prospective glass
Foresaw what future days should bring to pass ;
Your son, said she (nor can you it prevent),
Shall subject be to many an accident.
O'er all his brethren he shall reign as king, 75
Yet every one shall make him underling,
And those that cannot live from him asunder
Ungratefully shall strive to keep him under,
In worth and excellence he shall out-go them,
Yet being above them, he shall be below them ; 80
From others he shall stand in need of nothing,

Yet on his brothers shall depend for clothing.
 To find a foe it shall not be his hap,
 And peace shall lull him in her flow'ry lap;
 Yet shall he live in strife, and at his door 85
 Devouring war shall never cease to roar;
 Yea it shall be his natural property
 To harbour those that are at enmity.
 What pow'r, what force, what mighty spell, if not
 Your learned hands, can loose this Gordian knot?

ON THE MORNING OF CHRIST'S NATIVITY.

I.

THIS is the month, and this the happy morn,
Wherein the Son of heav'n's eternal king,
Of wedded Maid, and Virgin Mother born,
Our great redemption from above did bring;
For so the holy sages once did sing, 5
That he our deadly forfeit should release,
And with his Father work us a perpetual peace.

II.

That glorious form, that light unsufferable,
And that far-beaming blaze of majesty,
Wherewith he wont at heav'n's high council-table
To sit the midst of Trinal Unity, 11
He laid aside; and here with us to be,
Forsook the courts of everlasting day,
And chose with us a darksome house of mortal clay.

III.

Say, heav'nly Muse, shall not thy sacred vein 15
Afford a present to the Infant God?
Hast thou no verse, no hymn, or solemn strain,
To welcome him to this his new abode,

Now while the heav'n by the sun's team untrod,
 Hath took no print of the approaching light, ²⁰
 And all the spangled host keep watch in squadrons bright?

IV.

See how from far upon the eastern road
 The star-led wisards haste with odours sweet :
 O run, prevent them with thy humble ode,
 And lay it lowly at his blessed feet ; ²⁵
 Have thou the honour first thy Lord to greet,
 And join thy voice unto the Angel quire,
 From out his secret altar touch'd with hallow'd fire.

THE HYMN.

I.

It was the winter wild,
While the heav'n-born child 30
All meanly wrapt in the rude manger lies;
Nature in awe to him
Had doft her gaudy trim,
With her great Master so to sympathize :
It was no season then for her 35
To wanton with the sun, her lusty paramour.

II.

Only with speeches fair
She woos the gentle air
To hide her guilty front with innocent snow
And on her naked shame, 40
Pollute with sinful blame,
The saintly veil of maiden white to throw,
Confounded that her Maker's eyes
Should look so near upon her foul deformities.

III.

But he her fears to cease, 45
Sent down the meek-ey'd Peace; [sliding
She, crown'd with olive green, came softly
Down through the turning sphere
His ready harbinger,
With turtle wing the amorous clouds dividing; 50

And waving wide her myrtle wand,
She strikes a universal peace through sea and land.

IV.

Nor war, or battle's sound
Was heard the world around:

The idle spear and shield were high up hung,
The hooked chariot stood 56
Unstain'd with hostile blood,

The trumpet spake not to the armed throng,
And kings sat still with awful eye,
As if they surely knew their sov'reign Lord was by.

V.

But peaceful was the night, 61
Wherein the Prince of light

His reign of peace upon the earth began:
The winds with wonder whist

Smoothly the waters kist, 65

Whisp'ring new joys to the mild ocean,

Browne, from MS. in Beloe's Anecd. vi. 68.

Beginne to roare,
Each tree, your songes beinge mist,
Shreeks as before.

Who now hath quite forgot to rave,
While birds of calm sit brooding on the charmed wave.

VI.

The stars with deep amaze
Stand fix'd in steadfast gaze, 70
 Bending one way their precious influence,
And will not take their flight,
For all the morning light,
 Or Lucifer that often warn'd them thence ;
But in their glimmering orbs did glow, 75
Until their Lord himself bespake, and bid them go.

VII.

And though the shady gloom
Had given day her room,
 The sun himself withheld his wonted speed,
And hid his head for shame, 80

Each sproutinge pauncie in the meade
For grieve begins to hang a head.

The weepinge brooke in grovelling tones glide umblinge down,
Dimples its own sleeke checks, and thanks you with a frowne.'
And Quarles's Divine Poems, p. 23. 'The winds were whist.'

Upon her to gaze:

But when he saw how broad her beames did sprede,

It did him amaze.

Hee blush't to see another sunne belowe,

Ne durst againe his fierie face outshowe.' &c. Warton.

Of Cynthia's seat, the airy region thrilling,
 Now was almost won
 To think her part was done, 105
 And that her reign had here its last fulfilling;
 She knew such harmony alone
 Could hold all heav'n and earth in happier union.

XI.

At last surrounds their sight
 A globe of circular light, 110

 Once bless our human ears,
 If ye have pow'r to touch our senses so ;
 And let your silver chime
 Move in melodious time,
 And let the base of heav'n's deep organ blow ;
 And with your ninefold harmony 131
 Make up full consort to th' angelic symphony.

XIV.

For if such holy song
 Inwrap our fancy long, 134
 Time will run back, and fetch the age of gold,
 And speckled Vanity
 Will sicken soon and die,
 And leprous Sin will melt from earthly mould ;
 And Hell itself will pass away,
 And leave her dolorous mansions to the peering

 Will down return to men,
 Orb'd in a rainbow ; and, like glories wearing,
 Mercy will sit between,

 Will open wide the gates of her high palace hall.

 Full and perfect is,
 But now begins ; for from this happy day

 And wroth to see his kingdom fail,
 Swinges the scaly horror of his folded tail.

The oracles are dumb,
 No voice or hideous hum 174
 Runs thro' the arched roof in words deceiving.

'Of wide hornd oxen trampling grass with lowings loud.'

XXV.

He feels from Juda's land
The dreaded Infant's hand,

The rays of Bethlehem blind his dusky eyn ;
Nor all the Gods beside,
Longer dare abide,

225

Not Typhon huge ending in snaky twine :
Our babe, to show his Godhead true, [crew.
Can in his swaddling bands control the damned

XXVI.

So when the sun in bed,
Curtain'd with cloudy red,

230

Pillows his chin upon an orient wave,
The flocking shadows pale
Troop to th' infernal jail,

Each fetter'd ghost slips to his several grave :
And the yellow-skirted Fayes [maze.
Fly after the night-steeds, leaving their moon-lov'd

²³¹ chin] T. Warton has not remarked the use of this word in old poetry: when it brought with it no associations of familiarity or burlesque. Chapman's Hom. II. p. 113, 'Both goddesses let fall their chins.' Odyss, p. 303, 310. 'Jove shook his sable chin.' The Ballad of Gil Morrice, 158, 'And kiss'd baith mouth and chin,' 169, 'And syne she kiss'd his bluidy cheeke, and syne his bluidy chin.' And Percy's Reliques, iii. 57, 'Our Lady bore up her chinne.'

²³² shadows] M. Bowle refers to Mids. Night Dream, act iii. sc. ult.

'And yonder shines,' &c.

XXVII.

But see the Virgin blest
 Hath laid her Babe to rest, [ing ;
 Time is our tedious song should here have end-
 Heav'n's youngest teemed star 240
 Hath fix'd her polish'd car,
 Her sleeping Lórd with handmaid lamp attend-
 And all about the courtly stable [ing ;
 Bright-harness'd Angels sit in order serviceable.

THE PASSION.

I.

EREWHILE of music, and ethereal mirth,
 Wherewith the stage of air and earth did ring,
 And joyous news of heav'nly Infant's birth,
 My Muse with Angels did divide to sing ;
 But headlong joy is ever on the wing,
 In wintry solstice like the shorten'd light
 Soon swallow'd up in dark and long out-living night.

²⁴⁴ harness'd] Exodus, xiii. 18. 'The children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.' Newton.

⁴ divide] Spens. F. Queen. iii. i. 40.

'And all the while sweet music did divide
 Her looser notes with Lydian harmony.'

Hor. Od. i. xv. 15.

'Imbelli cithara carmina divides.' Warton.

II.

For now to sorrow must I tune my song,
 And set my harp to notes of saddest woe,
 Which on our dearest Lord did seize ere long, 10
 Dangers, and snares, and wrongs, and worse than
 Which he for us did freely undergo : [so,
 Most perfect Hero, tried in heaviest plight
 Of labours huge and hard, too hard for human wight !

III.

He, sovereign priest, stooping his regal head, 15
 That dropp'd with odorous oil down his fair eyes,
 Poor fleshly tabernacle entered,
 His starry front low-roof'd beneath the skies :
 O what a mask was there, what a disguise !
 Yet more ; the stroke of death he must abide,
 Then lies him meekly down fast by his brethren's side.

IV.

These latest scenes confine my roving verse,
 To this horizon is my Phœbus bound ;
 His god-like acts, and his temptations fierce,
 And former sufferings other where are found ; 25
 Loud o'er the rest Cremona's trump doth sound ;
 Me softer airs befit, and softer strings
 Of lute, or viol still, more apt for mournful things.

²⁶ Cremona's trump] Vida's Christiad.

V.

Befriend me, Night, best patroness of grief,
Over the pole thy thickest mantle throw, 30
And work my flatter'd fancy to belief,
That Heaven and Earth are colour'd with my woe :
My sorrows are too dark for day to know :

The leaves should all be black whereon I write,
And letters where my tears have wash'd, a wannish
white. 35

VI.

See, see the chariot, and those rushing wheels,
That whirl'd the Prophet up at Chebar flood ;
My spirit some transporting Cherub feels,
To bear me where the tow'rs of Salem stood,
Once glorious tow'rs, now sunk in guiltless blood :

There doth my soul in holy vision sit
In pensive trance, and anguish, and ecstatic fit.

VII.

Mine eye hath found that sad sepulchral rock
That was the casket of Heav'n's richest store,
And here though grief my feeble hands up lock,
Yet on the soften'd quarry would I score 46
My plaining verse as lively as before ;

³⁰ Over] So P. L. iv. 609.

'And o'er the dark her silver mantle throw.' Steevens.

For sure so well instructed are my tears,
That they would fitly fall in order'd characters.

VIII.

Or should I thence hurried on viewless wing, 50
Take up a weeping on the mountains wild,
The gentle neighbourhood of grove and spring
Would soon unbosom all their echoes mild,
And I (for grief is easily beguild)
Might think th' infection of my sorrows loud
Had got a race of mourners on some pregnant cloud.

This subject the Author finding to be above the years he had, when he wrote it, and nothing satisfied with what was begun, left it unfinished.

ON TIME.*

FLY, envious Time, till thou run out thy race,
Call on the lazy leaden-stepping hours,
Whose speed is but the heavy plummet's pace ;
And glut thyself with what thy womb devours,
Which is no more than what is false and vain, 5

* In Milton's MS. written with his own hand;—' On Time.
To be set on a clock-case.' , Warton.

⁵¹ a weeping] Jeremiah, ix. 10. 'For the mountains will
I take up a weeping,' &c. Warton.

² leaden-stepping hours] Carew's Poems, p. 78, ed. 1642.

'They [the hours] move with leaden feet.' A. Dyce.

And merely mortal dross ;
 So little is our loss,
 So little is thy gain.
 For when as each thing bad thou hast intomb'd,
 And last of all thy greedy self consum'd, 10
 Then long Eternity shall greet our bliss
 With an individual kiss ;
 And Joy shall overtake us as a flood,
 When every thing that is sincerely good
 And perfectly divine, 15
 With truth, and peace, and love, shall ever shine
 About the supreme throne
 Of him, t' whose happy-making sight alone
 When once our heav'nly-guided soul shall clime,
 Then all this earthly grossness quit, 20
 Attir'd with stars, we shall for ever sit,
 Triumphant over Death, and Chance, and thee,
 O Time.

UPON THE CIRCUMCISION.

YE flaming Pow'rs, and winged Warriors bright,
 That erst with music, and triumphant song,
 First heard by happy watchful shepherds' ear,
 So sweetly sung your joy the clouds along

¹² individual] Inseparable. P. L. iv. 485. v. 610.

Warton.

Through the soft silence of the list'ning night ; 5
Now mourn, and if sad share with us to bear
Your fiery essence can distil no tear,
Burn in your sighs, and borrow
Seas wept from our deep sorrow :
He who with all heav'n's heraldry whilere 10
Enter'd the world, now bleeds to give us ease ;
Alas, how soon our sin
Sore doth begin
His infancy to seize !
O more exceeding love, or law more just ! 15
Just law indeed, but more exceeding love !
For we by rightful doom remediless
Were lost in death, till he that dwelt above
High thron'd in secret bliss, for us frail dust
Emptied his glory, ev'n to nakedness ; 20
And that great covenant which we still transgress
Entirely satisfied,
And the full wrath beside
Of vengeful justice bore for our excess,
And seals obedience first, with wounding smart,
This day, but O ere long, 25
Huge pangs and strong
Will pierce more near his heart.

¹⁷ remediless] P. Lost, ix. 919. Sams. Agon. v. 648. 'all remediless.' Warton, Todd.

AT A SOLEMN MUSIC.*

BLEST pair of Sirens, pledges of heav'n's joy,
 Sphere-born harmonious sisters, Voice and Verse,
 Wed your divine sounds, and mix'd pow'r employ
 Dead things with inbreath'd sense able to pierce;
 And to our high-rai'd phantasy present 5
 That undisturbed song of pure concent,
 Aye sung before the sapphire-colour'd throne
 To him that sits thereon,
 With saintly shout, and solemn jubilee,
 Where the bright Seraphim in burning row 10
 Their loud up-lifted angel-trumpets blow,
 And the cherubic host in thousand quires
 Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
 With those just Spirits that wear victorious palms,
 Hymns devout and holy psalms 15
 Singing everlastingly:
 That we on earth with undiscording voice
 May rightly answer that melodious noise;
 As once we did, till disproportion'd sin

* There are three copies of this ode, all in Milton's own hand writing.

⁶ concent] So the Cant. MS. not 'consent.' Ed. 1645, 'content;' 1673, 'concent.' Warton.

¹² 'And Cherubim sweet winged Squires.' So Cant. MS. Todd.

Jarr'd against nature's chime, and with harsh din
 Broke the fair music that all creatures made 21
 To their great Lord, whose love their motion sway'd
 In perfect diapason, whilst they stood
 In first obedience, and their state of good.
 O may we soon again renew that song, 25
 And keep in tune with Heav'n, till God ere long
 To his celestial consort us unite,
 To live with him, and sing in endless morn of light.

AN EPITAPH ON THE MARCHIONESS OF WINCHESTER.

THIS rich marble doth inter
 The honour'd wife of Winchester,
 A Viscount's daughter, an Earl's heir,
 Besides what her virtues fair
 Added to her noble birth, 5
 More than she could own from earth.
 Summers three times eight save one
 She had told; alas! too soon,
 After so short time of breath,
 To house with darkness, and with death. 10
 Yet had the number of her days
 Been as complete as was her praise,
 Nature and Fate had had no strife
 In giving limit to her life.

²⁰ nature's chime] Jouson's Epithal. vol. vii. 2.

'To do their offices in nature's chime.' Warton.

Her high birth, and her graces sweet 15
 Quickly found a lover meet ;
 The virgin quire for her request
 The God that sits at marriage feast ;
 He at their invoking came,
 But with a scarce well-lighted flame ; 20
 And in his garland as he stood,
 Ye might discern a cyprus bud.
 Once had the early matrons run
 To greet her of a lovely son,
 And now with second hope she goes, 25
 And calls Lucina to her throes ;
 But whether by mischance or blame
 Atropos for Lucina came ;
 And with remorseless cruelty
 Spoil'd at once both fruit and tree : 30
 The hapless babe before his birth
 Had burial, yet not laid in earth,
 And the languish'd mother's womb
 Was not long a living tomb.
 So have I seen some tender slip, 35
 Sav'd with care from winter's nip,
 The pride of her carnation train,

¹⁹ He] See Ov. Metam. x. 4.

'Adfuit ille quidem: sed nec solennia verba,
 Nec lætos vultus, nec felix attalit omen:
 Fax quoque, quam tenuit, lacrymoso stridula fumo,
 Usque fuit, nullosque invenit motibus ignes.' Jortin.

²³ womb] Browne's Brit. Past. b. ii. s. 1. ed. 1616.

'Where never plowshare ript his mother's wombe
 To give an aged seede a living tombe.' Todd.

Pluck'd up by some unheedy swain,
 Who only thought to crop the flow'r
 New shot up from vernal show'r; 40
 But the fair blossom hangs the head
 Side-ways, as on a dying bed,
 And those pearls of dew she wears
 Prove to be presaging tears,
 Which the sad morn had let fall 45
 On her hastening funeral.
 Gentle Lady, may thy grave
 Peace and quiet ever have;
 After this thy travail sore
 Sweet rest seize thee evermore, 50
 That to give the world increase,
 Shorten'd hast thy own life's lease.
 Here, besides the sorrowing
 That thy noble house doth bring,
 Here be tears of perfect moan 55
 Wept for thee in Helicon,
 And some flowers, and some bays,
 For thy hearse, to strew the ways,
 Sent thee from the banks of Came,
 Devoted to thy virtuous name; 60
 Whilst thou, bright Saint, high sitt'st in glory,
 Next her, much like to thee in story,
 That fair Syrian shepherdess,
 Who, after years of barrenness,

47 Lady] Cymbeline, act iv. sc. 2.

'Quiet consummation have,
 And renowned be thy grave!' Warton.

The highly favour'd Joseph bore 65
 To him that serv'd for her before,
 And at her next birth much like thee
 Through pangs fled to felicity,
 Far within the bosom bright
 Of blazing Majesty and Light : 70
 There with thee, new welcome Saint,
 Like fortunes may her soul acquaint,
 With thee there clad in radiant sheen,
 No Marchioness, but now a Queen.

SONG. ON MAY MORNING.

Now the bright morning star, day's harbinger,
 Comes dancing from the east, and leads with her
 The flow'ry May, who from her green lap throws
 The yellow cowslip, and the pale primrose.
 Hail, bounteous May, that dost inspire 5
 Mirth, and youth, and warm desire ;

 Of greatest heaven gan to open faire;
 And Phœbus fresh as bridgroome to his mate,
 Came dancing forth, shaking his dewy hair.'

Woods and groves are of thy dressing,
 Hill and dale doth boast thy blessing.
 Thus we salute thee with our early song,
 And welcome thee, and wish thee long. 10

AN EPITAPH ON THE ADMIRABLE DRAMATIC POET W. SHAKESPEARE.*

WHAT needs my Shakespeare for his honour'd
 bones,
 The labour of an age in piled stones?
 Or that his hallow'd reliques should be hid
 Under a star-y-pointing pyramid?
 Dear son of memory, great heir of fame, 5
 What need'st thou such weak witness of thy name?
 Thou in our wonder and astonishment
 Hast built thyself a live-long monument.
 For whilst to th' shame of slow-endeavouring art
 Thy easy numbers flow, and that each heart 10
 Hath from the leaves of thy unvalued book

¹⁰ welcome] Chaucer's Knight's Tale, ver. 1511.

'O Maye! with all thy floures and thy grene,
 Right welcome be thou, fair freshe May.' Todd.

* These lines were prefixed to the folio ed. of Shakespeare's Plays in 1632, but without Milton's name or initials. It is, therefore, the first of his pieces that was published. Warton.

¹¹ unvalued] Invaluable. Rich. III. act i. sc. 4.

'Inestimable stones, unvalued jewels.' Todd.

Those Delphic lines with deep impression took,
 Then thou our fancy of itself bereaving,
 Dost make us marble with too much conceiving ;
 And so sepulchred in such pomp dost lie, ¹⁵
 That kings for such a tomb would wish to die.

ON THE UNIVERSITY CARRIER,

Who sickened in the time of his vacancy, being forbid to go to London, by reason of the Plague.

HERE lies old Hobson ; Death hath broke his girt,
 And here, alas, hath laid him in the dirt ;
 Or else the ways being foul, twenty to one,
 He's here stuck in a slough, and overthrown.
 'Twas such a shifter, that if truth were known, ⁵
 Death was half glad when he had got him down ;
 For he had any time this ten years full,

¹⁵ sepulcher'd] So accented in Shakesp. Rape of Lucrece.

' May likewise be sepulcher'd in thy shade.'

Malone.

¹ Hobson] Seven Champions of Christendom, p. 50. 'Is Hobson there, or Dawson, or Tom Long?' Ellis Lett. on Engl. History, 1st. Ser. iii. 207. 'Our Hobson and the rest should have been forbidden.' Taylor's (W. Poet.) Works, fol. part ii. p. 188. 'Oh! quoth hee, I could have gone thither with my neighbour Hobson on foot, like a foole as I was, and I might have rid backe upon my neighbour Jobson's mare, like an asse as I am.'

Dodg'd with him betwixt Cambridge and the Bull.
And surely death could never have prevail'd,
Had not his weekly course of carriage fail'd ; 10
But lately finding him so long at home,
And thinking now his journey's end was come,
And that he had ta'en up his latest inn,
In the kind office of a chamberlin
Show'd him his room where he must lodge that night,
Pull'd off his boots, and took away the light :
If any ask for him, it shall be said,
Hobson has supp'd, and's newly gone to bed.

ANOTHER ON THE SAME.

HERE lieth one, who did most truly prove
That he could never die while he could move ;
So hung his destiny, never to rot
While he might still jog on and keep his trot,
Made of sphere-metal never to decay
Until his revolution was at stay.
Time numbers motion, yet (without a crime
'Gainst old truth) motion number'd out his time :
And like an engine mov'd with wheel and weight,
His principles being ceas'd, he ended straight. 10
Rest that gives all men life, gave him his death,
And too much breathing put him out of breath ;
Nor were it contradiction to affirm

Too long vacation hasten'd on his term.
Merely to drive the time away he sicken'd, 15
Fainted, and died, nor would with ale be quicken'd;
Nay, quoth he, on his swooning bed out-stretch'd,
If I mayn't carry, sure I'll ne'er be fetch'd,
But vow, though the cross doctors all stood hearers,
For one carrier put down to make six bearers. 20
Ease was his chief disease, and to judge right,
He died for heaviness, that his cart went light:
His leisure told him that his time was come,
And lack of load made his life burdensome,
That even to his last breath (there be that say't)
As he were press'd to death, he cried more weight;
But had his doings lasted as they were,
He had been an immortal carrier.
Obedient to the moon he spent his date
In course reciprocal, and had his fate 30
Link'd to the mutual flowing of the seas,
Yet (strange to think) his wain was his increase:
His letters are deliver'd all and gone,
Only remains this superscription.

THE FIFTH ODE OF HORACE, LIB. I.

WHAT slender youth bedew'd with liquid odours
Courts thee on roses in some pleasant cave,
Pyrrha? For whom bind'st thou
In wreaths thy golden hair,

Plain in thy neatness ? O how oft shall he 5
On faith and changed Gods complain, and seas
 Rough with black winds, and storms
 Unwonted shall admire !
Who now enjoys thee credulous, all gold,
Who always vacant, always amiable 10
 Hopes thee, of flattering gales
 Unmindful. Hapless they
T' whom thou untry'd seem'st fair. Me, in my vow'd
Picture, the sacred wall declares t' have hung
 My dank and dropping weeds 15
 To the stern God of sea.

GEOFFREY OF MONMOUTH.

BRUTUS thus addresses DIANA in the country of LEOGECIA.

GODDESS of shades, and huntress, who at will
Walk'st on the rowling spheres, and thro' the deep ;
On thy third reign the earth look now, and tell
What land, what seat of rest, thou bidd'st me seek,
What certain seat, where I may worship thee 5
For aye, with temples vow'd, and virgin quires.

² rowling spheres] Tickell and Fenton read 'lowring spheres.'

To whom, sleeping before the altar, DIANA answers in a vision the same night.

BRUTUS, far to the west, in th' ocean wide,
Beyond the realm of Gaul, a land there lies,
Sea-girt it lies, where giants dwelt of old,
Now void, it fits thy people : thither bend
Thy course, there shalt thou find a lasting seat ;
There to thy sons another Troy shall rise,
And kings be born of thee, whose dreadful might
Shall awe the world, and conquer nations boid.

DANTE.

AH Constantine, of how much ill was cause,
Not thy conversion, but those rich domains
That the first wealthy pope receiv'd of thee.

DANTE.

FOUNDED in chaste and humble poverty,
Gainst them that rais'd thee dost thou lift thy horn,
Impudent whore, where hast thou plac'd thy hope ?
In thy adulterers, or thy ill-got wealth ?
Another Constantine comes not in haste.

ARIOSTO.

THEN past he to a flow'ry mountain green,
Which once smelt sweet, now stinks as odiously :

This was the gift, if you the truth will have,
That Constantine to good Sylvester gave.

HORACE.

WHOM do we count a good man? Whom but he
Who keeps the laws and statutes of the senate,
Who judges in great suits and controversies,
Whose witness and opinion wins the cause?
But his own house and the whole neighbourhood,
Sees his foul inside through his whited skin.

HORACE.

THE power that did create can change the scene
Of things, make mean of great, and great of mean:
The brightest glory can eclipse with might,
And place the most obscure in dazzling light.

HORACE.

ALL barbarous people and their princes too,
All purple tyrants honour you,
The very wandering Scythians do.
Support the pillar of the Roman state,
Lest all men be involv'd in one man's fate,
Continue us in wealth and state,
Let wars and tumults ever cease.

CATULLUS.

THE worst of poets I myself declare,
By how much you the best of poets are.

OVID.

ABSTAIN, as manhood you esteem,
From Salmacis' pernicious stream;
If but one moment there you stay,
Too dear you'll for your bathing pay.—
Depart nor man, nor woman, but a sight
Disgracing both, a loath'd Hermaphrodite.

EURIPIDES.

THIS is true liberty, when freeborn men
Having t' advise the public may speak free;
Which he who can, and will, deserves high praise:
Who neither can nor will, may hold his peace,
What can be juster in a state than this?

VIRGIL.

No eastern nation ever did adore
The majesty of sovereign princes more.

VIRGIL.

AND Britons interwove held the purple hangings.

HORACE.

——— LAUGHING, to teach the truth,
What hinders? As some teachers give to boys
Junkets and knacks, that they may learn apace.

HORACE.

——— JOKING decides great things.
Stronger and better oft than earnest can.

SOPHOCLES.

Tis you that say it, not I. You do the deeds,
And your ungodly deeds find me the words.

SENECA.

——— THERE can be slain
No sacrifice to God more acceptable,
Than an unjust and wicked king.

TERENCE.

IN silence now and with attention wait,
That ye may know what th' Eunuch has to prate.

HOMER.

GLAUCUS, in Lycia we're ador'd as gods,
What makes 'twixt us and others so great odds?

EPIGRAM ON SALMASIUS'S HUNDREDA.

WHO taught Salmasius, that French chattering
 To aim at English, and HUNDREDA cry? [pye
 The starving rascal, flush'd with just a hundred
 English Jacobusses, HUNDREDA blunder'd:
 An outlaw'd king's last stock. A hundred more
 Would make him pimp for th' antichristian whore;
 And in Rome's praise employ his poison'd breath,
 Who threaten'd once to stink the pope to death.

ON THE NEW FORCERS OF CONSCIENCE
 UNDER THE LONG PARLIAMENT.

BECAUSE you have thrown off your Prelate Lord,
 And with stiff vows renounced his Liturgy,
 To seize the widow'd whore Plurality
 From them whose sin ye envied, not abhorr'd,
 Dare ye for this adjure the civil sword 5
 To force our consciences that Christ set free,
 And ride us with a classic hierarchy

* The note of Warton on this sonnet appears to me to be extremely unjust and severe. Milton denoted his indignation against the Presbyterians because they had deserted their own principles, continued many of the supposed abuses, and usurped much of the power of the church which they had overthrown: in fact, the new Presbyter was more tyrannical than the old priest.

Taught ye by mere A. S. and Rotherford?
 Men whose life, learning, faith, and pure intent
 Would have been held in high esteem with Paul,
 Must now be nam'd and printed Heretics
 By shallow Edwards and Scotch what d'ye call:
 But we do hope to find out all your tricks,
 Your plots and packing worse than those of Trent,
 That so the Parliament 15
 May with their wholesome and preventive shears
 Clip your phylacteries, though bauk your ears,
 And succour our just fears,
 When they shall read this clearly in your charge,
 New Presbyter is but old Priest writ large. 20

⁸ A. S.] A polemical writer of the times, named 'Adam Steuart.' See the notes of Warton and Todd. Rotherford was one of the Chief Commissioners of the Church of Scotland; also sat with the Assembly at Westminster. He was Professor of Divinity in the University of St. Andrew's; wrote many Calvinistic tracts; and was an avowed enemy of the Independents. T. Edwards had attacked Milton's Plan of Independency in his Antapologia, 1644. On Rotherford. See Heber's Life of I. Taylor, ii. 203.

¹⁷ Clip] In the MS. the lines stand thus:

Crop ye as close as marginal P——'s ears;—that is,
 Prynn's. Warton.

¹⁷ bauk] i. e. spare. Warton.

SONNETS.

I. TO THE NIGHTINGALE.

O NIGHTINGALE, that on yon bloomy spray
Warblest at eve, when all the woods are still,
Thou with fresh hope the lover's heart dost fill,
While the jolly hours lead on propitious May.
Thy liquid notes that close the eye of day, 5
First heard before the shallow cuckoo's bill,
Portend success in love; O if Jove's will
Have link'd that amorous power to thy soft lay,
Now timely sing, ere the rude bird of hate
Foretell my hopeless doom in some grove nigh;
As thou from year to year hast sung too late
For my relief, yet hadst no reason why:
Whether the Muse, or Love call thee his mate,
Both them I serve, and of their train am I.

II.

DONNA leggiadra il cui bel nome honora
L'herbosa val di Rheno, e il nobil varco,
Bene è colui d'ogni valore scarco
Qual tuo spirto gentil non innamora,
Che dolcemente mostra sì di fuori 5

⁵ close] Crashawe's Poems, the Weeper, st. xxiii. 'Does day close his eyes?' Todd.

De' sui atti soavi giamai parco,
 E i don', che son d'amor saette ed arco,
 La onde l' alta tua virtù s'infiora.
 Quando tu vaga parli, o lieta canti
 Che mover possa duro alpestre legno 10
 Guardi ciascun a gli occhi, ed a gli orecchi
 L'entrata, chi di te si truova indegno;
 Gratia sola di su gli vaglia, innanti
 Che'l disio amoroso al cuor s'invecchi.

III.

QUAL in colle aspro, al imbrunir di sera,
 L'avezza giovinetta pastorella
 Va bagnando l'herbetta strana e bella
 Che mal si spande a disusata spera
 Fuor di sua natia alma primavera, 5
 Così Amor meco insù la lingua snella
 Desta il fior novo di strania favella,
 Mentre io di te, vezzosamente altera,
 Canto, dal mio buon popol non inteso
 E'l bel Tamigi cangio col bel Arno. 10
 Amor lo volse, ed io a l'altrui peso
 Seppi ch'Amor cosa mai volse indarno.
 Deh! foss' il mio cuor lento e'l duro seno
 A chi pianta dal ciel si buon terreno.

CANZONE.

RIDONSI donne e giovani amorosi
 M' accostandosi attorno, e perche scrivi,
 Perche tu scrivi in lingua ignota e strana
 Verseggiando d' amor, e come t'osi?
 Dinne, se la tua speme sia mai vana, 5
 E de' pensieri lo miglior t'arrivi;
 Così mi van burlando, altri rivi
 Altri lidi t'aspettan, ed altre onde
 Nelle cui verdi sponde
 Spuntati ad hor, ad hor a la tua chioma 10
 L'immortal guiderdon d' eterne frondi
 Perche alle spalle tue soverchia soma?
 Canzon dirotti, e tu per me rispondi
 Dice mia Donna, e'l suo dir, e il mio cuore
 Questa é lingua di cui si vanta Amore. 15

IV.

DIODATI, e te'l dirò con maraviglia,
 Quel ritroso io ch'amor spreggiar soléa
 E de suoi lacci spesso mi ridéa
 Già caddi, ov'huom dabben talhor s'impiglia.
 Ne trecce d'oro, ne guancia vermiglia 5
 M'abbaglian sì, ma sotto nova idea
 Pellegrina bellezza che'l cuor bea,

⁴ vermiglia] Tasso Aminta, act i. sc. 2, 'A le guancie vermiglie, come rosa;' and Comus, 752, 'vermeil-tinctured lip.'
Warton.

Portamenti alti honesti, e nelle ciglia
 Quel sereno fulgor d'amabil nero,
 Parole adorne di lingua piu d'una, 10
 E'l cantar che di mezzo l'hemispero
 Traviar ben può la faticosa Luna,
 E degli occhi suoi auventa si gran fuoco
 Che l'incerar gli orecchi mi fia poco.

V.

PER certo i bei vostr' occhi, Donna mia,
 Esser non può che non sian lo mio sole
 Si mi percuoton forte, come ei suole
 Per l'arene di Libia chi s'invia,
 Mentre un caldo vapor (ne senti pria) 5
 Da quel lato si spinge ove mi duole,
 Che forse amanti nelle lor parole
 Chiaman sospir; io non so che si sia:
 Parte rinchiusa, e turbida si cela
 Scozzo mi il petto, e poi n'uscendo poco 10
 Quiui d' attorno o s'agghiaccia, o s'ingiela;
 Ma quanto a gli occhi giunge a trovar loco
 Tutte le notti a me suol far pioverse
 Finche mia Alba rivien colma di rose.

VI.

GIOVANE piano, e simplicetto amante
 Poi che fuggir me stesso in dubbio sono,

⁸ Portamenti] Petrarch. Son. 229.

'Ohime, il portamento leggiadro altiero.' Warton.

⁸ percuoton] See Warton's note, and Par. Lost, iv. 244.

Madonna a voi del mio cuor l'humil dono
 Farò divoto ; io certo a prove tante
 L'hebbi fedele, intrepido, costante, 5
 De' pensieri leggiadro, accorto, e buono ;
 Quando rugge il gran mondo, e scocca il tuono,
 S'arma di se, e d' intero diamante,
 Tanto del forse, e d' invidia sicuro,
 Di timori, e speranze al popol use 10
 Quanto d'ingegno, e d'alto valor vago,
 E di cetra sonora, e delle muse :
 Sol troverete in tal parte men duro
 Ove Amor mise l'insanabil ago.

VII. ON HIS BEING ARRIVED TO THE AGE OF TWENTY-THREE.

How soon hath Time, the subtle thief of youth,
 Stol'n on his wing my three and twentieth year !
 My hasting days fly on with full career,
 But my late spring no bud or blossom show'th.
 Perhaps my semblance might deceive the truth, 5
 That I to manhood am arriv'd so near,
 And inward ripeness doth much less appear,
 That some more timely-happy spirits indu'th.
 Yet be it less or more, or soon or slow,
 It shall be still in strictest measure even 10
 To that same lot, however mean or high,
 Toward which Time leads me, and the will of
 All is, if I have grace to use it so, [Heaven :
 As ever in my great task-master's eye.

VIII. WHEN THE ASSAULT WAS INTENDED TO THE CITY.

CAPTAIN or Colonel, or Knight in arms,
 Whose chance on these defenceless doors may
 If deed of honour did thee ever please, [seize,
 Guard them, and him within protect from harms.
 He can requite thee, for he knows the charms ⁵
 That call fame on such gentle acts as these,
 And he can spread thy name o'er lands and seas,
 Whatever clime the sun's bright circle warms.
 Lift not thy spear against the Muses' bow'r:
 The great Emathian conqueror bid spare ¹⁰
 The house of Pindarus, when temple and tow'r
 Went to the ground: and the repeated air
 Of sad Electra's poet had the pow'r
 To save the Athenian walls from ruin bare.

IX. TO A VIRTUOUS YOUNG LADY.

LADY, that in the prime of earliest youth
 Wisely hast shunn'd the broad way and the green,

¹ Knight] K. Richard II. act i. sc. 3, 'ask yonder knight in arms.' Warton.

⁵ requite] Beaumont's Psyche, xvii. 108, 'Who will requite thy lays.' Dante Il Inferno, c. xxxi. ver. 127. 'Ancor ti può nel mondo render fama.'

¹¹ temple] P. Reg. iii. 268.

'Forest, and field, and flood, temples, and towers.'

Warton.

And with those few art eminently seen,
 That labour up the hill of heavenly truth,
 The better part with Mary and with Ruth 5
 Chosen thou hast; and they that overween,
 And at thy growing virtues fret their spleen,
 No anger find in thee, but pity and ruth.
 Thy care is fix'd, and zealously attends
 To fill thy odorous lamp with deeds of light, 10
 And hope that reaps not shame. Therefore be sure,
 Thou, when the bridegroom with his feastful friends
 Passes to bliss at the mid hour of night,
 Hast gain'd thy entrance, Virgin wise and pure.

X. TO THE LADY MARGARET LEY.

DAUGHTER to that good Earl, once President
 Of England's Council, and her Treasury,
 Who liv'd in both, unstain'd with gold or fee,
 And left them both, more in himself content,
 Till sad the breaking of that Parliament 5
 Broke him, as that dishonest victory
 At Chæroneæ, fatal to liberty,

⁵ with] In ed. 1645, 'and the Ruth.' Todd.

⁸ pity] Spenser's F. Q. i. vi. 12, 'And won with pity, and unwonted ruth.' Todd. Marlowe and Nash's Dido, p. 40, ed. 1825, 'ruth and compassion,' and G. Peele's Works, by Dyce, vol. i. p. 112, 178, ed. 1829.

¹¹ hope] 'Ελπίς ὃν κατασχύνει. Rom. v. 5. Hurd.

¹ Earl] Earl of Marlborough, Lord High Treasurer, and Lord President of the Council to King James I. Parliament was dissolved the 10th of March, 1628-29; he died on the 14th. Newton.

Kill'd with report that old man eloquent.
 Though later born than to have known the days
 Wherein your father flourish'd, yet by you, ¹⁰
 Madam, methinks I see him living yet;
 So well your words his noble virtues praise,
 That all both judge you to relate them true,
 And to possess them, honour'd Margaret.

XI. ON THE DETRACTION WHICH FOLLOWED
 UPON MY WRITING CERTAIN TREATISES.*

A BOOK was writ of late call'd Tetrachordon,
 And woven close, both matter, form, and style;
 The subject new: it walk'd the town a while,
 Numb'ring good intellects; now seldom por'd on.
 Cries the stall-reader, Bless us! what a word on ⁵
 A title-page is this! and some in file
 Stand spelling false, while one might walk to Mile-
 End Green. Why is it harder, Sirs, than Gordon,
 Colkitto, or Macdonnel, or Galasp?
 Those rugged names to our like mouths grow
 sleek, ¹⁰

* This is the Sonnet which Dr. Johnson selected in his Dictionary, as a specimen of this species of Verse in English.
Todd.

⁹ Colkitto] Colkitto and Macdonnel are one and the same person, an officer on the royal side, an Irishman of the Antrim family, who served under Montrose. The Macdonalds of that family are styled, by way of distinction, Mac Colcittok, i. e. descendants of lame Colin. Galasp is George Gillespie, a Scottish writer against the Independents. Warton.

That would have made Quintilian stare and gasp.
Thy age, like ours, O Soul of Sir John Cheek,
Hated not learning worse than toad or asp,
When thou taught'st Cambridge, and king Edward Greek.

XII. ON THE SAME.

I DID but prompt the age to quit their clogs
By the known rules of ancient liberty,
When straight a barbarous noise environs me
Of owls and cuckoos, asses, apes, and dogs :
As when those hinds that were transform'd to frogs
Rail'd at Latona's twin-born progeny,
Which after held the sun and moon in fee.
But this is got by casting pearl to hogs ;
That bawl for freedom in their senseless mood,
And still revolt when truth would set them free.
License they mean when they cry Liberty ;
For who loves that, must first be wise and good ;
But from that mark how far they rove we see,
For all this waste of wealth, and loss of blood.

XIII. TO MR. H. LAWES ON THE PUBLISHING
HIS AIRS.

HARRY, whose tuneful and well measur'd song
First taught our English music how to span
Words with just note and accent, not to scan

With Midas' ears, committing short and long ;
 Thy worth and skill exempts thee from the throng,
 With praise enough for envy to look wan ; 6
 To after age thou shalt be writ the man,
 That with smooth air couldst humour best our tongue.

Thou honour'st verse, and verse must lend her wing
 To honour thee, the priest of Phœbus' quire, 10
 That tun'st their happiest lines in hymn, or story.
 Dante shall give fame leave to set thee higher
 Than his Casella, whom he woo'd to sing
 Met in the milder shades of Purgatory.

XIV. ON THE RELIGIOUS MEMORY OF
 MRS. CATHERINE THOMSON,

MY CHRISTIAN FRIEND, DECEASED 16TH DEC. 1646.

WHEN faith and love, which parted from thee never,
 Had ripen'd thy just soul to dwell with God,
 Meekly thou didst resign this earthly load
 Of death, call'd life ; which us from life doth sever.
 Thy works, and alms, and all thy good endeavour,

⁵ exempts] Hor. Od. i. i. 32, 'Secernunt populo.'

Richardson.

¹ writ] Hor. Od. i. vi. 1, 'Scriberis Vario fortis,' &c.

Newton.

⁹ honour'st] So Browne's Brit. Past. B. ii. s. 11, of Lord Brooke,

'—— Time shall see

Thee honor'd by thy verse, and it by thee.' Todd.

Stay'd not behind, nor in the grave were trod;
 But, as Faith pointed with her golden rod, 7
 Followed thee up to joy and bliss for ever.
 Love led them on, and Faith, who knew them best
 Thy handmaids, clad them o'er with purple beams
 And azure wings, that up they flew so drest,
 And spake the truth of thee on glorious themes
 Before the Judge, who thenceforth bid thee rest
 And drink thy fill of pure immortal streams.

XV. TO THE LORD GENERAL FAIRFAX.*

FAIRFAX, whose name in arms through Europe rings,
 Filling each mouth with envy or with praise,
 And all her jealous monarchs with amaze
 And rumours loud, that daunt remotest kings,
 Thy firm unshaken virtue ever brings
 Victory home, though new rebellions raise

⁶ Stay'd Orig. line in MS.

'Straight follow'd thee the path that saints have trod.'

Warton.

¹⁴ drink] Epitaph. Damonis. 206. 'Æthereos haurit lactices.' Warton.

* This Sonnet, as appears from Milton's MS. was addressed to Fairfax at the siege of Colchester, 1648. It was first printed, together with the two following sonnets, and the two to Cyriac Skinner, at the end of Philip's Life of Milton, 1694. Warton.

² Filling] So the MS.: before, it was 'And fills each mouth.'

Todd.

⁵ virtue] So the MS.: before, 'valour.' In the next line
 'though' is admitted from the MS. instead of 'while.' Todd.

Their Hydra heads, and the false North displays
 Her broken league to imp their serpent wings.
 O yet a nobler task awaits thy hand, ⁹
 (For what can war, but endless war still breed?)
 Till truth and right from violence be freed,
 And public faith clear'd from the shameful brand
 Of public fraud. In vain doth valour bleed,
 While avarice and rapine share the land.

XVI. TO THE LORD GENERAL CROMWELL.*

CROMWELL, our chief of men, who through a cloud
 Not of war only, but detractions rude,
 Guided by faith and matchless fortitude,
 To peace and truth thy glorious way hast
 plough'd,
 And on the neck of crowned fortune proud ⁵

⁸ their] So the MS.: before 'her.' Todd.

¹⁰ This and the following lines were thus in the printed copies:

'For what can war, but acts of war still breed,
 Till injured truth from violence be freed,
 And public faith be rescued from the brand.' Newton.

* See Hollis's Memoirs, p. 511.

¹ who, &c.] In the printed copy thus:

——— that through a crowd

Not of war only, but distractions rude.

But a 'cloud of war' is a classical expression. Virg. Æn. x. 809. 'Nubem belli.' Newton.

⁵ This and the following line were contracted in the printed copies of Phillips, Toland, Tonson, Tickell, and Fenton, into
 'And fought God's battles, and his works pursued.'

Warton.

Hast rear'd God's trophies, and his work pursued,
 While Darwen stream with blood of Scots im-
 brued,
 And Dunbar field resounds thy praises loud,
 And Worcester's laureat wreath. Yet much remains
 To conquer still; peace hath her victories 10
 No less renown'd than war: new foes arise
 Threatening to bind our souls with secular chains:
 Help us to save free conscience from the paw
 Of hireling wolves, whose gospel is their maw.

XVII. TO SIR HENRY VANE THE YOUNGER.*

VANE, young in years, but in sage counsel old,
 Than whom a better senator ne'er held
 The helm of Rome, when gowns not arms re-
 The fierce Epirot and the African bold, [pell'd

⁷ Darwen] In the printed copies 'Darwent.' Newton.

⁹ And Worcester's laureat wreath.] This expression, though beautiful, is inaccurate; for a 'laureat wreath' cannot, with propriety, be said to resound his praises loud; but the inaccuracy arose from the alteration. The hemistich originally stood, 'And twenty battles more,' which was flat enough.

¹⁰ peace, &c.] In the printed copies, before Newton's edition, 'peace has her victories, no less than those of war;' and afterwards, 'in secular chains.' Todd. Compare Milton's Second Defence, vol. ii. p. 442; and Cas. Sarb. Carm. p. 323, ed. Barbou.

* This Sonnet seems to have been written in behalf of the Independents against the Presbyterian hierarchy. Vane was beheaded in 1662. Warton.

Whether to settle peace, or to unfold 5
 The drift of hollow states hard to be spell'd,
 Then to advise how war may best upheld
 Move by her two main nerves, iron and gold,
 In all her equipage : besides to know
 Both spiritual pow'r and civil, what each means,
 What severs each, thou hast learn'd, which few have done : 11
 The bounds of either sword to thee we owe :
 Therefore on thy firm hand Religion leans
 In peace, and reckons thee her eldest son.

XVIII. ON THE LATE MASSACRE IN PIEMONTE.

AVENGE, O Lord, thy slaughter'd saints, whose bones
 Lie scatter'd on the Alpine mountains cold ;
 Ev'n them who kept thy truth so pure of old,
 When all our fathers worshipp'd stocks and stones,
 Forget not : in thy book record their groans 5
 Who were thy sheep, and in their ancient fold

⁷ Then, &c.] In the printed copies,
 'Then to advise how war may be best upheld
Mann'd by her two main nerves,' &c. Newton.

¹¹ severs] 'Serves.' Printed edition. Newton.

¹³ Therefore, &c.] In the printed copies:

'Therefore on thy right hand Religion leans,
 And reckons thee in chief her eldest son.' Newton.

² Alpine] Fairfax's Tasso, B. xiii. s. 60.

'Distill'd from tops of Alpine mountains cold.' Warton.

Slain by the bloody Piemontese that roll'd
 Mother with infant down the rocks. Their moans
 The vales redoubled to the hills, and they 9
 To Heav'n. Their martyr'd blood and ashes sow
 O'er all th' Italian fields, where still doth sway
 The triple tyrant ; that from these may grow
 A hundred fold, who having learn'd thy way
 Early may fly the Babylonian woe.

XIX. ON HIS BLINDNESS.

WHEN I consider how my light is spent
 Ere half my days, in this dark world and wide,
 And that one talent which is death to hide,
 Lodg'd with me useless, though my soul more
 To serve therewith my Maker, and present [bent
 My true account, lest he returning chide ;
 "Doth God exact day-labour, light denied ?"
 I fondly ask : But Patience, to prevent s
 That murmur, soon replies, "God doth not need
 Either man's work, or his own gifts ; who best
 Bear his mild yoke, they serve him best : his
 Is kingly ; thousands at his bidding speed, [state
 And post o'er land and ocean without rest ;
 They also serve who only stand and wait."

¹⁰ man's work, or his own gifts] Free will, or grace.

Warburton.

¹³ post] P. L. iv. 171,

'With a vengeance sent,
 From Media post to Egypt.' Warton.

XX. TO MR. LAWRENCE.*

LAWRENCE, of virtuous father virtuous son,
 Now that the fields are dank, and ways are mire,
 Where shall we sometimes meet, and by the fire
 Help waste a sullen day, what may be won
 From the hard season gaining? Time will run 5
 On smoother, till Favonius re-inspire
 The frozen earth, and clothe in fresh attire
 The lily and rose, that neither sow'd nor spun.
 What neat repast shall feast us, light and choice,
 Of Attic taste, with wine, whence we may rise
 To hear the lute well touch'd, or artful voice
 Warble immortal notes and Tuscan air?
 He who of those delights can judge, and spare
 To interpose them oft, is not unwise.

XXI. TO CYRIAC SKINNER.

CYRIAC, whose grandsire on the royal bench
 Of British Themis, with no mean applause
 Pronounc'd and in his volumes taught our laws,
 Which others at their bar so often wrench;
 To day deep thoughts resolve with me to drench 5
 In mirth, that after no repenting draws;
 Let Euclid rest and Archimedes pause,

* Lawrence published a work called 'Of our Communion and Warre with Angels,' &c. 1646. 4to. Todd. See British Bibliographer, vol. i. p. 352.

7 Euclid] See Censura Literaria, vi. p. 144.

And what the Swede intends, and what the French.
 To measure life learn thou betimes, and know 9
 Toward solid good what leads the nearest way ;
 For other things mild Heav'n a time ordains,
 And disapproves that care, though wise in show,
 That with superfluous burden loads the day,
 And, when God sends a cheerful hour, refrains.

XXII. TO THE SAME.

CYRIAC, this three years day these eyes, tho' clear
 To outward view of blemish or of spot,
 Bereft of light their seeing have forgot,
 Nor to their idle orbs doth sight appear
 Of sun, or moon, or star, throughout the year, 5
 Or man, or woman. Yet I argue not Against Heav'n's hand or will, nor bate a jot
 Of heart or hope ; but still bear up and steer
 Right onward. What supports me, dost thou ask ?
 The conscience, Friend, t' have lost them over-
 In liberty's defence, my noble task, [plied

⁸ And what the Swede intends] So the MS. The first ed. 'And what the Swede intend,' which in others is altered to, 'And what the *Swed*es intend.' Newton.

¹¹ mild Heaven] So Son. xix. 'bear his mild yoke.' Par. Reg. ii. 125, 'these mild seats.' Sil. Italicus, iv. 795, 'Mile et cognatum est homini deus.' And Hen. More's Poems, p. 196.

³ Bereft, &c.] In the printed copies,
 'Bereft of sight their seeing have forgot,
 Nor to their idle orbs doth day appear
 Or sun or moon. Newton.

⁷ a] In the printed copies, 'one.' Newton.

Of which all Europe rings from side to side.
 This thought might lead me through the world's vain mask
 Content though blind, had I no better guide.

XXIII. ON HIS DECEASED WIFE.

METHOUGHT I saw my late espoused saint
 Brought to me, like Alcestis, from the grave,
 Whom Jove's great son to her glad husband gave,
 Rescued from death by force tho' pale and faint.
 Mine, as whom wash'd from spot of child-bed
 Purification in the old Law did save, [taint
 And such, as yet once more I trust to have Full sight of her in Heav'n without restraint,
 Came, vested all in white, pure as her mind :
 Her face was veil'd, yet to my fancied sight 10
 Love, sweetness, goodness, in her person shin'd
 So clear, as in no face with more delight.
 But O, as to embrace me she inclin'd,
 I wak'd, she fled, and day brought back my night.*

¹² rings] So the printed copies before Newton's edition, in which 'talks' is substituted from the MS. instead of 'rings.' The Sonnet thus concluded before Newton's ed.

'Whereof all Europe rings from side to side.

This thought might lead me through this world's vain mask,
 Content though blind, had I no other guide.' Todd.

* The original various readings to the sonnets from the Cambridge MS. may be seen in Mr. Todd's edition of Milton's Poet. Works, (1809,) vol. vi. p. 500—3.

PSALMS.

PSALM I. DONE INTO VERSE, 1653.

BLESS'D is the man who hath not walk'd astray
 In counsel of the wicked, and i' th' way
 Of sinners hath not stood, and in the seat
 Of scorers hath not sat. But in the great
 Jehovah's law is ever his delight, 5
 And in his law he studies day and night.
 He shall be as a tree which planted grows
 By watery streams, and in his season knows
 To yield his fruit, and his leaf shall not fall,
 And what he takes in hand shall prosper all. 10
 Not so the wicked, but as chaff which fann'd
 The wind drives, so the wicked shall not stand
 In judgment, or abide their trial then,
 Nor sinners in th' assembly of just men.
 For the Lord knows th' upright way of the just,
 And the way of bad men to ruin must.

PSALM II. DONE AUG. 8, 1653. TERZETTE.

WHY do the Gentiles tumult, and the nations
 Muse a vain thing, the kings of th' earth upstand
 With pow'r, and princes in their congregations
 Lay deep their plots together through each land
 Against the Lord and his Messiah dear? 5

Let us break off, say they, by strength of hand
 Their bonds, and cast from us, no more to wear,
 Their twisted cords: He who in heav'n doth dwell

Shall laugh, the Lord shall scoff them, then severe

Speak to them in his wrath, and in his fell 10

And fierce ire trouble them; but I, saith he,

Anointed have my King (though ye rebel)

On Sion my holy hill. A firm decree

I will declare; the Lord to me hath said

Thou art my Son, I have begotten thee 15

This day; ask of me, and the grant is made;

As thy possession I on thee bestow

Th' Heathen, and as thy conquest to be sway'd

Earth's utmost bounds: them shalt thou bring full low

With iron sceptre bruised, and them disperse

Like to a potter's vessel shiver'd so.

And now be wise at length ye Kings averse,

Be taught, ye Judges of the earth; with fear

Jehovah serve, and let your joy converse

With trembling; kiss the Son lest he appear 25

In anger, and ye perish in the way,

If once his wrath take fire like fuel sere.

Happy all those who have in them their stay.

¹⁸ Heathen] Warton in both editions reads 'The Heaven.' Todd.

PSALM III. AUG. 9, 1653.

WHEN HE FLED FROM ABSALOM.

LORD, how many are my foes !
 How many those
 That in arms against me rise !
 Many are they
 That of my life distrustfully thus say,
 No help for him in God there lies.
 But thou, Lord, art my shield, my glory,
 Thee through my story
 Th' exalter of my head I count ;
 Aloud I cried 10
 Unto Jehovah, he full soon replied
 And heard me from his holy mount.
 I lay and slept, I wak'd again,
 For my sustain
 Was the Lord. Of many millions 15
 The populous rout
 I fear not, though encamping round about
 They pitch against me their pavilions.
 Rise, Lord, save me, my God, for thou
 Hast smote ere now 20
 On the cheek-bone all my foes,
 Of men abhorr'd [Lord ;
 Hast broke the teeth. This help was from the Thy blessing on thy people flows.

¹⁴ my sustain] The verb converted into a substantive. So 'disturb,' in P. L. vi. 549. Todd.

PSALM IV. AUG. 10, 1653.

ANSWER me when I call,
God of my righteousness,
In straits and in distress
Thou didst me disenthral
And set at large ; now spare, 5
Now pity me, and hear my earnest pray'r.
Great ones, how long will ye
My glory have in scorn,
How long be thus forborne
Still to love vanity, 10
To love, to seek, to prize
Things false and vain, and nothing else but lies ?
Yet know the Lord hath chose,
Chose to himself apart,
The good and meek of heart ; 15
(For whom to choose he knows)
Jehovah from on high
Will hear my voice what time to him I cry.
Be aw'd, and do not sin,
Speak to your hearts alone, 20
Upon your beds, each one,
And be at peace within.
Offer the offerings just
Of righteousness, and in Jehovah trust.
Many there be that say 25
Who yet will show us good ?
Talking like this world's brood ;

But, Lord, thus let me pray,
On us lift up the light,
Lift up the favour of thy count'nance bright.
Into my heart more joy
And gladness thou hast put,
Than when a year of glut
Their stores doth overcloy,
And from their plenteous grounds 35
With vast increase their corn and wine abounds.
In peace at once will I
Both lay me down and sleep,
For thou alone dost keep Me safe where'er I lie ; 40
As in a rocky cell
Thou, Lord, alone in safety mak'st me dwell.

PSALM V. AUG. 12, 1653.

JEHOVAH, to my words give ear,
My meditation weigh,
The voice of my complaining hear
My King and God ; for unto thee I pray.
Jehovah, thou my early voice 5
Shalt in the morning hear,
I' th' morning I to thee with choice
Will rank my pray'rs, and watch till thou appear.
For thou art not a God that takes
In wickedness delight, 10
Evil with thee no biding makes,
Fools or mad men stand not within thy sight.

All workers of iniquity
Thou hat'st; and them unblest
Thou wilt destroy that speak a lie ; 15
The bloody and guileful man God doth detest.
But I will in thy mercies dear,
Thy numerous mercies, go
Into thy house ; I in thy fear
Will towards thy holy temple worship low. 20
Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
Lead me because of those
That do observe if I transgress,
Set thy ways right before, where my step goes.
For in his falt'ring mouth unstable 25
No word is firm or sooth ;
Their inside, troubles miserable ; [smooth.
An open grave their throat, their tongue they
God, find them guilty, let them fall
By their own counsels quell'd ;
Push them in their rebellions all
Still on ; for against thee they have rebell'd. 30
Then all who trust in thee shall bring
Their joy, while thou from blame
Defend'st them ; they shall ever sing 35
And shall triumph in thee, who love thy name.
For thou, Jehovah, wilt be found
To bless the just man still,
As with a shield thou wilt surround
Him with thy lasting favour and good will. 40

PSALM VI. AUG. 13, 1653.

LORD, in thine anger do not reprehend me,
 Nor in thy hot displeasure me correct ;
 Pity me, Lord, for I am much deject,
 And very weak and faint ; heal and amend me :
 For all my bones, that e'en with anguish ache, 5
 Are troubled, yea, my soul is troubled sore,
 And thou, O Lord, how long ? Turn, Lord, restore
 My soul, O save me for thy goodness sake :
 For in death no remembrance is of thee ;
 Who in the grave can celebrate thy praise ? 10
 Wearied I am with sighing out my days,
 Nightly my couch I make a kind of sea ;
 My bed I water with my tears ; mine eye
 Through grief consumes, is waxen old and dark
 I th' midst of all mine enemies that mark. 15
 Depart all ye that work iniquity,
 Depart from me, for the voice of my weeping
 The Lord hath heard, the Lord hath heard my
 My supplication with acceptance fair [prayer,
 The Lord will own, and have me in his keeping.
 Mine enemies shall all be blank and dash'd
 With much confusion ; then grown red with shame,
 They shall return in haste the way they came,
 And in a moment shall be quite abash'd.

²¹ blank] Comus, 452.

‘that dash'd brute violence

With sudden adoration and blank awe.’ Warton.

PSALM VII. AUG. 14, 1653.

UPON THE WORDS OF CHUSH THE BENJAMITE AGAINST HIM.

LORD, my God, to thee I fly,
Save me, and secure me under
Thy protection while I cry,
Lest as a lion (and no wonder)
He haste to tear my soul asunder, 5
Tearing, and no rescue nigh.

Lord, my God, if I have thought
Or done this, if wickedness
Be in my hands, if I have wrought
Ill to him that meant me peace, 10
Or to him have render'd less,
And not freed my foe for nought ;

Let th' enemy pursue my soul
And overtake it, let him tread
My life down to the earth, and roll 15
In the dust my glory dead,
In the dust, and there outspread
Lodge it with dishonour foul.

Rise, Jehovah, in thine ire,
Rouse thyself amidst the rage 20
Of my foes that urge like fire,
And wake for me, their fury' assuage ;
Judgment here thou didst engage
And command which I desire.

So th' assemblies of each nation 25
Will surround thee, seeking right,
Thence to thy glorious habitation
Return on high, and in their sight.
Jehovah judgeth most upright
All people from the world's foundation. 30

Judge me, Lord, be judge in this
According to my righteousness,
And the innocence which is
Upon me : cause at length to cease
Of evil men the wickedness 35
And their power that do amiss.

But the just establish fast,
Since thou art the just God that tries
Hearts and reins. On God is cast
My defence, and in him lies, 40
In him who both just and wise
Saves th' upright of heart at last.

God is a just judge and severe,
And God is every day offended ;
If the unjust will not forbear, 45
His sword he whets, his bow hath bended
Already, and for him intended
The tools of death, that waits him near.

(His arrows purposely made he
For them that persecute.) Behold 50

He travels big with vanity,
 Trouble he hath conceiv'd of old
 As in a womb, and from that mould
 Hath at length brought forth a lie.

He digg'd a pit, and delv'd it deep, 55
 And fell into the pit he made ;
 His mischief that due course doth keep,
 Turns on his head, and his ill trade
 Of violence will undelay'd
 Fall on his crown with ruin steep. 60

Then will I Jehovah's praise
 According to his justice raise,
 And sing the Name and Deity
 Of Jehovah the most high.

PSALM VIII. AUG. 14, 1653.

O JEHOVAH our Lord, how wondrous great
 And glorious is thy name through all the earth !
 So as above the Heavens thy praise to set
 Out of the tender mouths of latest birth.

Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou 5
 Hast founded strength because of all thy foes,
 To stint th' enemy, and slack th' avenger's brow,
 That bends his rage thy providence t' oppose.

⁷ stint th' enemy] A violent cæsure in the last syllable of 'enemy.' See above, Ps. v. 16. Ps. vii. 22. Warton. But perhaps it should be pronounced en'my.

When I behold thy Heav'ns, thy fingers' art,
 The moon and stars which thou so bright has set
 In the pure firmament, then saith my heart,
 O what is man that thou remember'st yet,

And think'st upon him ; or of man begot,
 That him thou visit'st, and of him art found ?
 Scarce to be less than Gods, thou mad'st his lot,
 With honour and with state thou hast him
 crown'd.

O'er the works of thy hand thou mad'st him lord,
 Thou hast put all under his lordly feet,
 All flocks, and herds, by thy commanding word,
 All beasts that in the field or forest meet, 20

Fowl of the Heavens, and fish that through the wet
 Sea paths in shoals do slide, and know no dearth.
 O Jehovah our Lord, how wondrous great
 And glorious is thy name through all the earth !

PSALM LXXX.

1 THOU Shepherd that dost Israel keep
 Give ear in time of need,
 Who leadest like a flock of sheep
Thy loved Joseph's seed,

- That sitt'st between the Cherubs bright, 5
 Between their wings out-spread,
Shine forth, and from thy cloud give light,
 And on our foes thy dread.
- 2 In Ephraim's view and Benjamin's,
 And in Manasse's sight, 10
Awake thy strength, come, and be seen
 To save us by thy might.
- 3 Turn us again, thy grace divine
 To us, O God, vouchsafe ;
Cause thou thy face on us to shine, 15
 And then we shall be safe.
- 4 Lord God of Hosts, how long wilt thou,
 How long wilt thou declare
Thy smoking wrath, and angry brow
 Against thy people's prayer ! 20
- 5 Thou feed'st them with the bread of tears,
 Their bread with tears they eat,
And mak'st them largely drink the tears
 Wherewith their cheeks are wet.
- 6 A strife thou mak'st us and a prey 25
 To every neighbour foe,
Among themselves they laugh, they play,
 And flouts at us they throw.
- 7 Return us, and thy grace divine,
 O God of Hosts, vouchsafe, 30
Cause thou thy face on us to shine,
 And then we shall be safe.
- 8 A Vine from Egypt thou hast brought,
 Thy free love made it thine,

- And drov'st out nations, proud and haut, 35
 To plant this lovely vine.
- 9 Thou did'st prepare for it a place,
 And root it deep and fast,
 That it began to grow apace,
And filled the land at last. 40
- 10 With her green shade that cover'd all,
 The hills were over-spread,
 Her boughs as high as cedars tall
Advanc'd their lofty head.
- 11 Her branches on the western side 45
 Down to the sea she sent,
 And upward to that river wide
 Her other branches went.
- 12 Why hast thou laid her hedges low,
 And broken down her fence, 50
 That all may pluck her, as they go,
With rudest violence?
- 13 The tusked boar out of the wood
 Up turns it by the roots, 54
 Wild beasts there brouze, and make their food
Her grapes and tender shoots.
- 14 Return now, God of Hosts, look down
 From Heav'n, thy seat divine,
 Behold us, but without a frown,
 And visit this thy vine. 60

³⁵ haut] 'Proude and haute.' Skelton's Magnifycence, p. xi. xxvi. 'Ill and haut.' Barclay's Ship of Fooles, p. 214. 240. 'Strife hatching haut ambition.' Sylvester's Du Bartas, p. 135.

- 15 Visit this vine, which thy right hand
Hath set, and planted long,
And the young branch, that for thyself
Thou hast made firm and strong.
- 16 But now it is consum'd with fire, 65
And cut with axes down,
They perish at thy dreadful ire,
At thy rebuke and frown.
- 17 Upon the man of thy right hand
Let thy good hand be laid, 70
Upon the son of man, whom thou
Strong for thyself hast made.
- 18 So shall we not go back from thee
To ways of sin and shame,
Quicken us thou, then gladly we 75
Shall call upon thy Name.
- 19 Return us, and thy grace divine,
Lord God of Hosts, vouchsafe,
Cause thou thy face on us to shine,
And then we shall be safe. 80

PSALM LXXXI.

- 1 To God our strength sing loud, and clear,
Sing loud to God our King,
To Jacob's God, that all may hear,
Loud acclamations ring.
- 2 Prepare a hymn, prepare a song, 5
The timbrel hither bring,

- The cheerful psaltry bring along,
And harp with pleasant string.
- 3 Blow, as is wont, in the new moon
With trumpets' lofty sound, 10
Th' appointed time, the day whereon
Our solemn feast comes round.
- 4 This was a statute giv'n of old
For Israel to observe,
A law of Jacob's God, to hold, 15
From whence they might not swerve.
- 5 This he a testimony ordain'd
In Joseph, not to change,
When as he pass'd through Egypt land ;
The tongue I heard was strange. 20
- 6 From burden, and from slavish toil
I set his shoulder free ;
His hands from pots, and miry soil,
Deliver'd were by me.
- 7 When trouble did thee sore assail, 25
On me then didst thou call,
And I to free thee did not fail,
And led thee out of thrall.
I answered thee in thunder deep
With clouds encompass'd round ; 30
I tried thee at the water steep
Of Meribah renown'd.
- 8 Hear, O my people, hearken well,
I testify to thee,
Thou ancient stock of Israel, 35
If thou wilt list to me,

- 9 Throughout the land of thy abode
 No alien God shall be,
 Nor shalt thou to a foreign God
 In honour bend thy knee. 40
- 10 I am the Lord thy God which brought Thee out of Egypt land ;
 Ask large enough, and I, besought,
 Will grant thy full demand.
- 11 And yet my people would not hear, 45
Nor hearken to my voice ;
 And Israel, whom I lov'd so dear,
 Mislik'd me for his choice.
- 12 Then did I leave them to their will,
 And to their wand'ring mind ; 50
 Their own conceits they follow'd still,
 Their own devices blind.
- 13 O that my people would be wise,
To serve me all their days,
 And O that Israel would advise, 55
To walk my righteous ways.
- 14 Then would I soon bring down their foes,
That now so proudly rise,
 And turn my hand against all those
That are their enemies. 60
- 15 Who hate the Lord should then be fain
To bow to him and bend,
 But they, his people, should remain,
 Their time should have no end.
- 16 And he would feed them from the shock 65
 With flow'r of finest wheat,

And satisfy them from the rock
 With honey for their meat.

PSALM LXXXII.

- 1 God in the great assembly stands
 Of kings and lordly states,
 Among the Gods, on both his hands
 He judges and debates.
- 2 How long will ye pervert the right 5
 With judgment false and wrong,
 Favouring the wicked by your might,
 Who thence grow bold and strong?
- 3 Regard the weak and fatherless,
 Dispatch the poor man's cause, 10
 And raise the man in deep distress
 By just and equal laws.
- 4 Defend the poor and desolate,
 And rescue from the hands
 Of wicked men the low estate 15
 Of him that help demands.
- 5 They know not, nor will understand,
 In darkness they walk on,
 The earth's foundations all are mov'd,
 And out of order gone.
- 6 I said that ye were Gods, yea all 20
 The sons of God most high ;
- 7 But ye shall die like men, and fall
 As other princes die.

- 8 Rise, God, judge thou the earth in might, 25
This wicked earth redress,
For thou art he who shalt by right
The nations all possess.

PSALM LXXXIII.

- 1 BE not thou silent now at length,
O God, hold not thy peace,
Sit thou not still, O God of strength,
We cry, and do not cease.
2 For lo thy furious foes now swell, 5
And storm outrageously,
And they that hate thee proud and fell
Exalt their heads full high.
3 Against thy people they contrive
Their plots and counsels deep, 10
Them to insnare they chiefly strive,
Whom thou dost hide and keep.
4 Come, let us cut them off, say they,
Till they no nation be,
That Israel's name for ever may 15
Be lost in memory.
5 For they consult with all their might,
And all as one in mind
Themselves against thee they unite,
And in firm union bind. 20
6 The tents of Edom, and the brood
Of scornful Ishmael,

- Moab, with them of Hagar's blood,
That in the desert dwell,
- 7 Gebal and Ammon there conspire, 25
And hateful Amalec,
The Philistines, and they of Tyre,
Whose bounds the sea doth check.
- 8 With them great Ashur also bands, 30
And doth confirm the knot :
All these have lent their armed hands
To aid the sons of Lot.
- 9 Do to them as to Midian bold,
That wasted all the coast,
To Sisera, and as is told 35
Thou didst to Jabin's host,
When at the brook of Kishon old
They were repuls'd and slain,
- 10 At Endor quite cut off, and roll'd
As dung upon the plain. 40
- 11 As Zeb and Oreb evil sped,
So let their princes speed,
As Zeba and Zalmunna bled,
So let their princes bleed.
- 12 For they amidst their pride have said, 45
By right now shall we seize
God's houses, and will now invade
Their stately palaces.
- 13 My God, oh make them as a wheel,
No quiet let them find, 50
Giddy and restless let them reel
Like stubble from the wind.

- 14 As when an aged wood takes fire
 Which on a sudden strays,
 The greedy flame runs higher and higher 55
 Till all the mountains blaze,
 15 So with thy whirlwind them pursue,
 And with thy tempest chase ;
 16 And till they yield thee honour due ;
 Lord, fill with shame their face. 60
 17 Asham'd and troubled let them be,
 Troubled and sham'd for ever,
 Ever confounded, and so die
 With shame, and scape it never.
 18 Then shall they know that thou whose name
 Jehovah is alone,
 Art the most high, and thou the same
 O'er all the earth art one.

PSALM LXXXIV.

- 1 How lovely are thy dwellings fair !
 O Lord of Hosts, how dear
 The pleasant tabernacles are,
 Where thou dost dwell so near !
 2 My soul doth long and almost die 5
 Thy courts, O Lord, to see ;
 My heart and flesh aloud do cry,
 O living God, for thee.
 3 There ev'n the sparrow freed from wrong
 Hath found a house of rest, 10

- The swallow there, to lay her young
 Hath built her brooding nest,
 Ev'n by thy altars, Lord of Hosts,
They find their safe abode,
And home they fly from round the coasts 15
Toward thee, my King, my God.
- 4 Happy, who in thy house reside,
 Where thee they ever praise,
- 5 Happy, whose strength in thee doth bide,
 And in their hearts thy ways. 20
- 6 They pass through Baca's thirsty vale,
That dry and barren ground,
 As through a fruitful watry dale
 Where springs and show'rs abound.
- 7 They journey on from strength to strength 25
With joy and gladsome cheer,
Till all before our God at length
 In Sion do appear.
- 8 Lord God of Hosts, hear now my prayer,
 O Jacob's God, give ear,
- 9 Thou God our shield, look on the face 30
 Of thy anointed dear.
- 10 For one day in thy courts to be
 Is better, and more blest,
 Than in the joys of vanity 35
 A thousand days at best.
- I in the temple of my God
 Had rather keep a door,
 Than dwell in tents, and rich abode,
 With sin for evermore. 40

- Wilt thou thy frowning ire extend
From age to age on us? 20
- 6 Wilt thou not turn, and hear our voice,
And us again revive,
That so thy people may rejoice
By thee preserv'd alive?
- 7 Cause us to see thy goodness, Lord, 25
To us thy mercy show,
Thy saving health to us afford,
And life in us renew.
- 8 And now what God the Lord will speak,
I will go straight and hear, 30
For to his people he speaks peace,
And to his saints full dear,
To his dear saints he will speak peace,
But let them never more
Return to folly, but surcease 35
To trespass as before.
- 9 Surely to such as do him fear
Salvation is at hand,
And glory shall ere long appear
To dwell within our land. 40
- 10 Mercy and Truth that long were miss'd
Now joyfully are met,
Sweet Peace and Righteousness have kiss'd,
And hand in hand are set.
- 11 Truth from the earth, like to a flow'r, 45
Shall bud and blossom then,
And Justice from her heav'nly bow'r
Look down on mortal men.

- 12 The Lord will also then bestow
 Whatever thing is good, 50
 Our land shall forth in plenty throw
 Her fruits to be our food.
- 13 Before him righteousness shall go,
 His royal harbinger,
 Then will he come, and not be slow, 55
 His footsteps cannot err.

PSALM LXXXVI.

- 1 THY gracious ear, O Lord, incline,
 O hear me I thee pray,
 For I am poor, and almost pine
 With need, and sad decay.
- 2 Preserve my soul, for I have trod 5
 Thy ways, and love the just,
 Save thou thy servant, O my God,
 Who still in thee doth trust.
- 3 Pity me, Lord, for daily thee
 I call; 4. O make rejoice 10
 Thy servant's soul; for, Lord, to thee
 I lift my soul and voice.
- 5 For thou art good, thou Lord art prone
 To pardon, thou to all
 Art full of mercy, thou alone 15
 To them that on thee call.
- 6 Unto my supplication, Lord,
 Give ear, and to the cry

- Of my incessant pray'rs afford
 Thy hearing graciously. 20
- 7 I in the day of my distress
 Will call on thee for aid;
 For thou wilt grant me free access,
And answer what I pray'd.
- 8 Like thee among the Gods is none, 25
 O Lord, nor any works
Of all that other Gods have done
 Like to thy glorious works.
- 9 The nations all whom thou hast made
 Shall come, and all shall frame 30
 To bow them low before thee, Lord,
 And glorify thy name.
- 10 For great thou art, and wonders great
 By thy strong hand are done,
 Thou in thy everlasting seat 35
 Remainest God alone.
- 11 Teach me, O Lord, thy way most right,
 I in thy truth will bide,
 To fear thy name my heart unite,
So shall it never slide. 40
- 12 Thee will I praise, O Lord my God,
Thee honour and adore
 With my whole heart, and blaze abroad
 Thy name for evermore.

¹⁹ incessant] P. Lost, xi. 307.

‘And if by prayer

Incessant I could hope to change the will,’ &c. Todd.

- 13 For great thy mercy is toward me, 45
 And thou hast freed my soul,
 Ev'n from the lowest hell set free,
From deepest darkness foul.
- 14 O God, the proud against me rise, 50
 And violent men are met
 To seek my life, and in their eyes
 No fear of thee have set.
- 15 But thou, Lord, art the God most mild,
 Readiest thy grace to show,
 Slow to be angry, and art styl'd 55
 Most merciful, most true.
- 16 O turn to me thy face at length,
 And me have mercy on,
 Unto thy servant give thy strength,
 And save thy handmaid's son. 60
- 17 Some sign of good to me afford,
 And let my foes then see,
 And be asham'd, because thou, Lord,
 Dost help and comfort me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

- 1 AMONG the holy mountains high
 Is his foundation fast,
There seated is his sanctuary,
His temple there is plac'd.
- 2 Sion's fair gates the Lord loves more 5
 Than all the dwellings fair

- Of Jacob's land, though there be store,
And all within his care.
- 3 City of God, most glorious things
 Of thee abroad are spoke ; 10
- 4 I mention Egypt, where proud kings
Did our forefathers yoke.
- I mention Babel to my friends,
 Philistia full of scorn,
 And Tyre with Ethiop's utmost ends, 15
 Lo this man there was born :
- 5 But twice that praise shall in our ear,
 Be said of Sion last,
 This and this man was born in her,
 High God shall fix her fast. 20
- 6 The Lord shall write it in a scroll
 That ne'er shall be out-worn,
 When he the nations doth inroll,
 That this man there was born.
- 7 Both they who sing, and they who dance, 25
With sacred songs are there,
 In thee fresh brooks, and soft streams glance,
And all my fountains clear.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

- 1 LORD God, that dost me save and keep,
 All day to thee I cry ;
 And all night long before thee weep,
 Before thee prostrate lie.

- 2 Into thy presence let my pray'r
With sighs devout ascend,
 And to my cries, that ceaseless are,
 Thine ear with favour bend.
- 3 For cloy'd with woes and trouble store
 Surcharg'd my soul doth lie,
 My life at death's uncheerful door
 Unto the grave draws nigh.
- 4 Reckon'd I am with them that pass
 Down to the dismal pit,
 I am a man, but weak alas,
 And for that name unfit.
- 5 From life discharg'd and parted quite
 Among the dead to sleep,
 And like the slain in bloody fight
 That in the grave lie deep.
 Whom thou rememberest no more,
 Dost never more regard,
 Them from thy hand deliver'd o'er
Death's hideous house hath barr'd.
- 6 Thou in the lowest pit profound
 Hast set me all forlorn,
 Where thickest darkness hovers round,
 In horrid deeps to mourn.
- 7 Thy wrath, from which no shelter saves,
 Full sore doth press on me ;
 Thou break'st upon me all thy waves,
 And all thy waves break me.
- 8 Thou dost my friends from me estrange,
 And mak'st me odious,

- Me to them odious, for they change, 35
 And I here pent up thus.
- 9 Through sorrow and affliction great,
 Mine eye grows dim and dead,
 Lord, all the day I thee intreat,
 My hands to thee I spread. 40
- 10 Wilt thou do wonders on the dead ?
 Shall the deceas'd arise,
 And praise thee from their loathsome bed
With pale and hollow eyes ?
- 11 Shall they thy loving kindness tell 45
 On whom the grave hath hold ?
 Or they who in perdition dwell,
 Thy faithfulness unfold ?
- 12 In darkness can thy mighty hand
 Or wondrous acts be known ? 50
 Thy justice in the gloomy land
 Of dark oblivion ?
- 13 But I to thee, O Lord, do cry,
Ere yet my life be spent,
 And up to thee my pray'r doth hie, 55
 Each morn, and thee prevent.
- 14 Why wilt thou, Lord, my soul forsake,
 And hide thy face from me,
- 15 That am already bruise'd, and shake
 With terror sent from thee ? 60
 Bruise'd and afflicted, and so low
 As ready to expire,
 While I thy terrors undergo Astonish'd with thine ire.

- 16 Thy fierce wrath over me doth flow, 65
 Thy threat'nings cut me through :
 17 All day they round about me go,
 Like waves they me pursue.
 18 Lover and friend thou hast remov'd,
 And sever'd from me far : 70
 They fly me now whom I have lov'd,
 And as in darkness are.

A PARAPHRASE ON PSALM CXIV.*

WHEN the blest seed of Terah's faithful son,
 After long toil their liberty had won,
 And past from Pharian fields to Canaan land,
 Led by the strength of the Almighty's hand,
 Jehovah's wonders were in Israel shown, 5
 His praise and glory was in Israel known.
 That saw the troubled sea, and shivering fled,
 And sought to hide his froth-becurled head
 Low in the earth ; Jordan's clear streams recoil,
 As a faint host that hath receiv'd the foil. 10
 The high, huge-bellied mountains skip like rams
 Amongst their ewes, the little hills like lambs.
 Why fled the ocean? And why skipt the mountains?
 Why turned Jordan toward his crystal fountains?

* This and the following Psalm are Milton's earliest performances. Warton.

⁹ recoil] The rhymes probably from Sylvester's Du Bartas, p. 337.

'Ay Satan aims our constant faith to foil,
 But God doth seal it, never to recoil.' Dunster.

POEMATA.

Quorum pleraque intra annum ætatis vigesimum conscripsit.

HÆC quæ sequuntur de Authore testimonia, tametsi ipse intelligebat non tam de se quam supra se esse dicta, eo quod præclaro ingenio viri, nec non amici ita fere solent laudare, ut omnia suis potius virtutibus, quam veritati, congruentia nimis cupide affingant, noluit tamen horum egregiam in se voluntatem non esse notam; cum alii præsertim ut id faceret magnopere suaderent. Dum enim nimis laudis invidiam totis ab se viribus amolitur, sibi quod plus æquo est non attributum esse mavult, judicium interim hominum cordatorum atque illustrium quin summo sibi honori ducat, negare non potest.

Joannes Baptista Mansus, Marchio Villensis, Neapolitanus, ad Joannem Miltonium Anglum.

Ut mens, forma, decor, facies, mos, si pietas sic,
Non Anglus, verum hercle Angelus ipse fores.

*Ad Joannem Miltonem Anglum triplici poeseos

atque Hetrusca, Epigramma Joannis Salsilli Romani.*

CEDE Meles, cedat depressa Mincius urna;
Sebetus Tassum desinat usque loqui;
At Thamesis victor cunctis ferat altior undas
Nam per te, Milto, par tribus unus erit.

Ad Joannem Miltonum.

GRÆCIA Mæonidem, jactet sibi Roma Maronem,
Anglia Miltonum jactat utrique parem.

O D E.

ERGIMI all' Etra ò Clio
Perche di stelle intreccierò corona
Non più del Biondo Dio
La Fronde eterna in Pindo, e in Elicono,
Diensi a merto maggior, maggiori i fregi,
A' celeste virtù celesti pregi.

Non può del tempo edace
Rimaner preda, eterno alto valore
Non può l' oblio rapace
Furar dalle memorie eccelso onore,

Su l' arco di mia cetra un dardo forte
Virtù m' adatti, e ferirò la morte.

Del Ocean profondo
Cinta dagli ampi gorgi Anglia resiede
Separata dal mondo,
Però che il suo valor l' umano eccede :
Questa feconda sa produrre Eroi,
Ch' hanno a ragion del sovrumano tra noi.

Alla virtù sbandita
Danno ne i petti lor fido ricetto,
Quella gli è sol gradita,
Perche in lei san trovar gioia, e diletto ;
Ridillo tu, Giovanni, e mostra in tanto
Con tua vera virtù, vero il mio Canto.

Lungi dal Patrio lido
Spinse Zeusi l' industrie ardente brama ;
Ch' udio d'Helena il grido
Con aurea tromba rimbombar la fama,
E per poterla effigiare al paro
Dalle più belle Idee trasse il più raro.

Così l'Ape Ingegnosa
Trae con industria il suo liquor pregiato
Dal giglio e dalla rosa,
E quanti vaghi fiori ornano il prato ;
Formano un dolce suon diverse Chorde
Fan varie voci melodia concorde.

Di bella gloria amante
 Milton dal Ciel natio per varie parti
 Le peregrine piante
 Volgesti a ricercar scienze, ed arti ;
 Del Gallo regnator vedesti i Regni,
 E dell' Italia ancor gl' Eroi piu degni.

Fabro quasi divino
 Sol virtù rintracciando il tuo pensiero
 Vide in ogni confino
 Chi di nobil valor calca il sentiero ;
 L'ottimo dal miglior dopo sceglia
 Per fabbricar d' ogni virtù l' idea.

Quanti nacquero in Flora
 O in lei del parlar Tosco appreser l' arte,
 La cui memoria onora
 Il mondo fatta eterna in dotte carte,
 Volesti ricercar per tuo tesoro,
 E parlasti con lor nell' opre loro.

Nell' altera Babelle
 Per te il parlar confuse Giove in vano,
 Che per varie favelle
 Di se stessa trofeo cadde su'l piano :
 Ch' Ode oltr' all Anglia il suo piu degno Idioma
 Spagna, Francia, Toscana, e Grecia, e Roma.

I piu profondi arcani
 Ch' occulta la natura e in cielo e in terra

Ch' à Ingegni sovrumani
 Troppo avara tal' hor gli chiude, e serra,
 Chiaramente conosci, e giungi al fine
 Della moral virtude al gran confine.

Non batta il Tempo l' ale,
 Fermisi immoto, e in un fermin si gl' anni,
 Che di virtù immortale
 Scorrion di troppo ingiuriosi a i danni ;
 Che s' opre degne di Poema e storia
 Furon gia, l'hai presenti alla memoria.

Dammi tua dolce Cetra
 Se vuoi ch' io dica del tuo dolce canto,
 Ch' inalzandoti all' Etra
 Di farti huomo celeste ottiene il vanto,
 Il Tamigi il dirà che gl' e concesso
 Per te suo cigno pareggiar Permesso.

Io o che in riva del Arno
 Tento spiegar tuo merto alto, e preclaro
 So che fatico indarno,
 E ad ammirar, non a lodarlo imparo ;
 Freno dunque la lingua, e ascolto il core
 Che ti prende a lodar con lo stupore.

JOANNI MILTONI LONDINENSI.

Juveni patria, virtutibus eximio,
 VIRO qui multa peregrinatione, studio cuncta
 orbis terrarum loca perspexit, ut novus Ulysses
 omnia ubique ab omnibus apprehenderet :

Polyglotto, in cujus ore linguæ jam deperditæ
 sic reviviscunt, ut idiomata omnia sint in ejus laudibus infacunda ; et jure ea percallet, ut ad-mirationes et plausus populorum ab propria sapi-
 entia excitatos intelligat :

Illi, cujus animi dotes corporisque sensus ad
 admirationem commovent, et per ipsam motum cuique auferunt ; cujus opera ad plausus hortan-
 tur, sed venustate vocem laudatoribus adimunt :

Cui in memoria totus orbis ; in intellectu sapi-
 entia ; in voluntate ardor gloriæ ; in ore eloquen-tia ; harmonicos cœlestium sphærarum sonitus astronomia duce audienti ; characteres mirabilium naturæ, per quos Dei magnitudo describitur, magistra philosophia legenti ; antiquitatum latebras, vetustatis excidia, eruditionis ambages, comite
 assidua autorum lectione,

Exquirenti, restauranti, percurrenti :

At cur nitor in arduum ?

Illi in cujus virtutibus evulgandis ora Famæ non sufficiant, nec hominum stupor in laudandis satis est, reverentiæ et amoris ergo hoc ejus
 meritis debitum admirationis tributum offert
 CAROLUS DATUS, Patricius Florentinus,

Tanto homini servus, tantæ virtutis amator.

ELEGIARUM LIBER.

ELEG. I. AD CAROLUM DEODATUM.

TANDEM, chare, tuæ mihi pervenere tabellæ,
 Pertulit et voces nuncia charta tuas ;
 Pertulit, occidua Devæ Cestrensis ab ora
 Vergivium prono qua petit amne salum.
 Multum, crede, juvat terras aluisse remotas 5
 Pectus amans nostri, tamque fidele caput,
 Quodque mihi lepidum tellus longinqua sodalem
 Debet, at unde brevi reddere jussa velit.
 Me tenet urbs reflua quam Thamesis alluit unda,
 Meque, nec invitum, patria dulcis habet. 10
 Jam nec arundiferum mihi cura revisere Camum,
 Nec dudum vetiti me laris angit amor :
 Nuda nec arva placent, umbrasque negantiam molles ;
 Quam male Phœbicolis cōvenit ille locus !
 Nec duri libet usque minas perferre Magistri, 15

Cæteraque ingenio non subeunda meo.
 Si sit hoc exilium patrios adiisse penates,
 Et vacuum curis otia grata sequi,
 Non ego vel profugi nomen sortemve recuso,
 Lætus et exilii conditione fruor. 20
 O utinam vates nunquam graviora tulisset
 Ille Tomitano flebilis exul agro;
 Non tunc Ionio quicquam cessisset Homero,
 Neve foret victo laus tibi prima, Maro.
 Tempora nam licet hic placidis dare libera Musis,
 Et totum rapiunt me, mea vita, libri.

 Et vocat ad plausus garrula scena suos.

IN OBITUM PRÆCONIS ACADEMICI CANTABRIGIENSIS.

TE, qui conspicuus baculo fulgente solebas
 Palladium toties ore ciere gregem,
 Ultima præconum præconem te quoque sæva
 Mors rapit, officio nec favet ipsa suo;
 Candidiora licet fuerint tibi tempora plumis 5
 Sub quibus accipimus delituisse Jovem.
 O dignus tamen Hæmonio juvenescere succo,
 Dignus in Æsonios vivere posse dies,
 Dignus quem Stygiis medica revocaret ab undis

ELEG. III. ANNO ÆTATIS 17.

IN OBITUM PRÆSULIS WINTONIENSIS.

MÆSTUS eram, et tacitus nullo comitante sedebam,
 Hærebantque animo tristia plura meo,
 Protinus en subiit funestæ cladis imago,
 Fecit in Angliaco quam Libitina solo; [turres,
 Dum procerum ingressa est splendentes marmore
 Dira sepulchrali mors metuenda face;
 Pulsavitque auro gravidos et jaspide muros,
 Nec metuit satrapum sternere falce greges.

¹⁷ regina] See Eleg. iii. 16.

²¹ Academia] The penultimate syllable shortened against the best authorities, and so at the conclusion of his Eleg. Liber (see p. 282), 'umbrosa Academia rivos.'

⁴ Libitina] The plague that now raged in London, and carried off 35,417 persons. Whitelock's Mem. p. 2. Warton.

Tunc memini clarique ducis, fratrisque verendi
 Intempestivis ossa cremata rogis : 10
 Et memini Heroum quos vidit ad æthera raptos,
 Flevit et amissos Belgia tota duces :
 At te præcipue luxi, dignissime Præsul,
 Wintoniæque olim gloria magna tuæ ;
 Delicui fletu, et tristi sic ore querebar : 15
 “ Mors fera, Tartareo diva secunda Jovi,
 Nonne satis quod sylva tuas persentiat iras,
 Et quod in herbosos jus tibi detur agros,
 Quodque afflata tuo marcescant lilia tabo,
 Et crocus, et pulchræ Cypridi sacra rosa ; 20
 Nec sinis, ut semper fluvio contermina quercus
 Miretur lapsus prætereuntis aquæ ?
 Et tibi succumbit, liquido quæ plurima cœlo
 Evehitur pennis, quamlibet augur avis,
 Et quæ mille nigris errant animalia sylvis, 25
 Et quot alunt mutum Proteos antra pecus.

 Nobileque in pectus certas ecuisse sagittas,

 Roscidus occiduis Hesperus exit aquis,
 Et Tartessiaco submerserat æquore currum
 Phœbus, ab Eoö littore mensus iter : 34
 Nec mora, membra cavo posui refovenda cubili,
 Condiderant oculos noxque soporque meos ;
 Cum mihi visus eram lato spatiarier agro :
 Heu ! nequit ingenium visa referre meum.
 Illic punicea radiabant omnia luce,
 Ut matutino cum juga sole rubent. 40
 Ac veluti cum pandit opes Thaumantia proles,
 Vestitu nituit multicolore solum :
 Non dea tam variis ornavit floribus hortos
 Alcinoi, Zephyro Chloris amata levi.
 Flumina vernantes lambunt argentea campos, 45
 Ditiôr Hesperio flavet arena Tago.
 Serpit odoriferas per opes levis aura Favoni,
 Aura sub innumeris humida nata rosis.

⁵⁰ domus] ‘Luciferi domus’ is the palace of the Sun. (See Prolusiones, p. 120), and not as T. Warton conjectured, the abode of Satan.

Ipse racemiferis dum densas vitibus umbras,
 Et pelluentes miror ubique locos,
 Ecce mihi subito Præsul Wintonius astat,
 Sidereum nitido fulsit in ore jubar ;
 Vestis ad auratos defluxit candida talos, 55
 Infula divinum cinxerat alba caput.
 Dumque senex tali incedit venerandus amictu,
 Intremuit læto florea terra sono.
 Agmina gemmatis plaudunt coelestia pennis,
 Pura triumphali personat æthra tuba. 60
 Quisque novum amplexu comitem cantuque sa-
 lutat,
 Hosque aliquis placido misit ab ore sonos :
 “ Nate veni, et patrii felix cape gaudia regni,
 Semper abhinc duro, nate, labore vaca.”
 Dixit, et aligeræ tetigerunt nabilia turmæ ; 65
 At mihi cum tenebris aurea pulsa quies.
 Flebam turbatos Cephaleia pellice somnos :
 Talia contingant somnia sæpe mihi.

ELEG. IV. ANNO ÆTATIS 18.

Ad THOMAM JUNIUM præceptorem suum, apud mercatores
 Anglicos Hamburgæ agentes, Pastoris munere fungentem.

CURRE per immensum subito, mea litera, pontum ;
 I, pete Teutonicos læve per æquor agros :
 Segnes rumpe moras, et nil, precor, obstet eunti.
 Et festinantis nil remoretur iter.

Ipse ego Sicanio frænantem carcere ventos 5
 Æolon, et virides sollicitabo Deos,
 Cæruleamque suis comitatam Dorida Nymphis,
 Ut tibi dent placidam per sua regna viam.
 Aut tu, si poteris, celeres tibi sume jugales,
 Vecta quibus Colchis fugit ab ore viri ; 10
 At queis Triptolemus Scythicas devenit in oras,
 Gratas Eleusina missus ab urbe puer.
 Atque ubi Germanas flavere videbis arenas,
 Ditis ad Hamburgæ mœnia flecte gradum,
 Dicitur occiso quæ ducere nomen ab Hama, 15
 Cimbrica quem fertur clava dedisse neci :
 Vivit ibi antiquæ clarus pietatis honore
 Præsul, Christicolas pascere doctus oves ;
 Ille quidem est animæ plusquam pars altera nostræ,
 Dimidio vitæ vivere cogor ego. 20
 Hei mihi quot pelagi, quot montes interjecti,
 Me faciunt alia parte carere mei !
 Charior ille mihi, quam tu, doctissime Graium,
 Cliniasi, pronepos qui Telamonis erat ;
 Quamque Stagyrites generoso magnus alumno, 25
 Quem peperit Lybico Chaonis alma Jovi.
 Qualis Amyntorides, qualis Philyræius heros
 Myrmidonum regi, talis et ille mihi.

 Needum ejus licuit mihi lumina pascere vultu,

 Vade igitur, cursuque Eurum præverte sonorum,

 Tu modo da veniam fasso, veniamque roganti,
 Crimina diminui, quæ patuere, solent.
 Non ferus in pavidos rictus diducit hiantes,
 Vulnifico pronos nec rapit ungue leo.
 Sæpe sarissiferi crudelia pectora Thracis 65
 Supplicis ad mœstas deliquere preces :
 Extensæque manus avertunt fulminis ictus,
 Placat et iratos hostia parva Deos.
 Jamque diu scripsisse tibi fuit impetus illi,
 Neve moras ultra ducere passus Amor ; 70
 Nam vaga Fama refert, heu nuntia vera malorum !
 In tibi finitimis bella tumere locis,
 Teque tuamque urbem truculento milite cingi,
 Et jam Saxonicos arma parasse duces.
 Te circum late campos populatur Enyo, 75
 Et sata carne virum jam cruor arva rigat ;
 Germanisque suum concessit Thracia Martem,
 Illuc Odrysios Mars pater egit equos ;
 Perpetuoque comans jam deflorescit oliva,
 Fugit et ærisonam Diva perosa tubam, 80
 Fugit io terris, et jam non ultima virgo
 Creditur ad superas justa volasse domos.
 Te tamen interea belli circumsonat horror,
 Vivis et ignoto solus inopsque solo ;

 Patri dura parens, et saxis sævior albis

 Siccine te decet innocuos exponere fœtus,
 Siccine in externam ferrea cogis humum, 90
 Et sinis ut terris quærant alimenta remotis
 Quos tibi prospiciens miserat ipse Deus ;
 Et qui læta ferunt de cœlo nuntia, quique,
 Quæ via post cineres ducat ad astra, docent ?
 Digna quidem Stygiis quæ vivas clausa tenebris,
 Æternaque animæ digna perire fame !
 Haud aliter vates terræ Thesbitidis olim
 Pressit inassueto devia tesqua pede,
 Desertasque Arabum salebras, dum regis Achabi
 Effugit, atque tuas, Sidoni dira, manus : 100
 Talis et horrisono laceratus membra flagello,
 Paulus ab Æmathia pellitur urbe Cilix.
 Piscosæque ipsum Gergessæ civis Iesum
 Finibus ingratus jussit abire suis.
 At tu sume animos, nec spes cadat anxia curis, 105
 Nec tua concutiat decolor ossa metus.
 Sis etenim quamvis fulgentibus obsitus armis,
 Intententque tibi millia tela necem,
 At nullis vel inerme latus violabitur armis,
 Deque tuo cuspis nulla cruore bibet. 110

 Assyrios fudit nocte silente viros ;
 Inque fugam vertit quos in Samaritadas oras 115
 Misit ab antiquis prisca Damascus agris,
 Terruit et densas pavido cum rege cohortes,
 Aere dum vacuo buccina clara sonat,
 Cornea pulvereum dum verberat ungula campum,
 Currus arenosam dum quatit actus humum,
 Auditurque hinnitus equorum ad bella ruentum,
 Et strepitus ferri, murmuraque alta virum.
 Et tu (quod superest miseris) sperare memento,
 Et tua magnanimo pectore vince mala ;
 Nec dubites quandoque frui melioribus annis, 125
 Atque iterum patrios posse videre lares.

ELEG. V. ANNO ÆTATIS 20.

IN ADVENTUM VERIS.

IN se perpetuo Tempus revolubile gyro
 Jam revocat Zephyros, vere tepente, novos ;
 Induiturque brevem Tellus reparata juventam,
 Jamque soluta gelu dulce virescit humus.
 Fallor ? an et nobis redeunt in carmina vires, 5
 Ingeniumque mihi munere veris adest ?
 Munere veris adest, iterumque vigescit ab illo,

¹²³ Et] For many obvious reasons, 'At' is likely to be the true reading. Warton.

⁶ mihi] This change of person from 'Nobis' in the former line, again occurs.

(Quis putet ?) atque aliquod jam sibi poscit opus.
 Castalis ante oculos, bifidumque cacumen oberrat,
 Et mihi Pyrenen somnia nocte ferunt ; 10
 Concitaque arcano fervent mihi pectora motu,
 Et furor, et sonitus me sacer intus agit.
 Delius ipse venit, video Penëide lauro
 Implicitos crines, Delius ipse venit.
 Jam mihi mens liquidi raptatur in ardua cœli, 15
 Perque vagas nubes corpore liber eo ; [tum,
 Perque umbras, perque antra feror penetralia va-
 Et mihi fana patent interiora Deum ;
 Intuiturque animus toto quid agatur olympo,
 Nec fugiunt oculos Tartara cæca meos. 20
 Quid tam grande sonat distento spiritus ore ?
 Quid parit hæc rabies, quid sacer iste furor ?
 Ver mihi, quod dedit ingenium, cantabitur illo ;
 Profuerint isto reddita dona modo.
 Jam, Philomela, tuos, foliis adoperta novellis, 25
 Instituis modulos, dum silet omne nemus :
 Urbe ego, tu sylvæ, simul incipiamus utrique,
 Et simul adventum veris uterque canat.
 Veris io rediere vices, celebremus honores
 Veris, et hoc subeat Musa perennis opus. 30
 Jam sol Æthiopas fugiens Tithoniaque arva,
 Flectit ad Arctoas aurea lora plagas.
 Est breve noctis iter, brevis est mora noctis opacæ,

Horrida cum tenebris exulat illa suis.
 Jamque Lycaonius plastrum cœleste Bootes 35
 Non longa sequitur fessus ut ante via ;
 Nunc etiam solitas circum Jovis atria toto
 Excubias agitant sidera rara polo :
 Nam dolus, et cædes, et vis cum nocte recessit,
 Neve Giganteum Dii timuere scelus. 40
 Forte aliquis scopuli recubans in vertice pastor,
 Roscida cum primo sole rubescit humus,
 Hac, ait, hac certe caruisti nocte puella,
 Phœbe, tua, celeres quæ retineret equos.
 Læta suas repetit sylvas, pharetramque resumit 45
 Cynthia, luciferas ut videt alta rotas ;
 Et tenues ponens radios, gaudere videtur
 Officium fieri tam breve fratris ope.
 Desere, Phœbus ait, thalamos, Aurora, seniles,
 Quid juvat effæto procubuisse toro ? 50
 Te manet Æolides viridi venator in herba :
 Surge, tuos ignes altus Hymettus habet.
 Flava verecundo dea crimen in ore fatetur,
 Et matutinos ocus urget equos.
 Exuit invisam Tellus rediviva senectam, 55
 Et cupit amplexus, Phœbe, subire tuos ;
 Et cupit, et digna est. Quid enim formosius illa,
 Pandit ut omniferos luxuriosa sinus,
 Atque Arabum spirat messes, et ab ore venusto
Mitia cum Papiriis fudit automa rosis ? 60
 Ecce coronatur sacro frons ardua luco,

Cingit ut Idæam pinea turris Opim ;
 Et vario madidos intexit flore capillos,
 Floribus et visa est posse placere suis.
 Floribus effusus ut erat redimita capillos, 65
 Tænario placuit diva Sicana Deo.
 Aspice, Phœbe, tibi faciles hortantur amores,
 Mellitasque movent flamina verna preces :
 Cinnamea Zephyrus leve plaudit odorifer ala,
 Blanditiasque tibi ferre videntur aves. 70
 Nec sine dote tuos temeraria quærit amores
 Terra, nec optatos poscit egena toros ;
 Alma salutiferum medicos tibi gramen in usus
 Præbet, et hinc titulos adjuvat ipsa tuos :
 Quod si te pretium, si te fulgentia tangunt 75
 Munera, (muneribus sæpe coemptus amor)
 Illa tibi ostentat quascunque sub æquore vasto,
 Et superinjectis montibus abdit opes.
 Ah quoties, cum tu clivoso fessus Olympe
 In vespertinas præcipitaris aquas, 80
 Cur te, inquit, cursu languentem, Phœbe, diurno
 Hesperii recipit cærula mater aquis ?
 Quid tibi cum Tethy ? Quid cum Tartesside lympa ?
 Dia quid immundo perluis ora salo ?
 Frigora, Phœbe, mea melius captabis in umbra,
 Huc ades, ardentes imbue rore comas.

⁸³ Quid] Compare Ov. Ep. Heroid. vi. 47, 'Quid mihi cum Minyis ?' &c. Warton.

⁸⁸ Tethy] Casimir constantly gives the wrong quantity to this word.

Mollior egelida veniet tibi somnus in herba ;
Huc ades, et gremio lumina pone meo.
Quaque jaces, circum mulcebit lene susurrans
Aura per humentes corpora fusa rosas : 90
Nec me (crede mihi) terrent Semelëia fata,
Nec Phaetonteo fumidus axis equo ;
Cum tu, Phœbe, tuo sapientius uteris igni :
Huc ades, et gremio lumina pone meo.
Sic Tellus lasciva suos suspirat amores ; 95
Matris in exemplum cætera turba ruunt :
Nunc etenim toto currit vagus orbe Cupido,
Languentesque foveat solis ab igne faces.
Insonuere novis lethalia cornua nervis,
Triste micant ferro tela corusca novo, 100
Jamque vel invictam tentat superasse Dianam,
Quæque sedet sacro Vesta pudica foco.
Ipsa senescentem reparat Venus annua formam,
Atque iterum tepido creditur orta mari.
Marmoreas juvenes clamant Hymenæe per urbes,
Littus, io Hymen, et cava saxa sonant.
Cultior ille venit, tunicaque decentior apta,
Puniceum redolet vestis odora crocum.
Egrediturque frequens, ad amœni gaudia veris,
Virgineos auro cincta puella sinus : 110
Votum est cuique suum, votum est tamen omnibus
unum,
Ut sibi, quem cupiat, det Cytherea virum.
Nunc quoque septena modulatur arundine pastor,
Et sua, quæ jungat, carmina Phyllis habet.
Navita nocturno placat sua sidera cantu, 115

Delphinasque leves ad vada summa vocat.
 Jupiter ipse alto cum conjuge ludit Olympo,
 Convocat et famulos ad sua festa Deos.
 Nunc etiam Satyri, cum sera erepuscula surgunt,
 Pervolitant celeri florea rura choro, 120
 Sylvanusque sua cyparissi fronde revinctus,
 Semicaperque Deus, semideusque caper.
 Quæque sub arboribus Dryades latuere vetustis,
 Per juga, per solos expatiantur agros.
 Per sata luxuriat fruticetaque Mænalius Pan, 125
 Vix Cybele mater, vix sibi tuta Ceres;
 Atque aliquam cupidus prædatur Oreada Faunus,
 Consulit in trepidos dum sibi nympa pedes;
 Jamque latet, latitansque cupit male tecta videri,
 Et fugit, et fugiens pervelit ipsa capi. 130
 Dii quoque non dubitant cælo præponere sylvas,
 Et sua quisque sibi numina lucus habet.
 Et sua quisque diu sibi numina lucus habeto,
 Nec vos arborea dii precor ite domo.
 Te referant miseris te, Jupiter, aurea terris 135
 Sæcla: quid ad nimbos aspera tela redis?
 Tu saltem lente rapidos age, Phœbe, jugales,
 Qua potes, et sensim tempora veris eant;
 Brumaque productas tarde ferat hispida noctes,
 Ingruat et nostro serior umbra polo. 140

ELEG. VI.

AD CAROLUM DEODATUM RURI COMMORANTEM,

Qui cum Idibus Decemb. scripsisset, et sua carmina excusari postulasset si solito minus essent bona, quod inter lautitias, quibus erat ab amicis exceptus, haud satis felicem operam Musis dare se posse affirmabat, hoc habuit responsum.

MITTO tibi sanam non pleno ventre salutem,
 Qua tu distento forte carere potes.
 At tua quid nostram proleat Musa camœnam,
 Nec sinit optatas posse sequi tenebras?
 Carmine scire velis quam te redamemque colamque,
 Crede mihi vix hoc carmine scire queas. ⁶
 Nam neque noster amor modulis includitur arctis,
 Nec venit ad claudos integer ipse pedes.
 Quam bene solennes epulas, hilaremque Decem-brem,
 Festaque cœlifugam quæ coluere Deum, ¹⁰
 Deliciasque refers, hiberni gaudia ruris,
 Haustaque per lepidos Gallica musta focos!
 Quid quereris refugam vino dapibusque poesin?
 Carmen amat Bacchum, carmina Bacchus amat.
 Nec puduit Phœbum virides gestasse corymbos,
 Atque hederam lauro præposuisse suæ. ¹⁵
 Sæpius Aoniis clamavit collibus Eucœ
 Mista Thyoneo turba novena choro

⁵ carmine] The vowel made short before sc.

Naso Corallæis mala carmina misit ab agris :
 Non illic epulæ, non sata vitis erat. 20
 Quid nisi vina, rosasque, racemiferumque Lyæum,
 Cantavit brevibus Tëia Musa modis ?
 Pindaricosque inflat numeros Teumesius Euan,
 Et redolet sumptum pagina quæque merum ;
 Dum gravis everso currus crepat axe supinus, 25
 Et volat Eleo pulvere fuscus eques.
 Quadrimoque madens Lyricen Romanus Iaccho,
 Dulce canit Glyceran, flavicomamque Chloen.
 Jam quoque lauta tibi generoso mensa paratu
 Mentis alit vires, ingeniumque fovet. 30
 Massica fœcundam despumant pocula venam,
 Fundis et ex ipso condita metra cado.
 Addimus his artes, fusumque per intima Phœbum
 Corda ; favent uni Bacchus, Apollo, Ceres.
 Scilicet haud mirum, tam dulcia carmina per te,
 Numine composito, tres peperisse Deos.
 Nunc quoque Thressa tibi cælato barbitos auro
 Insonat arguta molliter icta manu ;
 Auditurque chelys suspensa tapetia circum,
 Virgineos tremula quæ regat arte pedes. 40
 Illa tuas saltem teneant spectacula Musas,
 Et revocent, quantum crapula pellit iners.
 Crede mihi, dum psallit ebur, comitataque plectrum

Implet odoratos festa chorea tholos,
Percipies tacitum per pectora serpere Phœbum,
Quale repentinus permeat ossa calor,
Perque puellares oculos, digitumque sonantem,
Irruet in totos lapsa Thalia sinus.
Namque Elegia levis multorum cura Deorum est,
Et vocat ad numeros quemlibet illa suos ; 50
Liber adest elegis, Eratoque, Ceresque, Venusque,
Et cum purpurea matre tenellus Amor.
Talibus inde licent convivium larga poetis,
Sæpius et veteri commaduisse mero :
At qui bella refert, et adulto sub Jove cœlum, 55
Heroasque pios, semideosque duces,
Et nunc sancta canit superum consulta deorum,
Nunc latrata fero regna profunda cane,
Ille quidem parce, Samii pro more magistri,
Vivat, et innocuos præbeat herba cibos ;
Stet prope fagineo pellucida lympha catillo,
Sobriaque e puro pocula fonte bibat.
Additur huic scelerisque vacans, et casta juven-
ventus,
Et rigidi mores, et sine labe manus :
Qualis veste nitens sacra, et lustralibus undis, 65
Surgis ad infensos augur iture Deos.
Hoc ritu vixisse ferunt post rapta sagacem
Lumina Tiresian, Ogygiumque Linon,
Et lare devoto profugum Calchanta, senemque
Orpheon, edomitis sola per antra feris ; 70
Sic dapis exiguus, sic rivi potor Homerus
Dulichium vexit per freta longa virum,

Et per monstificam Perseïæ Phœbados aulam,
 Et vada fœmineis insidiosa sonis, 74
 Perque tuas, rex ime, domos, ubi sanguine nigro
 Dicitur umbrarum detinuisse greges.
 Diis etenim sacer est vates, divumque sacerdos,
 Spirat et occultum pectus et ora Jovem.
 At tu siquid agam scitabere (si modo saltem
 Esse putas tanti noscere siquid agam) 80
 Paciferum canimus cœlesti semine regem,
 Fausta que sacratis sæcula pacta libris ;
 Vagitumque Dei, et stabulantem paupere tecto
 Qui suprema suo cum patre regna colit ;
 Stelliparumque polum, modulantesque æthere tur-
 Et subito elisos ad sua fana Deos. [mas,
 Dona quidem dedimus Christi natalibus illa,
 Illa sub auroram lux mihi prima tulit.
 Te quoque pressa manent patriis meditata cicutis ;
 Tu mihi, cui recitem, iudicis instar eris. 90

ELEG. VII. ANNO ÆTATIS 19.

NOSDUM, blanda, tuas leges, Amathusia, noram,
 Et Paphio vacuum pectus ab igne fuit.
 Sæpe cupidineas, puerilia tela, sagittas,
 Atque tuum spreui, maxime, numen, Amor.
 Tu, puer, imbelles, dixi, transfige columbas, 5

Conveniunt tenero mollia bella duci :
 Aut de passeribus timidos age, parve, triumphos,
 Hæc sunt militiæ digna trophæa tuæ.
 In genus humanum quid inania dirigis arma ?
 Non valet in fortes ista pharetra viros. 10
 Non tulit hoc Cyprius, neque enim Deus ullus ad
 Promptior, et duplici jam ferus igne calet. [iras
 Ver erat, et summæ radians per culmina villæ
 Attulerat primam lux tibi, Maie, diem :
 At mihi adhuc refugam quærebant lumina noctem
 Nec matutinum sustinuere jubar.
 Astat Amor lecto, pietis Amor impiger alis ;
 Prodidit astantem mota pharetra Deum :
 Prodidit et facies, et dulce minantis ocelli,
 Et quicquid puero dignum et Amore fuit. 20
 Talis in æterno juvenis Sigeius Olympo
 Miscet amatori pocula plena Jovi ;
 Aut, qui formosas pellexit ad oscula nymphas,
 Thiodamantæus Naide raptus Hylas.
 Addideratque iras, sed et has decuisse putares, 25
 Addideratque truces, nec sine felle, minas.
 Et miser exemplo sapuisses tutius, inquit :
 Nunc mea quid possit dextera, testis eris.
 Inter et expertos vires numerabere nostras,
 Et faciam vero per tua damna fidem. 30
 Ipse ego, si nescis, strato Pythone superbum
 Edomui Phœbum, cessit et ille mihi ;

Et quoties meminit Peneidos, ipse fatetur
 Certius et gravius tela nocere mea.
 Me nequit adductum curvare peritius arcum, 35
 Qui post terga solet vincere, Parthus eques :
 Cydoniusque mihi cedit venator, et ille
 Incius uxori qui necis author erat.
 Est etiam nobis ingens quoque victus Orion,
 Herculeæque manus, Herculeusque comes. 40
 Jupiter ipse licet sua fulmina torqueat in me,
 Hærebunt lateri spicula nostra Jovis.
 Cætera, quæ dubitas, melius mea tela docebunt,
 Et tua non leviter corda petenda mihi.
 Nec te, stulte, tuæ poterunt defendere Musæ, 45
 Nec tibi Phœbæus porriget anguis opem.
 Dixit, et aurato quatiens mucrone sagittam,
 Evolat in tepidos Cypridos ille sinus.
 At mihi risuro tonuit ferus ore minaci,
 Et mihi de puero non metus ullus erat. 50
 Et modo qua nostri spatiantur in urbe Quirites,
 Et modo villarum proxima rura placent.
 Turba frequens, facieque simillima turba dearum,
 Splendida per medias itque reditque vias ;
 Auctaque luce dies gemino fulgore coruscat : 55
 Fallor ? An et radios hinc quoque Phœbus habet ?
 Hæc ego non fugi spectacula grata severus,
 Impetus et quo me fert juvenilis, agor :

37 Cydoniusque] Ov. Met. viii. 22. 'Cydneæque pharetras.' the first syllable of 'Cydonius.' Virg. Eclog. x. 39; but see Heinsius's note on Ovid. Art. Am. i. 293.

Lumina luminibus male providus obvia misi,
 Neve oculos potui continuisse meos.
 Unam forte aliis supereminuisse notabam ;
 Principium nostri lux erat illa mali.
 Sic Venus optaret mortalibus ipsa videri,
 Sic regina Deum conspicienda fuit.
 Hanc memor objecit nobis malus ille Cupido, 65
 Solus et hos nobis texuit ante dolos.
 Nec procul ipse vafer latuit ; multæque sagittæ,
 Et facis a tergo grande pependit onus :
 Nec mora : nunc ciliis hæsit, nunc virginis ori,
 Insilit hinc labiis, insidet inde genis : 70
 Et quascunque agilis partes jaculator oberrat,
 Hei mihi, mille locis pectus inermis ferit.
 Protinus insoliti subierunt corda furores,
 Uror amans intus, flammaque totus eram.
 Interea misero quæ jam mihi sola placebat, 75
 Ablata est oculis non reditura meis.
 Ast ego progredior tacite querebundus, et excors,
 Et dubius volui sæpe referre pedem.
 Findor, et hæc remanet : sequitur pars altera votum,
 Raptaque tam subito gaudia flere juvat. 80
 Sic dolet amissum proles Junonia cælum,
 Inter Lemniacos præcipitata focos :
 Talis et abreptum solem respexit, ad Orcum
 Vectus ab attonitis Amphiaræus equis.
 Quid faciam infelix, et luctu victus ? Amores 85
 Nec licet inceptos ponere, neve sequi.

⁸⁴ Amphiaræus] Ov. Ep. Pont. iii. i. 52.

O utinam, spectare semel mihi detur amatos
Vultus, et coram tristia verba loqui!
Forsitan et duro non est adamante creata,
Forte nec ad nostras surdeat illa preces! 90
Crede mihi, nullus sic infeliciters arsit,
Ponar in exemplo primus et unus ego.
Parce precor, teneri cum sis Deus ales amoris,
Pugnent officio nec tua facta tuo.
Jam tuus O certe est mihi formidabilis arcus, 95
Nate dea, jaculis nec minus igne potens:
Et tua fumabunt nostris altaria donis,
Solus et in superis tu mihi summus eris.
Deme meos tandem, verum nec deme, furores,
Nescio cur, miser est suaviter omnis amans:
Tu modo da facilis, posthæc mea siqua futura est,
Cuspis amatueros figat ut una duos.

HÆC ego, mente olim læva, studioque supino,
Nequitiae posui vana trophæa meæ.
Scilicet abreptum sic me malus impulit error,
Indocilisque ætas prava magistra fuit.
Donec Socraticos umbrosa Academia rivos 5
Præbuit, admissum dedocuitque jugum.
Protinus, extinctis ex illo tempore flammis,
Cincta rigent multo pectora nostra gelu.
Unde suis frigus metuit puer ipse sagittis,
Et Diomedeam vim timet ipsa Venus. 10

EPIGRAMMATUM LIBER.

I. IN PRODITIONEM ROMBARDICAM.

CUM simul in regem nuper satrapasque Britannos
 Ausus es infandum, perfide Fauxe, nefas,
 Fallor? An et mitis voluisti ex parte videri,
 Et pensare mala cum pietate scelus?
 Scilicet hos alti missurus ad atria cœli, 5
 Sulphureo curru, flammivolisque rotis:
 Qualiter ille, feris caput inviolabile Parcís,
 Liquit Iördanios turbine raptus agros.

II. IN EANDEM.

SICCINE tentasti cœlo donasse Iäcobum,
 Quæ septemgemino Bellua monte lates?
 Ni meliora tuum poterit dare munera numen,
 Parce, precor, donis insidiosa tuis.
 Ille quidem sine te consortia serus adivit 5
 Astra, nec inferni pulveris usus ope.
 Sic potius fædos in cælum pelle cucullos,
 Et quot habet brutos Roma profana Deos:

¹ Iäcobum] In this poem, and in the Quint. Novembr. ver. 1, and 203, the two first syllables of Iacobus are made short, and the third long. In Ep. iii. ver. 1, the second syllable is long, and the third short.

Namque hac aut alia nisi quemque adjuveris arte,
Crede mihi, cœli vix bene scandet iter. 10

III. IN EANDEM.

PURGATOREM animæ derisit Iacobus ignem,
Et sine quo superum non adeunda domus.
Frenduit hoc trina monstrum Latiale corona,
Movit et horrificum cornua dena minax.
Et nec inultus, ait, temnes mea sacra, Britanne : 5
Supplicium spreta religione dabis.
Et si stelligeras unquam penetraveris arces,
Non nisi per flammas triste patebit iter.
O quam funesto cecinisti proxima vero,
Verbaque ponderibus vix caritura suis ! 10
Nam prope Tartaræo sublime rotatus ab igni,
Ibat ad æthereas, umbra perusta, plagas.

IV. IN EANDEM.

QUEM modo Roma suis devoverat impia diris,
Et styge damnarat, Tænarioque sinu ;
Hunc, vice mutata, jam tollere gestit ad astra,
Et cupit ad superos evehere usque Deos.

V. IN INVENTOREM BOMBARDÆ.

IAPETIONIDEM laudavit cæca vetustas,
Qui tulit ætheream solis ab axe facem ;
At mihi major erit, qui lurida creditur arma,
Et trifidum fulmen surripuisse Jovi.

VI. AD LEONORAM ROMÆ CANENTEM.

ANGELUS unicuique suus, sic credite gentes,
 Obtigit æthereis ales ab ordinibus.
 Quid mirum, Leonora, tibi si gloria major?
 Nam tua præsentem vox sonat ipsa Deum.
 Aut Deus, aut vacui certe mens tertia cœli 5
 Per tua secreto guttura serpit agens;
 Serpit agens, facilisque docet mortalia corda
 Sensim immortalī assuescere posse sono.
 Quod si cuncta quidem Deus est, per cunctaque
 fusus,
 In te una loquitur, cætera mutus habet. 10

VII. AD EANDEM.

ALTERA Torquatum cepit Leonora poetam,
 Cujus ab insano cessit amore furens.
 Ah miser ille tuo quanto felicius ævo
 Perditus, et propter te, Leonora, foret!
 Et te Pieria sensisset voce canentem 5
 Aurea maternæ fila movere lyræ:
 Quamvis Dirceō torsisset lumina Pentheo
 Sævior, aut totus desipuisset iners,
 Tu tamen errantes cæca vertigine sensus
 Voce eadem poteras composuisse tua; 10

⁶ fila] Buchanan Eleg. vii. p. 44,
 ‘Aureaque Orphææ fila fuisse lyræ.’ Todd.

Et poteras, ægro spirans sub corde, quietem
Flexanimo cantu restituisset sibi.

VIII. AD EANDEM.

CREDULA quid liquidam Sirena, Neapoli, jactas,
Claraque Parthenopes fana Achelöiados ;
Littoreamque tua defunctam Naida ripa,
Corpora Chalcidico sacra dedisse rogo?
Illa quidem vivitque, et amœna Tibridis unda 5
Mutavit rauci murmura Pausilipi.
Illic Romulidum studiis ornata secundis,
Atque homines cantu detinet atque Deos.

IX. IN SALMASII HUNDREDAM.*

QUIS expedit Salmasio suam Hundredam,
Picamque docuit verba nostra conari?
Magister artis venter, et Jacobei
Centum exulantis viscera marsupii regis.
Quod si dolosi spes refulserit nummi, 5
Ipse, Antichristi modo qui primatum Papæ
Minatus uno est dissipare sufflatu,
Cantabit ultro Cardinalitium melos.

¹² sibi] 'Sibi' is certainly wrong. 'Ille' had preceded, ver. 3.

X. IN SALMASIUM.

GAUDETE scombri, et quicquid est piscium salo
 Qui frigida hyeme incolitis argentes freta !
 Vestrum misertus ille Salmasius Eques
 Bonus, amicire nuditatem cogitat ;
 Chartæque largus, apparat papyrinos 5
 Vobis cucullos, præferentes Claudii
 Insignia, nomenque et decus, Salmasii :
 Gestetis ut per omne cetarium forum
 Equitis clientes, scriniis mungentium
 Cubito virorum, et capsulis, gratissimos. 10

XI.

GALLI ex concubitu gravidam te, Pontia, Mori,
 Quis bene moratam, morigeramque neget ?

XII. APOLOGUS DE RUSTICO ET HERO.

RUSTICUS ex malo sapidissima poma quotannis
 Legit, et urbano lecta dedit Domino :
 Hinc incredibili fructus dulcedine captus,
 Malum ipsam in proprias transtulit areolas.
 Hactenus illa ferax, sed longo debilis ævo, 5
 Mota solo assueto, protinus aret iners.
 Quod tandem ut patuit Domino, spe lusus inani,

¹⁰ Cubito] 'Quoties ego vidi patrem tuum cubito emungentem.' Sueton. vit. Horat. p. 525. Warton.

Damnavit celeres in sua damna manus ;
 Atque ait, Heu quanto satius fuit illa Coloni,
 Parva licet, grato dona tulisse animo ! 10
 Possem ego avaritiam frænare, gulamque voracem :
 Nunc periire mihi et fœtus, et ipse parens.

XIII. AD CHRISTINAM SUECORUM REGINAM NOMINE CROMWELLI.

BELLIPOTENS virgo, septem regina trionum,
 Christina, Arctoi lucida stella poli !
 Cernis, quas merui dura sub casside rugas,
 Utque senex armis impiger ora tero ;
 Invia fatorum dum per vestigia nitor,

⁴ Utque] Var. Lect. ‘ sicque.’ ‘ ora fero.’ ver. 7, at tibi. Todd. Toland first printed these lines in his life of Milton, p. 123, and ascribes them indecisively to Milton or Marvell; consult Warton's note, ed. Todd, vi. 267. I wish Mr. Warton had, by a few minutes' application of his fine poetical genius, secured these lines against the attempt of other versifiers; but

PARERE fati discite legibus,
 Manusque Parcæ jam date supplices,

as he passed them unnoticed, I shall venture to give my translation.

Christina! warrior-maid, who ru'st alone;
 Thou star-bright queen of all the Polar zone!
 Mark, how the helm has press'd this wrinkled brow,
 How these gray hairs their ancient toils avow!
 Onward through Fate's untrodden paths I go,
 Where'er the people's mandate points the foe.
 Yet this stern brow to thee submits its frown,
 Not always cruel to the monarch's crown.

Si destinatum pellere dextera
 Mortem valeret, non ferus Hercules, 10
 Nessi venenatus cruore,
 Æmathiâ jacuisset Oetâ :
 Nec fraude turpi Palladis invidæ
 Vidisset occisum Ilion Hectora, aut
 Quem larva Pelidis peremit 15
 Ense Locro, Jove lacrymante.
 Si triste fatum verba Hecatœia
 Fugare possint, Telegoni parens
 Vixisset infamis, potentique
 Ægiali soror usa virgâ. 20
 Numenque trinum fallere si queant
 Artes medentûm, ignotaque gramina,
 Non gnarus herbarum Machaon

 Nec tela te fulmenque avitum,

Sceptra Caledoniis conjunxerat Anglica Scotis :
 Pacificusque novo, felix divesque, sedebat 5
 In solio, occultique doli securus et hostis :
 Cum ferus ignifluo regnans Acheronte tyrannus,
 Eumenidum pater, æthereo vagus exul Olympo,
 Forte per immensum terrarum erraverat orbem,
 Dinumerans sceleris socios, vernasque fideles, 10
 Participes regni post funera mœsta futuros.

 Et quoscunque videt puræ virtutis amantes,
 Hos cupit adjicere imperio, fraudumque magister
 Tentat inaccessum sceleri corrumpere pectus ;

 Tendit, ut incautos rapiat ; ceu Caspia tigris 20
 Insequitur trepidam deserta per avia prædam

ANNO ÆTATIS 17.

ADHUC madentes rore squalabant genæ,
Et sicca nondum lumina
Adhuc liquentis imbre turgebant salis,
Quem nuper effudi pius,
Dum mœsta charo justa persolvi rogo 5
Wintoniensis Præsulis.
Cum centilinguis Fama, proh ! semper mali
Cladisque vera nuntia,
Spargit per urbes divitis Britanniæ,
Populosque Neptuno satos, 10

Cessisse morti, et ferreis sororibus,
 Te, generis humani decus,
 Qui Rex sacrorum illa fuisti in insula
 Quæ nomen Anguillæ tenet.
 Tunc inquietum pectus ira protinus 15
 Ebulliebat fervida,
 Tumulis potentem sæpe devovens deam :
 Nec vota Naso in Ibida
 Concepit alto diriora pectore ;
 Graiusque vates parcius 20
 Turpem Lycambis execratus est dolum,
 Sponsamque Neobolen suam.
 At ecce diras ipse dum fundo graves,
 Et imprecor neci necem,
 Audisse tales videor attonitus sonos 25
 Leni, sub aura, flamine :
 Cæcos furores pone, pone vitream
 Bilemque, et irritas minas :
 Quid temere violas non nocenda numina,
 Subitoque ad iras percita ? 30
 Non est, ut arbitraris elusus miser,

22 Neobolen] This word is without authority, the right name is 'Neobule.'

29 temere] The last syllable of 'temere' always elided by Virgil, and the best writers; no authority for making it long as by many modern Latin poets. Tertullian cannot be quoted with propriety on such a question.

Erebove patre creta, sive Erinnye,
 Vastove nata sub Chao :
 Ast illa, cœlo missa stellato, Dei 35
 Messes ubique colligit ;
 Animasque mole carnea reconditas
 In lucem et auras evocat ;
 Ut cum fugaces excitant Horæ diem,
 Themidos Jovisque filiæ ; 40
 Et sempiterni ducit ad vultus patris :
 At justa raptat impios
 Sub regna furvi luctuosa Tartari,
 Sedesque subterraneas.
 Hanc ut vocantem lætus audivi, cito 45
 Fœdum reliqui carcerem,
 Volatilesque faustus inter milites
 Ad astra sublimis feror :
 Vates ut olim raptus ad cœlum senex,
 Auriga currus ignei. 50
 Non me Boötis terruere lucidi
 Sarraca tarda frigore, aut
 Formidolosi Scorpionis brachia,
 Non ensis, Orion, tuus.
 Prætervolavi fulgidi solus globum, 55
 Longeque sub pedibus deam

 Per lacteas vehor plagas, 60
 Velocitatem sæpe miratus novam;
 Donec nitentes ad fores
 Ventum est Olympi, et regiam crystallinam, et

 Sed hic tacebo; nam quis effari queat, 65
 Oriundus humano patre,
 Amœnitates illius loci? Mihi

NATURAM NON PATI SENIUM.*

HEU, quam perpetuis erroribus acta fatiscit
 Avia mens hominum, tenebrisque immersa pro-
 fundis,
 Oedipodioniam volvit sub pectore noctem!
 Quæ vesana suis metiri facta deorum
 Audet, et incisas leges adamante perenni 5
 Assimilare suis, nulloque solubile sæclo
 Consilium fati perituris alligat horis.
 Ergone marcescet sulcantibus obsita rugis
 Naturæ facies, et rerum publica mater
 Omniparum contracta uterum sterilescet ab ævo?
 Et se fassa senem, male certis passibus ibit

* This poem is replete with fanciful and ingenious allusions. It has also a vigour of expression, a dignity of sentiment, and elevation of thought, rarely found in very young writers. Warton.

Sidereum tremebunda caput? Num tetra vetustas,
Annorumque æterna fames, squalorque situsque,
Sidera vexabunt? An et insatiabile Tempus
Esuriet Cœlum, rapietque in viscera patrem? 15
Heu potuitne suas imprudens Jupiter arces
Hoc contra munisse nefas, et Temporis isto
Exemisse malo, gyrosque dedisse perennes?
Ergo erit ut quandoque sono dilapsa tremendo
Convexi tabulata ruant, atque obvius ictu 20
Stridat uterque polus, superaue ut Olympius aula
Decidat, horribilisque resecta Gorgone Pallas;
Qualis in Ægeam proles Junonia Lemnon
Deturbata sacro cecidit de limine cœli?
Tu quoque, Phœbe, tui casus imitabere nati; 25
Præcipiti curru, subitaue ferere ruina
Pronus, et extincta fumabit lampade Nereus,
Et dabit attonito feralia sibila ponto.
Tunc etiam ærei divulsis sedibus Hæmi
Dissultabit apex, imoque allisa barathro 30
Terrebunt Stygium dejecta Ceraunia Ditem,
In superos quibus usus erat, fraternaue bella.
At pater omnipotens, fundatis fortius astris,
Consuluit rerum summæ, certoque peregit
Pondere fatorum lances, atque ordine summo 35
Singulari perpetuum jussit servare tenorem.
Volvitur hinc lapsu mundi rota prima diurno;
Raptat et ambitos socia vertigine cœlos.
Tardior haud solito Saturnus, et acer ut olim
Fulmineum rutilat cristata casside Mavors,
Floridus æternum Phœbus juvenile coruscat,

Nec fovet effœtas loca per declivia terras
 Devexo temone Deus ; sed semper amica
 Luce potens, eadem currit per signa rotarum.
 Surgit odoratis pariter formosus ab Indis, 45
 Æthereum pecus albenti qui cogit Olympo,
 Mane vocans, et serus agens in pascua cœli ;
 Temporis et gemino dispertit regna colore.
 Fulget, obitque vices alterno Delia cornu,
 Cæruleumque ignem paribus complectitur ulnis.
 Nec variant elementa fidem, solitoque fragore 51
 Lurida percultas jaculantur fulmina rupes.
 Nec per inane furit leviori murmure Corus,
 Stringit et armiferos æquali horrore Gelonos
 Trux Aquilo, spiratque hyemem, nimbosque vo-
 lutat. 55

Utque solet, Siculi diverberat ima Pelori
 Rex maris, et rauca circumstrepit æquora concha
 Oceani Tubicen, nec vasta mole minorem
 Ægeona ferunt dorso Balearica cete.
 Sed neque, Terra, tibi sæcli vigor ille vetusti 60
 Priscus abest, servatque suum Narcissus odorem,
 Et puer ille suum tenet, et puer ille, decorem,
 Phœbe, tuusque, et, Cypri, tuus ; nec ditior olim
 Terra datum sceleri celavit montibus aurum Conscia, vel sub aquis gemmas. Sic denique in ævum 65

Ibit cunctarum series justissima rerum ;
 Donec flamma orbem populabitur ultima, late
 Circumplexa polos, et vasti culmina cœli ;
 Ingentique rogo flagrabit machina mundi.

AD PATREM.

NUNC mea Pierios cupiam per pectora fontes
 Irriguas torquere vias, totumque per ora
 Volvere laxatum gemino de vertice rivum ;
 Ut tenues oblita sonos audacibus alis
 Surgat in officium venerandi Musa parentis. 5
 Hoc utcunque tibi gratum, pater optime, carmen
 Exiguum meditatur opus ; nec novimus ipsi

Aptius a nobis quæ possint munera donis
Respondere tuis, quamvis nec maxima possint
Respondere tuis, nedum ut par gratia donis 10
Esse queat, vacuis quæ redditur arida verbis.
Sed tamen hæc nostros ostendit pagina census,
Et quod habemus opum charta numeravimus ista,
Quæ mihi sunt nullæ, nisi quas dedit aurea Clio,
Quas mihi semoto somni peperere sub antro, 15
Et nemoris laureta sacri Parnassides umbræ.

Nec tu vatis opus divinum despice carmen,
Quo nihil æthereos ortus, et semina cœli,
Nil magis humanam commendat origine mentem,
Sancta Prometheæ retinens vestigia flammæ. 20
Carmen amant superi, tremebundaque Tartara carmen

Ima ciere valet, divosque ligare profundos,
Et triplici duro Manes adamante coercet:
Carmines sepositi retegunt arcana futuri
Phœbades, et tremulæ pallentes ora Sibyllæ: 25
Carmina sacrificus solennes pangit ad aras,
Aurea seu sternit motantem cornua taurum;
Seu cum fata sagax fumantibus abdita fibris
Consulit, et tepidis Parcam scrutatur in extis.
Nos etiam patrium tunc cum repetemus Olympum,
Æternæque moræ stabunt immobilis ævi, 31
Ibimus auratis per cœli templa coronis,
Dulcia suaviloquo sociantes carmina plectro,
Astra quibus, geminique poli convexa sonabunt.
Spiritus et rapidos qui circinat igneus orbes, 35

Nunc quoque sidereis intercinit ipse choreis
 Immortale melos, et inenarrabile carmen ;
 Torrida dum rutilus compescit sibila serpens,
 Demissoque ferox gladio mansuescit Orion ;
 Stellarum nec sentit onus Maurusius Atlas. 40

Carmina regales epulas ornare solebant,
 Cum nondum luxus, vastæque immensa vorago
 Nota gulæ, et modico spumabat cœna Lyæo.
 Tum de more sedens festa ad convivia vates,
 Æsculea intonsos redimitus ab arbore crines, 45
 Heroumque actus, imitandaque gesta canebat,
 Et chaos, et positi late fundamina mundi,
 Reptantesque deos, et alentes numina glandes,
 Et nondum Ætneo quæsitum fulmen ab antro.
 Denique quid vocis modulamen inane juvabit 50
 Verborum sensusque vacans, numerique loquacis?
 Silvestres decet iste choros, non Orphea cantus,
 Qui tenuit fluvios, et quercubus addidit aures,
 Carmine, non cithara ; simulachraque functa
 canendo 54

Compulit in lacrymas : habet has a carmine laudes.

Nec tu perge, precor, sacras contemnere Musas,
 Nec vanas inopesque puta, quarum ipse peritus
 Munere, mille sonos numeros componis ad aptos ;

Millibus et vocem modulis variare canoram
 Doctus, Arionii merito sis nominis hæres. 60
 Nunc tibi quid mirum, si me genuisse poetam
 Contigerit, charo si tam prope sanguine juncti,
 Cognatas artes, studiumque affine sequamur?
 Ipse volens Phœbus se dispertire duobus,
 Altera dona mihi, dedit altera dona parenti; 65
 Dividuumque Deum, genitorque puerque, tenemus.

Tu tamen ut simules teneras odisse Camœnas,
 Non odisse reor; neque enim, pater, ire jubebas
 Qua via lata patet, qua pronior area lucri,
 Certaue condendi fulget spes aurea nummi: 70
 Nec rapis ad leges, male custoditaue gentis
 Jura, nec insulsis damnas clamoribus aures;
 Sed magis excultam cupiens ditescere mentem,
 Me procul urbano strepitu, secessibus altis
 Abductum, Aoniæ jucunda per otia ripæ, 75
 Phœbæo lateri comitem sinis ire beatum.
 Officium chari taceo commune parentis;
 Me poscunt majora: tuo, pater optime, sumptu

 Denique quicquid habet cælum, subjectaque cœlo

¹⁰⁹ Nec vestri sum juris ego] The last syllable of 'ego' is short; though it is occasionally made long in some of the modern Latin Poets, in the poems of Dan Heinsius, (ed. 1649) p. 209, 276, 304, also in the fifth line of Joseph Scaliger's Elegy on Thuanus.

* On the inaccuracies of language and metre in these Greek verses, the reader is referred to the learned observations of Dr. C. Burney in Mr. Todd's edition, too long to be inserted in this place.

 Pythone cæso, sive tu magis Pæan 25

MANSUS.

Joannes Baptista Mansus, Marchio Villensis, vir ingenii laude, tum literarum studio, nec non et bellica virtute, apud Italos clarus in primis est. Ad quem Torquati Tassi Dialogus extat de Amicitia scriptus; erat enim Tassi amicissimus; ab quo etiam inter Campaniæ principes celebratur, in illo poemate cui titulus GERUSALEMME CONQUISTATA, lib. 20.

Fra cavalier magnanimi, è cortesi,
Risplende il Manso—

Is authorem Neapoli commorantem summa benevolentia prosecutus est, multaque ei detulit humanitatis officia. Ad hunc itaque hospes ille, antequam ab ea urbe discederet, ut ne ingratum se ostenderet, hoc carmen misit.

HÆC quoque, Manse, tuæ meditantur carmina laudi

Pierides, tibi, Manse, choro notissime Phœbi;
Quandoquidem ille alium haud æquo est dignatus
honore,

Post Galli cineres, et Mecænatis Hetrusci.
Tu quoque, si nostræ tantum valet aura Camœnæ,
Victrices hederas inter laurosque sedebis.
Te pridem magno felix concordia Tasso
Junxit, et æternis inscripsit nomina chartis:
Mox tibi dulciloquum non inscia Musa Marinum
Tradidit; ille tuum dici se gaudet alumnum, 10
Dum canit Assyrios divum prolixus amores;
Mollis et Ausonias stupefecit carmine nymphas.
Ille itidem moriens tibi soli debita vates

Ossa, tibi soli, supremaque vota reliquit :
Nec manes pietas tua clara fefellit amici ;
Vidimus arridentem operoso ex ære poetam.
Nec satis hoc visum est in utrumque, et nec pia cessant

Officia in tumultu ; cupis integros rapere Orco,
Qua potes, atque avidas Parcarum eludere leges :
Amborum genus, et varia sub sorte peractam 20
Describis vitam, moresque, et dona Minervæ
Æmulus illius, Mycalen qui natus ad altam,
Rettulit Æolii vitam facundus Homeri.
Ergo ego te, Clius et magni nomine Phœbi,
Manse pater, jubeo longum salvere per ævum, 25
Missus Hyperboreo juvenis peregrinus ab axe.
Nec tu longinquam bonus aspernabere Musam,
Quæ nuper gelida vix enutrita sub Arcto,
Imprudens Italas ausa est volitare per urbes.
Nos etiam in nostro modulantes flumine cygnos 30
Credimus obscuras noctis sensisse per umbras,
Qua Thamesis late puris argenteus urnis
Oceanî glaucos perfundit gurgite crines :
Quin et in has quondam pervenit Tityrus oras.

 Quantum fata sinunt; et tota mente serenum
 Ridens, purpureo suffundar lumine vultus,

EPITAPHIUM DAMONIS.

ARGUMENTUM.

Thyrsis et Damon, ejusdem viciniae pastores, eadem studia sequuti, a pueritia amici erant, ut qui plurimum. Thyrsis, animi causa profectus peregre, de obitu Damonis nuncium accepit. Domum postea reversus, et rem ita esse comperto, se, suamque solitudinem hoc carmine deplorat. Damonis autem sub persona hic intelligitur CAROLUS DEODATUS ex urbe Hetruriæ, Luca paterno genere oriundus, cætera Anglus; ingenio, doctrina, clarissimisque cæteris virtutibus, dum viveret, juvenis egregius.*

HIMERIDES nymphæ (nam vos et Daphnin et Hy-
 Et plorata diu meministis fata Bionis) [lan,
 Dicite Sicelicum Thamesina per opida carmen :
 Quas miser effudit voces, quæ murmura Thyrsis,
 Et quibus assiduis exercuit antra querelis, 5
 Fluminaque, fontesque vagos, nemorumque reces-
 sus ; [altam
 Dum sibi præreptum queritur Damona, neque
 Luctibus exemit noctem, loca sola pererrans.
 Et jam bis viridi surgebat culmus arista,
 Et totidem flavas numerabant horrea messes, 10
 Ex quo summa dies tulerat Damona sub umbras,
 Nec dum aderat Thyrsis ; pastorem scilicet illum
 Dulcis amor Musæ Thusca retinebat in urbe :

 Venit Hyas, Dryopeque, et filia Baucidis Aegle,
 Docta modos, citharæque sciens, sed perditâ fastu;

⁸⁹ Docta] Hor. Od. iii. ix. 1.

‘Dulces docta modos, et citharæ sciens.’ Bowle.

Venit Idumanii Chloris vicina fluenti ; 90
 Nil me blanditiæ, nil me solantia verba,
 Nil me, si quid adest, movet, aut spes ulla futuri.

Ite domum impasti, domino jam non vacat, agni.
 Hei mihi, quam similes ludunt per prata juvenci,
 Omnes unanimi secum sibi lege sodales ! 95

Nec magis hunc alio quisquam secernit amicum
 De grege ; sic densi veniunt ad pabula thoes,
 Inque vicem hirsuti paribus junguntur onagri ;
 Lex eadem pelagi ; deserto in littore Proteus
 Agmina Phocarum numerat, vilisque volucrum
 Passer habet semper quicum sit, et omnia circum
 Farra libens volitet, sero sua tecta revisens ;
 Quem si sors letho objecit, seu milvus adunco
 Fata tulit rostro, seu stravit arundine fossor,
 Protinus ille alium socio petit inde volatu. 105

Nos durum genus, et diris exercita fati
 Gens homines, aliena animis, et pectore discors ;
 Vix sibi quisque parem de millibus invenit unum ;
 Aut si sors dederit tandem non aspera votis,
 Illum inopina dies, qua non speraveris hora, 110
 Surripit, æternum linquens in sæcula damnum.

Ite domum impasti, domino jam non vacat, agni
 Heu quis me ignotas traxit vagus error in oras
 Ire per aëreas rupes, Alpemque nivosam !

90 Idumanii] The river Chelmer in Essex. Warton.

92 futuri] 'Futurum,' without an adjunct, never means future time, but future event; Milton consequently is wrong.
 Parr.

99 Proteus] Virg. Georg. iv. 432. Bowle.

Ecquid erat tanti Romam vidisse sepultam, 115
 (Quamvis illa foret, qualem dum viseret olim, Tityrus ipse suas et oves et rura reliquit ;)
 Ut te tam dulci possem caruisse sodale,
 Possem tot maria alta, tot interponere montes,
 Tot sylvas, tot saxa tibi, fluviosque sonantes ! 120
 Ah certe extremum licuisset tangere dextram,
 Et bene compositos placide morientis ocellos,
 Et dixisse, "Vale, nostri memor ibis ad astra."

Ite domum impasti, domino jam non vacat, agni.
 Quamquam etiam vestri nunquam meminisse pi-
 gebit, 125
 Pastores Thusci, Musis operata juvenus,
 Hic Charis, atque Lepos ; et Thuscus tu quoque
 Damon,

Antiqua genus unde petis Lucumonis ab urbe.
 O ego quantus eram, gelidi cum stratus ad Arni
 Murmura, populeumque nemus, qua mollior herba,
 Carpere nunc violas, nunc summas carpere myrtos,
 Et potui Lycidæ certantem audire Menalcam !
 Ipse etiam tentare ausus sum ; nec puto multum
 Displicui, nam sunt et apud me munera vestra,
 Fiscellæ, calathique, et cerea vincla cicutæ : 135
 Quin et nostra suas docuerunt nomina fagos
 Et Datis, et Francinus, erant et vocibus ambo
 Et studiis noti, Lydorum sanguinis ambo.

Ite domum impasti, domino jam non vacat, agni.

138 Lydorum] Of the most ancient Tuscan families. The Lydians brought a colony into Italy, whence the Tuscans. Hor. Sat. i. vi. 1, and Propert. iii. ix. 1. Warton.

Hæc mihi tum læto dictabat roscida luna, 140
 Dum solus teneros claudebam cratibus hædos.
 Ah quoties dixi, cum te cinis ater habebat,
 Nunc canit, aut lepori nunc tendit retia Damon,
 Vimina nunc texit, varios sibi quod sit in usus !
 Et quæ tum facili sperabam mente futura 145
 Arripui voto levis, et præsentia finxi ; [tardat,
 Heus bone numquid agis ? nisi te quid forte re-
 Imus ? et arguta paulum recubamus in umbra,
 Aut ad aquas Colni, aut ubi jugera Cassibelauni ?
 Tu mihi percurres medicos, tua gramina, succos,
 Helleborumque, humilesque crocos, foliumque
 hyacinthi, [tum.
 Quasque habet ista palus herbas, artesque meden-
 Ah pereant herbæ, pereant artesque medentum,
 Gramina, postquam ipsi nil profecere magistro !
 Ipse etiam, nam nescio quid mihi grande sonabat
 Fistula, ab undecima jam lux est altera nocte,
 Et tum forte novis admôram labra cicutis, 157
 Dissiluere tamen rupta compage, nec ultra
 Fërre graves potuere sonos : dubito quoque ne sim
 Turgidulus, tamen et referam ; vos cedite, sylvæ.
 Ite domum impasti, domino jam nonvacat, agni.
 Ipse ego Dardanias Rutupina per æquora puppes
 Dicam, et Pandrasidos regnum vetus Inogeniæ,
 Brennumque Arviragumque duces, priscumque
 Belinum,

141 cratibus] Hor. Epod. ii. 45.

‘ Claudensque textis cratibus lætum pecus.’ Todd.

Et tandem Armoricos Britonum sub lege colonos ;
 Tum gravidam Arturo, fatali fraude, Iögernen,
 Mendaces vultus, assumptaque Gorlōis arma,
 Merlini dolus. O mihi tum si vita supersit,
 Tu procul annosa pendebis, fistula, pinu,
 Multum oblita mihi ; aut patriis mutata Camœnis
 Brittonicum strides, quid enim? omnia non licet uni,
 Non sperasse uni licet omnia, mi satis ampla
 Merces, et mihi grande decus (sim ignotus in ævum
 Tum licet, externo penitusque inglorius orbi)
 Si me flava comas legat Usa, et potor Alauni, 175
 Vorticibusque frequens Abra, et nemus omne
 Treantæ,

Et Thamesis meus ante omnes, et fusca metallis
 Tamara, et extremis me discant Orcades undis.

Ite domum impasti, domino jam non vacat, agni.
 Hæc tibi servabam lenta sub cortice lauri, 180
 Hæc, et plura simul; tum quæ mihi pocula Mansus,
 Mansus, Chalcidicæ non ultima gloria ripæ,
 Bina dedit, mirum artis opus, mirandus et ipse,
 Et circum gemino cælaverat argumento :
 In medio rubri maris unda, et odoriferum ver, 185
 Littora longa Arabum, et sudantes balsama sylvæ,
 Has inter Phoenix, divina avis, unica terris,

171 Brittonicum] First syllable long; see Lucret. vi. 1104;
 ver. 165 of this poem, Milton has made it short, 'Britonum.'

182 Chalcidicæ] A people called the 'Chalcidici' are said to have founded Naples. Virg. Ecl. x. 50. 'Chalcidico versu.'
 Æn. vi. 17. Warton.

Cæruleum fulgens diversicoloribus alis,
 Auroram vitreis surgentem respicit undis;
 Parte alia polus omnipotens, et magnus Olympus;
 Quis putet? hic quoque Amor, pictæque in nube
 pharetræ, 191

Arma corusca faces, et spicula tincta pyropo;
 Nec tenues animas, pectusque ignobile vulgi
 Hinc ferit; at circum flammantia lumina torquens,
 Semper in erectum spargit sua tela per orbis 195
 Impiger, et pronos nunquam collimat ad ictus:
 Hinc mentes ardere sacræ, formæque deorum.

Tu quoque in his, nec me fallit spes lubrica,
 Damon,

Tu quoque in his certe es, nam quo tua dulcis abiret
 Sanctaque simplicitas, nam quo tua candida virtus?
 Nec te Lethæo fas quæsisisse sub orco,
 Nec tibi conveniunt lacrymæ, nec flebimus ultra,
 Ite procul lacrymæ: purum colit æthera Damon,
 Æthera purus habet, pluvium pede reppulit arcum;
 Meroumque animas inter, divosque perennes, 205
 Æthereos haurit latices, et gaudia potat
 Ore sacro. Quin tu, cœli post jura recepta,
 Dexter ades, placidusque fave quicumque vocaris,
 Seu tu noster eris Damon, sive æquior audis
 Diodatus, quo te divino nomine cuncti 210
 Cœlicolæ norint, sylvisque vocabere Damon.
 Quod tibi purpureus pudor, et sine labe juvenus
 Grata fuit, quod nulla tori libata voluptas,

¹⁸⁸ diversicoloribus alis] Eurip. Hippol. 1270, Cupid is termed ποικιλόπτερος. See too Aristoph. Av. 249.

En etiam tibi virginei servantur honores ;
 Ipse caput nitidum cinctus rutilante corona, 215
 Lætaque frondentis gestans umbracula palmæ,
 Æternum perages immortales hymenæos ;
 Cantus ubi, choreisque furit lyra mista beatis,
 Festa Sionæo bacchantur et Orgia thyrsu.

JAN. 23, 1646.

AD JOANNEM ROUSIUM OXONIENSIS ACADEMIÆ BIBLIOTHECARIUM.*

De libro Poematum amisso, quem ille sibi denuo mitti postulabat, ut cum aliis nostris in Bibliotheca publica reponet, Ode.

STROPHE I.

GEMELLE cultu simplici gaudens liber,
 Fronde licet gemina,
 Munditieque nitens non operosa ;
 Quam manus attulit
 Juvenilis olim, 5
 Sedula tamen haud nimii poetæ ;

* This ode, in Milton's own hand writing, on one sheet of paper, is inserted between the Latin and English poems, in a copy which he sent to Rouse, and which is now in the Bodleian M. 168, Art. 8vo. Another small volume, containing some of his prose tracts, with an inscription to J. Rouse, in Milton's hand writing, is in the same library. F. 56, Th. See some observations on the structure of this Ode in Symmons's Life, p. 281, ed. second.

² Fronde] 'Fronte' is perhaps a better reading. Warton.

Dum vagus Ausonias nunc per umbras,
Nunc Britannica per vireta ludit,
Insons populi, barbitoque devius
Indulsit patrio, mox itidem pectine Daunio 10
Longinquum intonuit melos
Vicinis, et humum vix tetigit pede :

ANTISTROPHE.

Quis te, parve liber, quis te fratribus
Subdixit reliquis dolo?
Cum tu missus ab urbe, 15
Docto jugiter obsecrante amico,
Illustre tendebas iter
Thamesis ad incunabula
Cærulei patris,
Fontes ubi limpidi 20
Aonidum, thyasusque sacer,
Orbi notus per immensos
Temporum lapsus redeunte cœlo,
Celeberque futurus in ævum ?

STROPHE II.

Modo quis deus, aut editus deo, 25
Pristinam gentis miseratus indolem,
(Si satis noxas luimus priores,
Mollique luxu degener otium)
Tollat nefandos civium tumultus,
Almaque revocet studia sanctus,
Et relegatas sine sede Musas 30
Jam pene totis finibus Angligenum ;
